COMMUNICATIONS.

As our space is limited, all communications must be brief and to the point, with no waste of words.

NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the postoffice, whether directed to his name, or whether he is a subscriber or not—is responsible for the pay.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of INTENTIONAL FRAUD.

Remember the organ fund—Friday evening.

See Hesser's fine specimens of Green House plants at Vivian's, every day.

Look out for a pair of handsome black Mares on the road to Omaha next week. Trotters, they are.

A runaway team scattered a load of hay right and left one day last week, but did no further damage, we believe.

Charlie Byrne of Plattsmouth passed the Sabbath in Omaha.—Republican.

Its a way he's got.

Parties having Pictures to frame will do well to call on T. W. Shryock. 711.

Messrs Wood Bro's. of Weeping Water are hauling out the goods to their place lively. No doubt they will build up a good trade there.

We call especial attention to the new "ad" of Mickelwait & Sharp this week. They are lively, enterprising men and sell good machines.

Friday evening—High School Entertainment Fitzgerald's Hall.

Hatt, the Butcher, still sits and smiles in that doorway, and behind him are arrayed the finest, fattest beeves, lambs, chickens and sich, that ever graced a butcher's place.

Fresh Fish have been quite plenty lately; thanks to good management and lucky hauls on the part of Mr. Streight, Sr.

Mr. West has more truck on his acre of ground up here, than any other man we ever saw. Among the rest, is an apple-tree with 32 different kinds of fruit on it; each limb bears a separate variety.

Buttery—soda water—call and try it. Good syrups, pure soda, and clean tumblers.

A postal card from E. S. Childs on the Republican. Their little band has arrived safe at Barton's Bend, Furnas Co. A heavy settlement is fast coming in. Childs wants a HERALD out there.

Boone the Barber, has been extending and refitting his little office, until it shines like a new brass kettle, and the improvement is wonderful. It looks like the Grand Central at Omaha.

Try Dick Streight's new wagon, on thorough brace springs. Good for hunting, and fishing parties, pic-nic's, and to settle your dinner, we know.

Quartette singing at High School Entertainment—Friday evening.

Billy Stadelmann is fixing up the old Billy Neville place, and it begins to look as if somebody lived there. They talk of putting a head on things generally, but in Plattsmouth they ought to say, "Put a new front on him." Everybody is getting a new front on this spring.

Hesser's new Green Houses at the Pic Nic Gardens are in full bloom now and will amply repay a visit down there to all who love flowers and beautiful plants.

Go to Vivian's! Fresh oranges, fruits and vegetables daily. Groceries, china ware and garden seeds; now's the time.

RUNAWAYS.

Two second class runaways this week; one black team with a load of hay, and the other a bay team with an empty wagon. No damage.

FOUNND.

On Second street, a handsome gold breast pin. The owner can have the same by applying to G. Reinhackel's harness shop and paying for this advertisement.

The saddest young person in this city is the girl who has been compelled by the weather to wait three weeks to put on the Spring suit which she knows would outshine that of every girl of her class in Sunday school.

Hesser, the magnificent, has been around again, and our garden blooms like a tropical paradise. One can see Hesser's tracks all over town of a morning; he blazes his path by the flower-pots he leaves. Well, its a pleasant way to make one's course through life by leaving a streak of happiness in the wake.

Some prowler entered the house of A. B. Smith, the other morning, through the open front door, and finding nothing else handy took a pistol from a drawer. Just then a little boy came in. Fearing discovery the rogue threw the pistol in the bushes and lit out. Moral: Look out for your doors while you're out gardening, &c. Dick Streight, the livery man, has been enlarging, beautifying, buying, and hanging out signs around his place until it looks like a small caravan dwelt there. It's getting to be quite a place on Dick's corner, and he has some very fine horses and carriages, but what a checker-board, six bottles, three brushes, and two fish-hooks on the south side of the barn, has to do with livery, we can't see for the life of us.

CASS COUNTY MOCKING BIRDS.

Vivian is getting up quite a collection of animals. Last week he added on the donkeys, and this week he puts out some handsome varieties of Cass county mocking birds. The big dog is about, and Mr. V. sells groceries cheaper than ever—delivers them free—and is good natured all the time, no matter how many goods you look at and don't buy.

Dr. Butler of Weeping Water removed a tape-worm from a party near there, that measures over 45 feet now as it lies in the alcohol, and large portions of it were lost, so that the original old fellow must have been mighty near a hundred feet. PEOPLE'S MARKET.

Plattsmouth is fixing up wonderfully this spring. The young trees, new out houses, and brand new fences of the older settlers looks well for enterprise, and every now and then a new dwelling house pops up, silently but surely, somewhere about town. As the steamboat man would say, we are "coming ahead" quite fast. The country looks just magnificent. The fruit prospects are good and the farmers seem all busy and happy. Fair crops, fair prices, fair weather and fairest hopes all combine to make us feel good this spring.

THE HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

To-morrow evening some of the young people of Plattsmouth give an entertainment at Fitzgerald's Hall, for the benefit of the High School organ fund. A short and very amusing piece, called the Spirit of '76, in which is represented the supposed status and position of men and women under the new dispensation of "women's rule," is the principal part of the programme. Between the acts and during the evening some very fine instrumental and vocal music will be given. We hope our people will turn out and patronize this exhibition largely, both because of the object for which it is given, a very laudable one, and also that the young people acting therein have worked very hard to present a fine picture of real imaginary life to their audience. No one who has not tried these things knows how much labor and hard work one of these little plays cost to the performers, and as it is a pure gift from them especially for the benefit of the children, now and always at the High school, it should be freely and largely attended. We have seen the rehearsals and can assure our readers it will be worth going to see, and the music also cannot help being a treat to all real lovers of good music.

Lines suggested by the death of Julia Emma, youngest daughter of John and Sarah Murdock, of Mt. Pleasant, Nebraska.

Dearest Emma, must thou leave us
Weeping, lonely and forsaken;
Life's dreary path alone to tread,
While thou to heaven art taken?
Gladly we would have thee retained,
But thou a better home hast gained.

Thy presence much our hearts would cheer,
As o'er life's sea we swiftly glide;
Should storms and clouds await us here,
Thy lamb-like soul would help us guide
Our fragile bark to heaven above,
The Eden of eternal love.

Thou wer't a flower of beauty rare,
Too beautiful on earth to bloom;
As the rose, so fragrant and so fair,
Thou left behind a sweet perfume,
Which will with us forever stay,
To guide our feet in wisdom's way.

A plant, too precious here to grow,
On the low grounds, where grief abounds,
And every joy is mixed with woe,
And sins most with'ring curse is found
Transplanted now, unfold thy powers,
In fairer climes, and pleasant bowers.

As from the tomb we turned away,
With aching heart and tearful eyes
I hear the stricken parents say
Through grace we'll meet thee in the skies.
God grant you grace, your vows to pay,
And dwell with her in realms of day.

Dear parents, wipe your tears away,
Weep not for her though from you torn;
May Heaven all your grief allay!
And crown you with a golden crown!
She'll not return to you below,
But you to her must shortly go.

DUERRBAUM—MURTINS—On Monday, May 18th, 1874, by H. E. Ellison, Mr H. F. DUERRBAUM to Miss JULIA MURTINS, all of Cass County, Nebraska.

"Ye editor" was not present, but a by-stander reports that in his opinion Judge Ellison does up a little the slickest and briefest wedding job of any legal gentleman he ever listened to.

Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvellous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, ear-ache, caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain-reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. more than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic-rheumatism, gout, running tumours, &c. have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis to to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for foundered or sweenied horses and mules, or for screw-worm in sheep.—Stock-owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. J. B. ROSE & Co., New York. 46-1y

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is certain to assimilate the food, regulate the bowels, cure wind colic and produce natural sleep. It contains neither minerals, morphine or alcohol, and is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may rest. 46-1y

PAY YOUR CITY TAXES!

Delinquent City Taxes!

The taxes for 1873 became delinquent on the 1st day of May, and by the new law I am obliged to enforce the collections of said taxes at once, unless they are paid promptly. There are also some $500 due on the year 1872, which must be paid at once or they will be put in the hands of an officer for collection. Please come forward and save me trouble and yourselves expense. WM. WINTERSTEEN,

Do let up on us gentlemen we are poor erring mortals any way.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given, that the City Council of the city of Plattsmouth, as per previous notice, having met and adjourned from time to time, as a Board of equalization, for the purpose of equalizing the assessment lists of said city, did at their last meeting, May 18th, 1874, order that notice again be given that they would adjourn to Monday, May 25th, 1874, which will be the last and only opportunity for redress; and all persons feeling themselves aggrieved by said assessment may appear before the Board on that day; and thereafter no applications relative to the reduction of taxes will be entertained by the Council.

By order of the Board.

NEW MUSIC.

We have received from D. P. Faulds, Publisher of Music, No. 70 Main Street, Louisville Ky. a piece of Music entitled "On the Beautiful Blue Danube," a song arranged to the melody from the waltz of the same name, by Strauss. It is very fine.

We are sure our readers will thank us for calling their attention to the very handsome advertisement of the Excelsior Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis, as it would be useless for us to try to say anything in favor of the great Charter Oak Cooking Stove.—The very word suggests the thought of a well cooked meal, followed by easy digestion, vigorous health, with a desire to have plenty of real work, to say nothing of the comfort of a happy, contented household.
