NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office, whether directed to his name, or whether he is a subscriber or not—is responsible for the pay.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima evidence of INTENTIAL FRAUD.

NOTICE TO EVERYBODY.—All subscribers paying for their paper to us, and ordering it stopped at a certain time, will find it so stopped; but we cannot be responsible for what has been done before our time, nor for orders supposed to be given by others to others. Our books alone must be the guide for all old subscriptions. Please remember this.

P. of H. INSTALLATION.

The Patrons of Husbandry at the Eight Mile Grove Grange had a little "blow out" over their installation at the school house, there. Music by Mr. and Mrs. Husted and the Mutz boys.—Big supper, number of guests, some speeches, &c.

If you want a good, warm pair of gloves or mittens that will last as long as Cap. Kuhl's "lamp holds out to burn," just drop in at Schmasse & Co.'s, and ask Cap. to show 'em up—he's just the chap that knows how. 41t1*

Hesser says he is in luck. He wrote to a green house man east to send him five gold fish and the man sent a box containing five bunches of Golden Fussia. Hesser then wrote back and says he did his best writing when making the words Gold Fish, and then explained to the green house man that it was Fish he wanted not Fussia. The green house man sent him a large box filled with Golden Fuchsa commonly called cloth of gold and wrote to Hesser and regretted that he had made the mistake but was happy to be able so soon to rectify his mistake and that on inspection of his first letter he had discovered that it was not written very plainly. Hesser wants to know how he can make that fellow understand that it is fish he wants.

Talk about a Lawyer's or an Editor's writing now, will you!

We are very much obliged to "Orange Peel" for his compliments.

INSTALLATION AT MACOY LODGE.

A very pleasant little semi-social (that means half business and half pleasure) entertainment was given at Macoy Lodge, Plattsmouth, on the evening of Saturday, Dec. 27th, being the time of installing their officers for the ensuing year.

The officers installed were as follows:

W. M.—J. N. Wise.
S. W.—Jos. M. Beardsley,
J. W.—V. V. Leonrd.
Treasurer—A. White.
Secretary—H. H. Bedwell.
Chaplain—J. W. Barnes.
Tyler—Wm. Wintersteen.

After appropriate ceremonies, inducting the new officers to their duties, music, speeches and gay chat followed for an hour. The W. M., Mr. Wise more than outshone himself in his account of Mrs. Bird's mishaps, and Dr. Livingston told a mule—no a fence story. All's well that ends well, and this party ended well.

Pref. d'Allemand's school is in a highly flourishing condition, we understand. His son, Charles, becomes the first assistant, right hand man, this week, and the rooms are rapidly filling up.

OBITUARY.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north winds breath,
And stars to set. But all,
Thou last all seasons, for thine own, O, death."

Death has not only all seasons for his own, but all ranks and conditions of society are alike ruthlessly invaded by his presence.

Not alone does he welcome to his cold embrace the aged and infirm, but he touches with his poisoned wand the bloom of infancy and childhood, and it fades forever away. No; not forever. Christ has triumphed over death, and the dead shall rise again to bloom in youth and beauty immortal, beyond the skies.

Mary, youngest daughter of George and Mary Pronger, who but a few days ago, with her parents and school-mates, a bright, beautiful, innocent child of but ten years of age, has gone from them now.

On the afternoon of the 6th inst., she was taken (we believe) with congestive chills. No fears were entertained for her safety until about 6 o'clock P. M., of the following Tuesday, when all at once, she complained of her head; asking her father to put his hand upon it and try to relieve her pain.

Saying at the same time: "Papa I am going to die."

And with child-like simplicity and faith in God, rose up and putting her hands together, fervently prayed for God to bless her father and mother, brothers, sister and friends, her pastor, teachers and class-mates, both in her Sabbath and day school, and calmly and peacefully laid down to die. And at a few minutes past 9 o'clock, fell asleep in Jesus.

Peaceful sleep, that knows no waking to sorrow.

The sudden death of one so young, so amiable, so interesting and beautiful, has brought a dark cloud of sorrow upon the home of which she was the light and hope, and cast a shade of sadness over both the Sabath Schools, of which she was a member and in which she was much—very much beloved.

Her remains were followed to the Cemetery by a large number of her school-mates and friends of the family, on Thursday the 11th, and on the following Sunday afternoon a deeply interesting and impressive memorial service was held at the M. E. Church, of which both parents are members.

Addresses were delivered by Mr. R. B. Windham, J. O. Phillippi, Mr. Pollock, Rev. Mr. Rankin, of Iowa, and the pastor of the church, interspersed with appropriate songs by the school.

But while parents and friends were mourning the loss of a lovely child and an endeared school-mate, she was spending her first Sabbath with Christ and His Angels.* We sang the funeral dirge, but beautiful Mary sings now the anthems of triumph in the mansions above. May the great father in love and pity, bind more firmly, our hearts to the invisible and eternal where beyond the river, we hope to meet again.

'Time is a river deep and wide,
And while along its banks we stray,
We see our loved ones o'er its tide,
Sail from our side, away, away.
Where are they sped, they who return
No more to glad our longing eyes?
They've pass'd from life's contracted bourne
To climes more bright, more fair, that lies
Beyond the river.

Then are our loved ones, in their rest,
They've cross'd time's river; now no more
They heed the bubbles on its breast,
Nor feel the storms that sweep its shore.
But there pure love can live and last;
They look for us, their home to share,
When we in turn, away have pass'd
What joyful meetings meet us there,
Beyond the river.

Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvellous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, ear-ache, caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have al other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain-reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Lihiment. more than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic-rheumatism, gout, running tumours, &c. have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis to to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for foundered or sweeney horses and mules, or for screw-worm in sheep.—Stock-owners—this linment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. J. B. ROSE & CO., New York. 46-1y

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is certain to assimilate the food, regulate the bowels, cure wind colic and produce natural sleep. It contains neither minerals, morphine or alcohol, and is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may rest. 46-1y
