FUNERAL OF JAMES H. JONES

From Saturday's Daily—

The funeral services of James H. Jones were held yesterday at the Sattler funeral home at 4th and Vine streets and to pay their last tributes of love and respect to this splendid young man, a large number of the old friends gathered to share with the members of the family circle the deep sense of sorrow that has been felt at the untimely taking away of this fine young man.

The funeral service was held by the Rev. Harold E. Sortor, pastor of the First Methodist church, who gave to the members of the family words of comfort in their bereavement at the death of their husband, father and brother, while in the full flush of his young manhood.

During the service Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave three of the songs that had been chosen by the family for this parting service. "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown' and "Asleep in Jesus," the musical message of the wonders of the salvation of the Master coming to comfort and cheer the family circle of the departed.

At the close of the service the body was borne to the Oak Hill cemetery where it was laid to the last long rest, the casket being borne by a group of fellow employes of Mr. Jones from the Nebraska Power Co., of Omaha.
