The river today stands at 7 feet 8 inches.

The teacher's institute begins Monday. The attendance promises to be unusually large.

Heavy travel west still continues and all trains carry all the passengers that can comfortably get aboard.

Frank Carruth recently made some views of the Louisville quarries, and has them for sale at his gallery.

The noble (?) red men who were here the other evening, have been entertaining Omaha audiences with the war dance.

Rasgorshek Bros. are locat d in their new building in the Sherwood block, and are taking measures for suits as usual.

Frank Hartigan would be pleased to see and regain the possession of a good straw hat which he lost the night of the fire.

Nebraska City has a dudine, and the married men down there neglect business to watch her promenade the streets.

Early morning horseback rides continue to be a favorite exercise with a number of the ladies. Some of them go alone too.

The fur will soon begin to fly on the Plattsmouth & Southwestern, and it means a boom of no small magnitude to our city.

Farmers report bad weather for corn planted since the hail storm, and have little hopes of realizing from corn planted then.

John Boone was selected by the colored men's convention, in Omaha, as the member of the State executive committee from Cass county.

A special car containing officers of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railroad was attached to No. 1 west this morning going to Denver.

Sec'y Wheelar, of the state fair, is busily engaged sending out 14,000 posters of the coming fair, which will be put up in every town in the state.

Dick O'Neil is doing some fine engraving on a gold watch for Prof. Drummond. On one side is the monogram and on the other the Drummond coat of arms.

Connor and Draper have been receiving a large lot of Corn at their elevator, the last few days, and there is a large lot yet in Cass county to be marketed.

Apples are beginning to come in and the apple wagon greets the eye on almost every street corner. Some of them are very fine looking fruit, and are selling pretty cheap.

Business men are informed that the HERALD has a large lot of envelopes of the best quality that were bought cheap, and that we are making special bargains to those wishing supplies in that line.

A petition is in circulation in Dodge county asking the county commissioners to submit the question of township organization to a vote this fall. A number of other counties are also agitating the matter.

Miller's lady barber arrived last evening and is on duty today. J. B. Strode went to Omaha this morning and had a clean shave before he started and when interrogated as to whether the lady shaved him or not, said, "Oh, no," but his countenance gave him away.

The body of Christian Schluntz was brought down from Ashland this morning and taken to Oak Hill cemetery, where appropriate services were held at the grave by the pastor of the German Presbyterian church, a large number of citizens attended the services.

The report gained circulation this morning that Sheriff Hyers had a new girl at his house, which arose from his buying a box of cigars at the expense of the county clerk Jennings, and setting them up to the boys. Reub didn't deny it for a time, but finally laid it all on to Mr. Jennings.

A man to have any standing in Plattsmouth should own a chicken dog and know how to put shells into a breach loading shot gun. In two more weeks prairie chickens will be ripe, and the dog and gun take the place of glass balls and base ball. We hear now, of arrangements being made for big hunts.

There is one crop this season which the hail storm did not affect, and the harvest has been a very fair one. The HERALD rises to remark that it might be an interesting feature of our coming County fair to offer a special premium for a baby show, and send for Dick Thompson of the Hastings Democrat to act as referee.

Fremont is all agog over a social scandal, in which a prominent citizen discovered one of the "good boys," of the town on too intimate terms with his hired girl. There was some feeling against the p. c. on account of his treatment of the girl, since his discovery, which calls out a statement of the affair, very damaging to the young lady and her "darling boy."

THE CAPITOL CONTRACT.

A Mandamus Issued by the Supreme Court on Application of R. D. Silver.

Considerable interest was excited yesterday by the report that R. D. Silver had commenced his threatened legal proceedings against the board of public lands and buildings to compel them to award to him the state capitol contract instead of to W. H. B. Stout.

The reporter did not learn of the matter until it was too late to go to the court records and get the full record of the case. We understand, however, that a writ of mandamus has been issued by the supreme court, and that the papers were served yesterday upon the members of the board of public lands and buildings and W. H. B. Stout, and that they are cited to appear before the supreme court at 8:30 a. m. August 4.

The case will be looked up today and a full record of the proceedings of the case so far will be given tomorrow morning. It is probable that nothing will be done tomorrow beyond giving the respondents leave to answer—State Journal.

Badge Winner.

Yesterday after the dead sure thing was disposed of in the way of base ball there being quite a number of sportsmen present, with their ordnance, a short shoot was indulged in for the sportsman's badge, which is supposed to belong of the best shot in the Plattsmouth sportsmen's club—this contest proved that W. D. Jones was the best shot, and today haughtily wears that emblem of his skill and superiority with the double barreled fowling piece, which he will probably modestly lay down at the next contest; below will be found the score;

Webber	1	1	0	0	0	—	0	1	0	0	1—4
Chapman	1	0	1	1	1	—	1	0	1	0	1 7
Strode	1	1	0	1	0	—	1	1	0	0	1—6
Lewis	1	1	0	1	1	—	1	1	1	1	0—8
Crawford	1	1	0	1	0	—	1	1	1	0	0—6

County Treasurer's Settlement.

The County Commissioners, after a three weeks siege have completed the examination of the county Treasurer's semi-annual report. They took the report and went through the books, checking off every item, and found it correct to a cent without the correction or alteration of a letter or figure. Dave Campbell, deputy Treasurer, made up the statement, and for accuracy and neatness it can't be beaten. The report consists of an itemized account of each fund including back taxes collected, as far back as 1858, and for as small an amount as ninety cents. It is a piece of work that Dave can take a just pride in as being the first statement ever made in the Treasure's office in Cass County which footed, balanced and proved without a single error.

Base Ball.

The game of base ball played yesterday by the Weeping Water and Plattsmouth nines was the most closely contested game of the season. Both sides played remarkably well and played the game for all there was in it. A number of goose eggs were indulged in by both sides. At the beginning of the seventh innings the score stood 8 to 3 in favor of the home club, but some wild playing let in fire or six tallies for the Weeping Water boys. The score at the close stood 8 to 9 in favor of the Weeping Water club. Dr. Salisbury acted as umpire and gave pretty general satisfaction as to the fairness of his decisions. We have not been able to get the score by innings but those who witnessed the game say it was the best game played on the grounds this season.

The Grand Island times says that North Platte "sees her" and gets one better. She has a regularly graduated woman physician in the person of Mrs. A. H. Church, and now she adds to her list of professionals a woman preacher. Speaking of the lady the Nebraskian says: "The Unitarian Society at North Platte has secured the services of Rev. Anna J. Norris, late of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, as pastor and preacher. Miss N. was raised and educated at Iowa college in Grinnell, taught in the Cedar Rapids' schools, completed the full course of study in the Unitarian Theological School at Meadville, Penn, last June, and graduation day was regularly ordained to the Unitarian ministry, receiving the charge from Rev. John Hill, ex president of Harvard University."

Mr. F. S. White received a letter today from his son Alf written aboard the City of Rome, on the 22d of July, he says John Cummins took a very severe cold but is all right now, and feels as lively as ever, he says they experienced very cold weather on midocean, finding overcoats very comfortable on deck. Alf doesn't say the boys were seasick, but he says they didn't have any appetite to eat the delicacies that were prepared for them. Health good and a pleasant time being had.

There has been considerable commotion around the county clerk's office for the past day or two, and inquiry as to the cause of it develops the intelligence that county clerk Jennings has company at his house in the person of a young lady, a strawberry blonde, who will make them an extended visit. The mother and daughter are doing well, but the father has not been seen since.

The Plattsmouth base ball club went to Weeping Water today to redeem if possible the game so unexpectedly lost yesterday. They took with them $100, as a purse to play for, and some of their backers, with plenty of money, also went along, to either make or lose on the game.

The city council do not want to forget that the Fifth street work by Sherwood's block should be done immediately, and that the place is dangerous as it is, and that the city is liable for any accident that may occur.

The best dinner of the season was partaken at Mrs. Geo. Fairfield's yesterday, a general good time was enjoyed by the guests present, who vote Mrs. Fairfield a complete success as an entertainer.
