The Nebraska Herald.

LOCAL NEWS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

☞The sale of the property belonging to the estate of Peter A. Sarpy has been adjourned until Saturday of this week.

Gus. Wachter is going ahead with his new brick residence. He will have it completed before winter sets in.

☞The furniture of the Masonic and Odd Fellows Orders has been removed to their new Hall, in the third story of the new brick block where their meetings will hereafter be held.

☞A Harrisburg paper tells of a man who has failed in business four times, been upset in a stage coach, thrown down an embankment of sixty feet, fallen headforemost through a hatchway in a store in Reading; has been married three times, and is the father of twenty one children. "He still lives," is in business in Harrisburg, and keeps Roback's Bitters and Blood Pills constantly in his family.

☞Samuel Chapman, Esq., was admitted yesterday to the practice in the courts of this Territory, having passed the proper examination with credit to his ability and perseverance. He has been reading but a comparatively short time, but has made good use of his time and talents. Mr. Chapman is a young man, but will, by his untiring efforts and close applications to whatever he undertakes, yet make a mark in the world. Our word for it.

Good Enough.—We are glad to learn that our friends Back and Waters, late Register and Receiver of the Land Office, were favored with a regular "run" of business on Monday and Tuesday last, just before surrendering up their offices to the new Johnson appointees. The entries of land during the two days mentioned were near 5000 acres. The rush was caused by a desire on the part of some of our business men to give the retiring officers a benefit before the new administration commenced. A commendable verdict to faithful officers.—Nebraska City Press.

From Thursday's Daily.

A Contaminated Horse.—Our private steed William, a gelding prince of the line, a sound Andrew Johnson horse, is in bad company to day, and is in great danger of being contaminated. Over his hitherto unsullied back the reins are drawn by two Radical United States Senators from Nebraska. If he can be thus familiar with rampant Radicalism and not fall from grace, we shall have more respect for him than we have ever had before. We fear William is no longer an uncontaminated animal.—Herald.

We saw "William" on the occasion referred to, and he "felt his oats." He felt firm hands on the reins, which guided him on a straight, even way. There was no uncertain manipulation of the ribbons, to keep him in doubt whether to shoot off on to a "conservative" track, turn down "my policy" lane, or keep along on the Democratic way of pitfalls and stumbling blocks; but he was held well to the smooth, hard road of justice and the constitutional amendment. He felt proud of himself for once, and moved along with a freer step. He felt he had a "dignity to support." We feel for "William's" disappointment when he shall be returned to his former John.—Republican.

From Friday's Daily.

☞See new advertisement of Throckmorton & Son. They have just received a stock of eastern work, which they offer to customers at low prices. If you want the very best of Shop Work, Throckmorton & Son can give it to you. Don't fail to call on them.

☞The people of Nebraska City are making preparations for a "Grand Festival" at the completion of the High School building in that city. The building is a fine edifice, and does honor to the city. It is hoped that, by the light diffused through the instrumentality of his and other schools in that city, the Democratic majority of Otoe county will be materially decreased.

☞Fifteen hundred bushels of wheat from the valley of the Weeping Water are now lying in the warehouse at Wyoming awaiting shipment to St. Louis. Nebraska has exported a large amount of wheat this season, for the first time in her history. Her surplus has heretofore been in corn, which was shipped west, and did not attract quite so much attention as her wheat crop has this year.

☞The Press, of Nebraska City, comes to us with the intelligence that from and after the 1st day of November Col. O. H. Irish will again assume control of that paper. Col. Irish is one of the oldest and ablest newspaper man in Nebraska, having issued the first Republican paper printed in Nebraska City. He established the Press in 1858, and issued it regularly for three years. Since that time he has been more or less identified with the interests, policical and material, of Nebraska; and is probably as well acquainted with our wants as any man in the Territory. Mr. Irish will make the Press all that it should be, both political and local, if the people will stand by it as they did during his former connection with it.

From Saturday's Daily

☞The copperhead papers don't see near as many good qualities in Henry Ward Beecher now as they did a couple of weeks ago.

☞See new advertisement of Courtright & Graves. They are wide awake citizens, and first class workmen. Call and see them, and they will do you good.

☞A correspondent in the Omaha Herald shows his ears very distinctly by trying to prove himself a greater constitutional lawyer than Chas. Sumner. He would do well to remember the fable of the ox and the frog, and profit by it.

☞There is a great call for laborers in Nebraska at the present time, notwithstanding the large influx during the past year. Two or three thousand more laborers and mechanics can find constant employment here, at remunerative wages. People in the east who desire to better their condition and settle in a country where they can make a good home for themselves, will do well to come along immediately.

☞We regret to learn that a daughter of James M. Chalfant, Esq., was seriously injured on the 25th inst., while engaged in playing about a sugar cane mill. The injured child, Laura, aged eight years, saw a peice of cane entangled in the cogs of the rollers and attempting to disengage it her right hand and arm were drawn into the machinery as high up as the middle third of the arm, crushing the bones and tearing the muscles off in a shocking manner. Amputation was skillfully performed by Dr. Livingston, of this city, assisted by Dr. B. F. Reed, of Rock Bluffs, and at last accounts the unfortunate child was doing very well. We tender our sincere sympathy to the parents of the child and to the little sufferer.

From Monday's Daily.

☞The members of the Plattsmouth Brass Band are becoming quite proficient. They propose to give public audience as often as once a week.

☞The District Court is still in session. The trial of Pense and Howe, for the murder of Gideon, last spring, has been on hand since last Friday. It will probably close this evening or to-morrow.

☞The News says the great need of the county is a carding mill. Bring along your wool, and Dennis Dean, of Salt Creek, can "fix it up" for you in as good shape as "any other man" in the United States.

☞If people would take our advice they would purchase what property they want in this city before the first of May next. "There is a good time coming" for property owners in Plattsmouth; and we know it.

☞The Press and News, of Nebraska City, commence the publication of Tri weekly papers on the 1st of Nov., in lieu of their daily editions. This may be an indication of progress in that city, but we would prefer not to see Plattsmouth progress in that direction. What do our people say.

☞Hon. S. Maxwell has already gathered and securely housed about fourteen hundred bushels of corn, and will soon have the remainder of his crop—about 1000 bushels—taken care of. It is undoubtedly a great saving to gather corn before winter sets in, as it saves a great deal of corn, and the work of gathering can be done at a much less expense during good weather and long days.

☞Numerous rich incidents occured during the recent elections, and even here in Nebraska, and in the noted county of Cass, we have examples of the Democratic mode of obtaining votes and the effects thereof. We are credibly informed that, a day or two before the election, some of the copperhead "wire pullers" in this county were casting about to ascertain how they could best manage to carry a certain precinct called Louisville. There were a large number of Germans living in that locality, several of whom had never taken out their "pap rs." These copperhead engineers procured a keg of Lager, dispatched a man to Louisville with it (to be used for the same purpose they proposed to use "a jug of whiskey" with the soldiers). They further went to the trouble of securing the "papers" for a number of our German friends (and paying for the same) But lo and behold! when the returns came in from Louisville, it gave twenty-two majority for the Republican ticket. Oh! Democracy! The days when you could secure votes by such means are past and gone, and, for the good of the country we hope never to return. "Be virtuous, and you will be happy."

From Tuesday's Daily.

☞A waiter, dwelling upon the importance of small things, says, "that he alwayst akes notice of a straw, especially if there happens to be a sherry cobbler at one end of it."

☞The Constitutional Amendment repudiates the rebel war debt. The Democrats oppose the amendment. The reference is legitimate that they are in favor of the rebel debt.

☞A Democratic exchange says: "Mr. Johnson goes ahead with his policy, like the resistless river." And like a river, suggests the Albany Journal, he is greatest at the mouth.

☞In Council Bluffs people have ceased to advertise for houses to rent on the ground that it is useless to advertise for what isn't in market. House hunters have a sorry time over there. So says the Nonpareil.

☞A man met a big Indian on the plains recently. The noble aborigine had a large bundle of scalps, and the pale face made bold to ask him what he had been doing. "Heugh!" said the redskin, "me been skirmishing for waterfalls."

☞The object of the new secret order in the South, the "Knights of Arabia," is supposed to be the conquest of Cuba, and it is reported that expeditions will sail from New York, New Orleans and Mobile this month; comprising in all 50,000 men.

☞President Johnson has been on trial for some time and the verdict of the people is against him. If he insists upon farther trial, he will be like all fools who meddle with tedious suits at law, get an unfavorable verdict at great expense.

☞The gold and silver products of the United States for the year 1866 have been estimated at fr m eighty to one hundred and six millions. California producing twenty five millions; Montana eighteen millions: Idaho seventeen millions; Nevada sixteen millions; Oregon eight millions; Colorado seventeen millions: other sources five millions

The Dr. graduated and practiced in Pittsburg, Pa. with Dr. C. King, Professor of Dental Surgery, at Cincinatti Dental College. ERRORS OF YOUTH.

A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. ☞In going for or ordering goods, the great question to be solved is where they can be had so as to enable the purchaser to make the greatest profit. If they can be had near home for about the same money that would have to be paid at a greater distance, it is certainly an inducement. Let our dealers in Groceries, Liquors, e.c., reason upon this subject, and when they want anything in the line, go to Westheimer & Eppstein, in St. Joseph, and we doubt not they can make it more profitable than to send or go further east. je261m

SETTLE UP.
