ABANDON THE FOUNDATION

Chicago, Jan. 25.—The Susan B. Anthony Foundation, inc., after spending fifteen years collecting funds for a proposed $3,000,000 memorial to the suffrage leader, has been disbanded and collection of contributions halted, it was announced today by Mrs. Luella Montgomery MacKennan, Illinois director. Mrs. MacKennan has just returned from Washington where, she said, Mrs. Marl Allen Adams, the new president, ordered the dissolution when she found that no money remained in the treasury and the foundation had nothing but outstanding debts.
