Showing a portion of the South Facade. The graceful and imposing colonnade is repeated on all sides.

Paints, oils and brushes at D. C. Stinson's.

Dr. Maxwell is repairing the Feltz hotel, putting a good foundation under it, repairing the roof and fixing it up generally.

Candies, always fresh and best grades at Van's.

The county assessor and his deputies were in town on Saturday. H. O. Dorn, the new assessor presided at the meeting like a bishop.

John F. Sides, deputy U. S. marshal, left for Omaha Monday morning. His term of office commenced the first of the month, and his headquarters will be at Pender.

County Treasurer Blume is living in the Gribble house, lately occupied by George C. Bille. His family came on Tuesday morning.

Our old friend Antoin Wilke was in town on Monday. Antoin is a great admirer of rural free delivery. He says he saves lots of money by having it.

The personal property belonging to the Foltz estate was sold on Saturday by Howard Crozier, the administrator. H. O. Dorn was the auctioneer. Some of the property brought a pretty good price, but most of it went cheap.

Communion and reception of members at the Salem church Sunday morning. Also at the Salem church in the afternoon. All members should be present, all others will be cordially welcome.

S. H. Moore of Blyburg called at these headquarters on Monday. He used to live at Ewing, Nebraska, and was acquainted with H. V. Hileman of this office. They spent some time in discussing mutual acquaintances.

Strawberries! Strawberries! Strawberries! Where? Where? At Van's of course.

S. H. Moore, of the Red Oak Stock farm, and John Collins of Blyburg, each brought up a car load of fat cattle on Monday and shipped them to Sioux City on Tuesday. Mr. Moore is a breeder of Duroc Jersey hogs. He says he has the finest lot of pedigreed sows now he ever owned.

Boyd S. Leedom, publisher of the Osmond Republican, and postmaster at that place, son of J. F. Leedom of this place was visiting with his parents and other friends on Tuesday and Wednesday. He learned the printer's trade in the old mail office in the 70's when the paper was owned and published by the Herald man. We have always taken an interest in Boyd and are very glad that he has made himself a useful and valuable citizen, and has raised a worthy family.

Earl Reed, city circulator for the Sioux City Morning Journal, and another gentleman from Sioux City, were in town Tuesday evening, and while in town a tramp came along and took Mr. Reed's overcoat out of the buggy and walked off with it. When the gentlemen were ready to go home, they found the coat was missing and reported the matter to Sheriff Hansen and Deputy Ream, and they made search for the coat and found it in a box car near the depot. It had a man under it, so the officers took possession of man and coat and on Wednesday the man plead guilty and was sentenced to fifteen days in jail.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson start for Pala Alto, California, Tuesday morning. Another nice family from Dakota City, gone through the enthusiasm of Mr. Dibble. He selects from the best. We know several whom we could spare as well as not, but we have not heard that Mr. Dibble has used any persuasion whatever to get them to leave. Mrs. Johnson is a sister of the Bille boys, and Mr. Johnson came and settled on a homestead in Omaha precinct soon after the war. He is the father of nine children, and all of the nine are people worthy of the highest respect. The Johnson family and the Herald family have been close friends for many years, and the going of the Johnson's leaves a void for the Herald family hard to fill.

Uncle George Boals of South Sioux City, was in town Wednesday. He crossed the Missouri river November 6, 1855, and within a few days after his coming took his claim. The claim land he has occupied and owned ever since, though he rented it a couple of years ago. He says he saw the grove in the distance and told the fellows with him, "I am going to have that grove," and he made a corner and when it was surveyed he made his claim on it. He had his claim recorded January 31, 1856, and it so shows on claim book No. 1, of the records. Ed. and Mark Combs came with him, and took claims near his. A portion of that grove is still standing and has always been known as Boals' grove. The day that they crossed was the day the county was organized. Mark Combs, now living at Sergeant Bluff, is the present vice-president of the Pioneers and Old Settlers' association. Mr. Boals saw a part of the Logan war. He saw the Logan fellows shoot Collins, but that is another story, to be told another time.

Let Charley Martin repair your harness. He will do a good job.

Through special arrangements with the Farmer and Breeder, published in Sioux City, Iowa, we are enabled to offer our readers that popular paper a full year, when taken in connection with the Herald, at the very moderate sum of 25 cents ($1.25 for both papers). The Farmer and Breeder is a plain, practical paper, full of vim and vigor, carries grit and sunshine, inspires one to do better farming and better stock-growing—improvement. It is a constant and aggressive advocate of farmers' rights and privileges. It is the paper for the western farmer—you ought to read it. Only 25c additional when you pay up on the Herald. Do it today.

C. E. Heffernon of Jackson was in town on Friday on business. He was a pleasant caller on the Herald and paid his subscription in advance for this home comfort.

GOODWIN ITEMS.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Farmers are about through putting in small grain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duggan went to Sioux City Saturday.

Dan Heffernan of Hubbard was here on business Tuesday.

Miss Mary Hogan of Jackson visited Mrs. Joe O'Donnell last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuning were Sioux City visitors last Wednesday.

Miss Maggie Twobig visited with relatives in Sioux City last week.

Many of the farmers around here are putting in bromus this spring.

Charley O'Neill of South Sioux City was transacting business here Monday.

C. H. Duggan and son Daniel made a business trip to Sioux City Monday.

J. C. Duggan shipped several loads of hogs to Sioux City this and last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hartnett of Hubbard visited over Sunday at Mr. McShane's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Twobig and family of Sioux City, visited Mr. Twobig's mother here last week. J. P. just returned from a four months sojourn in Texas. He is very enthusiastic over that country, and says it was never colder than twenty degrees above. He is thinking of locating permanently there next fall.

COBURN ITEMS.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Little Manuel Boals fell while playing on Monday, and broke his collar bone.

Ervin Broyhill has hired to work for C. C. Beermann for a time. Charley is making things hustle now with that new plow, new harness and new hired man.

Miss Lillian Beermann's Sunday school class, from Salem church, gave her a pleasant surprise on Saturday afternoon, in honor of her birthday. The little folks were highly entertained, and left some very pretty gifts in token of the love and esteem they bear their teacher.

About 50 members of the Salem C. E. and other friends gathered at the home of the Misses Ida and Beatrice Blessing on Friday evening of last week, and spent a very pleasant time with games, music and other forms of entertainment. Refreshments were served, and all returned to their homes feeling "it was good to be there."

We notice our mail carrier has had an addition or upper story built onto his vehicle, which is no doubt very convenient, but we would not like to meet it on the road some dark night especially with a nervous horse. He probably keeps it locked up at night.

Fred Beermann, jr., and B. E. Crouch attended the production of "When Knighthood was in Flower," at the Sioux City opera house, last Monday night.

A No. 1 broom for 25c at Van's.

M. E. Church Notes.

There will be a rally of the Home Department of the M. E. Sunday school next Sunday, April 10th. All members of the Home Department and their friends are requested to attend the regular session of the Sunday school at 10 a. m. A special teacher will be provided for the class. By request of the superintendent of the Home Department, Mrs. Jennie Ross, I will preach at the morning service on a theme appropriate to the occasion. All are invited to both services.

Nearly $100 was raised last Sunday, at both appointments, for missions. Complete report later.

The annual session of the Norfolk conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at Stanton, Nebraska, next week, April 12 to 14.

Only stock of wall paper in Dakota county at McBeath's drug store.

Will Blessing of Homer shipped a car load of hogs to Sioux City Monday.

Prof. Bowen and family spent a part of their vacation in Sioux City.

Charley Shaw of Lyons, an old friend of Agent Kroneman, visited the latter on Monday.

The children of the Lutheran Sunday school were given Easter eggs Sunday, and the superintendent of the school, Miss Lizzie Haase, was presented with a handsomely bound copy of the Lutheran Book of Worship, with her name stamped on the book with gold letters.

The Mill Company shipped two cars of Hogs, one of cattle and one of wheat from this station this week; Emmett Gribble shipped two cars of cattle and A. Shelly one to South Omaha Monday night, and Sam Heikes shipped a car of cattle Tuesday morning to Sioux City, of Irving Fisher's feeding.

A large attendance was had at Salem Lutheran church last Sunday. Several children were baptized and four persons were taken into the church, Misses May and Mabel Altemus, Geo. W. Bates and Herman Ebel. The offerings for benevolence were among the largest in the history of the church. Salem church is a strong Lutheran church and its membership consists of very fine people.

SPENCER & MORGAN, Pender or Winnebago, Neb.

The Annual Carpet & Furniture Sale NOW IN PROGRESS.

THIS largest carpet and very large furniture business center in this store reflect a wide appreciation of merit, fairness, fair square merchandising. This carpet show by far the largest stocks of highest standard makes, the largest collection of fine patterns and invariably offer the best values for the money; and the furniture store, though only a year old, stands in the front ranks with the best in the country.

For two reasons the annual April sale presents great opportunities to home builders.

FIRST—Because of the matchless assortments that permit the freest latitude in carrying out any scheme in home adornment.

SECOND—Because of the opportunity extended to save a fourth to one-third on lots reduced from fair regular prices. Here is as much of the April sale news as we have space to tell. Investigation will prove that the news is as good as it reads.

WORLD'S FAIR NEWS NOTES

The Department of Justice will show at St. Louis photographs of the large prisons, penitentiaries and workhouses in the United States, with specimens of work done by prisoners.

During his exile on St. Helena Napoleon told his physician, Dr. O'Meara, that the sale of the Louisiana territory to the United States was one act of his life to which he looked back with the greatest pleasure.

Mr. James F. Early has produced a superb model of the Library of Congress which will be the principal feature in the exhibit to be made under Dr. Putnam's direction at St. Louis for the government. Several of the beautiful Corinthian columns in miniature have already been completed. This work when finished promises to sustain Mr. Early's fine reputation as a sculptor and architect.

The exhibit of Alaskan trade and enterprises will be one of the most interesting at the Exposition. The resources of the Klondike—the seal, salmon, cod and halibut fisheries—will be extensively exhibited. A family of Alaskan seals will be brought to St. Louis. A unique anthropological exhibit of desirable specimens will be seen. The Alaskan building is a typical Alaskan structure with four giant totem poles on each corner.

The original treaty for the purchase of the Louisiana territory, now in the vaults of the Department of State, is written on six pages of Irish linen paper bound together with a piece of green silk ribbon. The original document will be taken to St. Louis, and the first page, securely protected, will be exhibited.

Nothing has ever equalled it. Nothing can ever surpass it.
