PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

TOWEL SHOWER FOR MISS MATTIE LARSON

From Monday's Daily.

Another delightful social event of the midsummer season was the one held at the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Kerr, Saturday evening. This delightful affair was given by the daughters, Mesdames R. E. Andrews of Omaha, J. B. Rishel of Glenwood, Iowa, and Miss Julia Kerr and was a very charming porch party. The affair was in honor of Miss Mattie Larson and was in the nature of a towel shower. The porch and lawn had been made very cozy with the use of chairs, rockers, rugs and swings and was prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns.

Much pleasure was derived in playing progressive rook, there being four tables.

During the evening the guests were invited out on the lawn. Here the bride-to-be was told she might be a child once more. Various games and romp in which children find so much merriment, were participated in and provoked much enjoyment and laughter. The guests then repaired to the living room where the bride-to-be was showered with many handsome towels.

Dainty refreshments were then served. A few moments devoted to a very pleasant social time and writing recipes for the bride-to-be, and then the guests dispersed, declaring the hostesses to be most excellent entertainers.

A VERY BEAUTIFUL SPOT

From Tuesday's Daily.

Anyone motoring or traveling along Chicago avenue cannot fail to be charmed by the appearance of the parking at the Tenth street intersection of the avenue. There is a small piece of parking located there that the ladies of that locality have certainly made an object of beauty and one that does much to add to the appearance of that section of the city.

Mrs. Charles Troop and a number of other ladies who reside in that locality have planted the small park to flowers and carefully tended it during the spring and summer and the result is surprising. It sets off the driveway nicely and is an attractive advertisement for that part of the city, being arranged in a most pleasing manner.

If all the small parking spaces along the avenues were treated in a similar manner to the one on Chicago avenue it would not be long before we would have some of the handsomest driveways in the state and that would be a splendid advertisement for the city. The ladies looking after the work certainly deserve a world of credit for their efforts, which have produced such splendid results.

ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION

From Tuesday's Daily.

At the postoffice in this city there is on display a copy of the fish and game laws, showing the open and closed seasons of the different game birds and animals as well as the fishing seasons. This has been of much interest to the sportsmen of the city and gives them the right dope on the seasons when they can get busy with the rod and gun. The copy of the laws is exhibited at one of the writing desks and those interested can find anything they desire to know by looking over the law.
