Alvo News

Roy Stuart was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth and Omaha one day last week.

Mrs. Clara Matzen was in Plattsmouth last Tuesday, where she went to look after some business matters at the court house. She was accompanied by Roy Stuart, who took her in his auto.

Mrs. Carl Hoffman and the children have been visiting with her folks in Council Bluffs, Carl taking them there last Sunday. He has been batching during their absence and is getting anxious for their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mann were visiting for a few days last week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Howard Brunkow and family. Herman accompanied his son-in-law to Alvo when he was called here to look after some business matters, and met a number of his old friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rosenow departed last Sunday for a ten days' visit in the northwest, having as their objective, Sheridan, Wyoming, where they went to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Obed Clarke, and where they expect to enjoy a splendid outing. Mrs. Rosenow and Mrs. Clarke are sisters.

Joe Bird, who has been living on a farm in the country, moved to town last week, and is now residing in the house where Sterling Coatman resided for some time past. Sterling has purchased the house formerly owned by John Coleman, who moved to Omaha, and thus the needs of both families are supplied.

Mrs. C. W. Jewell, who is at Elmwood, where she is caring for Mrs. Walter Bartlett, reports Mrs. Bartlett as being quite a lot better and so she can get out of her bed, being able to stand and walk some about the house. This is good news as Mrs. Bartlett has been in a very serious state of health.

Undergoes Operation

Lyle Bouton, who has been troubled with repeated attacks of appendicitis, was taken to a hospital in Omaha last Saturday, where he underwent an operation for relief from the malady and is reported as getting along very nicely since undergoing the ordeal. Fred Rueter and wife drove up to visit the patient Wednesday and found him making fine progress.

Schools to Open Sept. 2nd

The Alvo Consolidated schools are to open for the school year on Monday, Sept. 2nd. Everything is in readiness for the opening, the school house and fixtures having been placed in the best of shape during the vacation and the teachers will come back rested and refreshed from their respective vacations, a considerable part of which has been spent out of doors, so that the return to books and study will be a delightful change for both scholars and teachers.

Had Pleasant Gathering

In honor of the wedding of Miss Vera Rueter and Wayne Wiles which occurred about a month ago, there was held on last Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rueter a shower for the newlyweds. A large number of the friends were present and helped to make the occasion a merry one. The happy couple received some useful gifts in token of the high esteem in which they are held.

Home from the West

Mr. and Mrs. William Reuter, of near Wabash, were in Alvo last Wednesday, where they were looking after some business matters and visiting at the homes of Fred Rueter and Daniel Rueter, brothers of Will. They have just returned from a trip to the west, which included Denver, Idaho Springs and many of the interesting points of the west. They went out by way of the Republican river valley, where the devastating flood of the early part of the season did so much damage and found that part of the country now as dry as a bone, with crops suffering greatly.

At Cambridge they met with and visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Norenberg, a former pastor of this vicinity, who is now pastor of a church there. They found them very busy with the work of the church and making a success of it, despite the fact that Rev. Norenberg is in poor health, suffering from rheumatism. Both Rev. and Mrs. Norenberg extended greetings to the friends in Cass county whom they had known when working here.

Returned to Alvo Last Week

Mr and Mrs. L. M. Hauptman, superintendent of the Alvo schools and wife, who have been making their home in Lincoln during the summer while Prof. Hauptman was attending summer school and adding to his fund of knowledge in spite of the extremely hot weather, returned home last Sunday, August 11th, putting in the greater part of the past week getting located in their new home which has just been rebuilt by P. J. Linch, making a veritable new house out of the place.

Wins Scholarship in Contest

In a contest between some fifty students at Wesleyan University, Donald McKinzie was awarded a scholarship at Columbia University and with the opening of the coming school year this coming month, will depart for the east to enroll as a student in this famous old school.

Locks Good for Alvo

Alvo is promised a practicing physician and as well a new druggist, and some say a hospital or a place where patients can be cared for and nursed back to health. There is a demand for such an institution in this part of the country some say it is just a rumor, but there are always some who will not believe.

Underwent an Operation

Mrs. Simon Rehmeier went to the hospital and there underwent an operation last Thursday on her feet, which have been causing her much grief of late, paining her continually and to such an extent that she has found great difficulty in getting around on them. When she was a girl in the old country, like many another maiden of those days and some of the present time as well, was compelled to wear wooden shoes, which crippled and dwarfed her feet and as a result she has suffered much agony with them for a good number of years past. Her trip to the hospital and subsequent operation was made in the hope of finding relief and her friends trust she will be able to return home in the near future with her feet in good condition.

Attended Funeral of Cousin

Last Monday, August 12, John W. Banning and wife of Alvo, accompanied by Miss Pearle Banning, of Union, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion N. Tucker of Nehawka, were over to Afton, Iowa, where they went to attend the funeral and burial of their cousin, Miss Helen Seeley, age 75, who made her home in Lincoln in late years and who passed away there last Saturday, August 10. Miss Seeley's former home was at Afton and it is there that other members of the family are resting.

In speaking of the crops there, Mr. Banning says they are much better than in the vicinity of Alvo and fully equal to or better than corn in the eastern part of the county, where more rain was received than was alloted to this section.

All over southeastern Nebraska the corn is beginning to show the effects of a lack of moisture, and unless rain comes soon, the crop will be badly damaged by the prevailing dry hot winds.

Dallas, Tex.—Judge Towne Young sent six more striking women garment workers to jail for contempt of court as a result of a riot in front of two dress factories here last week when four women were stripped and six others partly disrobed.

Nu Ways and Cardinals Win Friday Games

Nu Ways Wins from Home Dairy 7-2; Cardinals and Donats Battle to 10 to 12 Decision.

The Friday double header in the local softball league Friday evening drew out a good crowd of the fans to enjoy the events and in which "Dusty" Rhoades and his Nu-Way team won from the Home Dairy by the score of 7 to 2, while the Cardinals from west of the city and the Donat Peerless had a 12 to 10 battle.

The Nu-Way in the opening game grabbed a lead in the fourth frame when four of the hamburger dealers came over the rubber for what was a safe margin that was never headed. The Home Dairy in the fifth collected their two scores on a hit by Keil, a walk to Smock and walks to Miller and Fulton that tallied Keil and Smock:

Cards Take Nightcap.

In the closing game of the evening the Cardinals emulating their namesakes from St. Louis, took a close game from the Donat Peerless by a 12 to 10 score. The Cardinals took a commanding lead in the fourth with a seven run rally but were threatened in the seventh when the Peerless started their last inning stand but were held to one score.

DEPART ON VACATION

From Thursday's Daily

This afternoon Officer David Pickrell and wife departed on a short auto trip through southern Nebraska, visiting friends at Fairbury and other points. Dave is now taking his turn on the vacation period for the police and will enjoy it far from the grind of duty and the tasks that are a disagreeable feature of the average policeman's work.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

W. C. Larson, watchman at the local Burlington bridge, who has been at the University hospital at Omaha, is now showing a nice improvement in his condition. Mr. Larson was suffering from a heart ailment as well as a dropsical condition which has been very greatly aided by the treatment in the hospital. He is expecting to be able to return home within a short time now.

MARRIED AT GLENWOOD

The marriage of two well known young people of the Weeping Water community occurred on Thursday at Glenwood, when George P. Wiles and Miss Viola Sand of the Cass county city were united in the bonds of wedlock.

The wedding was very quiet, the bridal couple motoring to the Iowa city in company with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wiles and Mrs. R. F. Ronne of this city, Mr. Wiles and Mrs. Ronne being brother and aunt of the groom. Following the wedding ceremony the bridal party returned here and later the bride and groom returned to their home to receive the congratulations of the friends.

The groom is one of the well known young farmers of the central part of the county and a member of one of the well known families of that section, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiles and grandson of George Wiles, Sr.

The bride has a large circle of friends in her home community and is esteemed by all who have the pleasure of her acquaintance and the many friends will join in their best wishes to this estimable young couple as they start their new home.

Chevies Win Game from South Park Rowdies

Auto Dealers Benefit by Errors and Hard Hitting—O'Donnell Scores Lone Rowdie Run.

From Friday's Daily

The Chevrolet team of the softball league last evening took an 8 to 1 contest from the South Park Rowdies and in which the southsiders were held scoreless until the fifth inning.

The third and fifth innings were the big ones for the Chevies as errors and a double by Allan McClanahan accounted for four runs, while in the fifth Schutz was safe on an error at short, followed by McClanahan who doubled and then Bill Smith proceeded to hit a circuit drive to complete the tragedy.

The box score of the game was as follows:

RETURN SROM MINNESOTA

From Saturday's Daily:

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Petersen and daughters, Edna Mae and Shirley Ann returned home late last night from a ten day outing at East Battle Lake, Minnesota. They were accompanied by Miss Betty Rath of Chicago, a niece of Mrs. Petersen.

Charlie went in for fishing while the girls and Mrs. Petersen enjoyed the swimming and boating in the delightful coolness of the lake country.

NEW SON ARRIVES

There was born on Wednesday, August 14th to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Winscott of David City a very fine nine pound son, who with the mother is getting on nicely. The mother was formerly Miss Stella Crocker of David City. The parents are very much pleased over the very pleasant arrival. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Winscott of this city are also well pleased.

ENJOYING VACATION

Miss Helen Warner, the accommodating deputy clerk of the district court, is among the vacationers this week as she is spending several days in Iowa where she is visiting at Shenandoah, Creston, Red Oak and Centerville, spending several days at the latter city.

Wabash News

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller and their daughter, Don Juno, of Detroit, Michigan, where Mr. Miller is employed in one of the large plants of the Fisher Bodies corporation, have been visiting here for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hardaway, who have been enjoying a visit for the past two weeks from their little friend, Helen Grant, were also enjoying a visit from the family of her parents, Fred Grant and family, of Nehawka, last Sunday. As Helen, who is ten years of age and a very active and friendly little girl, returned home with the parents, the Hardaway home now seems pretty quiet and empty.

William Rueter and family, who have been enjoying a vacation in the west, arrived home last week, being well pleased with their trip and the many places of interest they had been able to see. Much of the time was spent at Denver and Colorado Springs and in the mountain country thereabouts. They found relief from the hot weather that has been prevailing in these parts, but say, believe us when we tell you that the old home looked pretty good to them after having been away even for such a short time.

Julius Holthusen, Missouri Pacific agent at Union, came up Friday evening, bringing the family for a visit with friends in this city.

"See it before you buy it."
