COMMUNICATION.

As our space is limited, all communications must be brief and to the point, with no waste of words.

NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes the paper regularly from the postoffice, whether directed to his name, or whether he is a subscriber or not—is responsible for the pay.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of INTENTIONAL FRAUD.

Peak Family Bell Ringers.

(St. Paul Pioneer Press.)

The original Peak Family have labored under the disadvantage of having their name assumed by small companies who have strolled around the country with nothing but the name for their capital. But the senior and only genuine company, exhibited its powers last night. The programme was almost unexceptionably good and for variety and completeness would be difficult to improve upon. The bell ringing was sweet and perfect. Fannie Peak has made many additions to her excellent company, and she is worthy to receive a full house this evening.

A friend of the HERALD's not over a million of miles from here, went to Church one Sunday for a rarity, and when the collection plate come round dropped what he supposed to be a piece of scrip into the plate. What was his astonishment and mortification on Monday to have the Senior Deacon hand him a ticket with this legend, "good for two drinks." He's quit going to Church now.

NEW BUTCHER SHOP.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.,
November 22d, 1875.

The undersigned wish to call the attention of the Public to his New Meat Market, on south side of Main Street, two doors east of Jones' Livery Stable. Here, gentlemen, you will find Beef and Pork, Mutton and Veal for Sale, at wholesale and retail, cheap for Cash. I also keep on hand Turkeys, Chickens, Eggs, &c., &c. Give me a trial, gentlemen, and get the worth of your money, in good meat. Respectfully,
P. M. YOUNG.

COURT WEEK.

At last we have had a regular Court week in Cass County, and it has made it quite lively in town.

Our new judge, S. B. Pound, made his appearance on Monday, and opened Court in good style. Mr. Broady our new District Attorney was also on hand. Both gentlemen seem eminently fitted for their places, and drop into their respective niches as easily as if they had belonged there all their lives.

THE DOCKET

is very full but the Judge and the lawyers both seem bound to clear it once any way, and it looks as if they would succeed.

EXTRA BAILIFFS

go galloping around and about, and we hear that some of our friends out on the Platte who have been in the wood business lately are putting up the price to help pay their Court expenses.

THE WEATHER

has been delightful, and we think a very good season has been chosen to hold Court here, and hope it may be made the permanent order.

We saw Moses Dodge up at Omaha,—Old Moses, just as large as life and twice as natural. He sent a message to all his friends in Plattsmouth, but we can't put in the HERALD just now, as we are out of cast iron types. If any one is anxious to know what Moses said, they can come up to the office and we will tell them.

The following rules, &c., are to be the order for to-night, at the Great Leap Year Party:

RULES AND REGULATIONS
OF THE
CENTENNIAL LEAP YEAR PARTY OF 1876, AT
FITZGERALD HALL, JANUARY 27TH, 1876.

1. Every lady is expected to behave in a gentle-manly manner to her partner, and all persons on the floor.

2. Gentlemen will endeavor not to drop their fans and handkerchiefs at inconvenient times, as their partners may not be dressed for picking up things from the floor.

3. Ladies are requested not to leave their partners standing on the floor alone while they rush off to kiss a friend who has just come in.

4. No smoking aloud; the gentlemen can whisper and giggle as softly as they please.

5. Gentlemen with children attached, who do not desire to dance, must not obstruct the floor for those who do dance.

6. The lady managers will form the sets, have entire charge of the floor while dancing, and see that everything is done in the most gentleman-like way.

7. No lady allowed to take more than two gentlemen to supper at once.

8. Gentlemen are requested to shorten their trains as much as possible during round dances, as long trains bother their lady partners.

9. Gentlemen must not forget to behave in a lady-like manner when asked to dance, and be careful to waltz as femininely as possible.

10. Gentlemen with their front hair crimped, will be incontinently waltzed off on their ear, by the first lady who discovers them.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an order of sale, issued by C. P. Moore, Clerk of the District Court, within and for Cass County, Nebraska, and to me directed, I will on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1876, at 1 o'clock p. m. of said day the south door of the Court House, in the city of Plattsmouth, in said County, sell at public auction, the following real estate to-wit: The south-west quarter (sw ¼), of section twenty-one (21), town twelve (12), north of range nine (9) east of the sixth (6th) principal meridian, also the south-east quarter (se¼) of the south-east quarter (se¼ se¼) and the north west quarter (nw¼) of the south-east quarter (se¼) of section twenty (20), town twelve (12), north of range nine (9) east of the sixth (6th) principal meridian. The same being levied upon and taken as the property of W. J. Mastin, John Swank, Martha J. Swank, and John T. Welbourn, defendants; to satisfy a decree of said Court, recovered by John R. Clark, plaintiff.
