A No. 1 broom for 25c at Van's.

H. W. Wood is having the Rush house nicely fixed up, new roof, new siding, and newly painted makes it look like a new house. It will be nicely painted and papered inside.

Candies, always fresh and best grades at Van's.

There are 23 persons going from the Norfolk District to general conference at Los Angeles, California. About eight preachers besides Dr. Sisson the presiding elder. They leave Norfolk next Wednesday.

Hon. Guy T. Graves, Judge of the district court is at home very ill with an attack of appendicitis. This is the third one he has had. The Herald hopes that he may soon recover from this, as from former attacks.

Mrs. W. P. Warner invited a few friends to dinner to meet Hon. and Mrs. John W. Stewart of Lincoln, Saturday evening. A very pleasant time socially was had, and the dinner—well it was one of Mrs. Warner's best.

County Treasurer Blume is collecting back taxes on real estate that owners know nothing of. Under the new law it is the duty of the treasurer to go over the tax lists and if he finds any back taxes to put it on the receipt of the year being paid.

Strawberries! strawberries! strawberries! Where? where? At Van's of course.

Several fine monuments have been put up in the Dakota City cemetery the past few months. There is a well kept grave in the northwest corner covered with some shells and two nicely trimmed evergreens standing at its head, that is about as touching as any. We do not know whose it is.

O. B. Webster of Emerson was in on Wednesday on business. His daughter Edith who is a graduate of our high school and has been a student and teacher in the state university, expects to attend the exposition at St. Louis, the coming summer, and will be connected with the educational exhibit of Nebraska.

Van carries a large line of the South Sioux City preserving company's preserved goods. Try them.

Mrs. J. F. Mikesell and daughter Gertrude returned from their California trip Tuesday. They stopped for some days in San Francisco, and while there unexpectedly met James M. Spencer. He has been there several months taking treatment for catarrh. He thinks he will be permanently cured, and they report him as looking well. They have had a very pleasant trip and enjoyed themselves very much.

B. E. Crouch, the energetic and wide awake agent at Coburn Junction has taken a lay-off of a couple of months and gone to his home in Erie county, Pa., to visit his home people. He was born and brought up near where the better half of the Herald was born and grew up, and they have many friends and acquaintances in common.

Deputy Marshal John F. Sides was in Emerson Sunday the guest of H. O. Armour. Mr. Sides is filling his new position with marked ability and his selection was a good one. Charles Conghtly and Miss Gene Ooughtry of Dakota City were over Sunday visitors in Emerson. They were the guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Engelen. Geo. H. Haase and John Schwartz attended Masonic lodge in Blair Monday evening and went on to Omaha Tuesday morning returning home that evening—Emerson Enterprise.

The telephone system and rural free delivery are a great thing and are used in many ways and in different directions, but the latest combination we have heard of happened on Wednesday morning. A young lad in the country called up the postmistress on that morning over the phone, and asked her if she would not write two postal cards for him and send them out on the rural mail that fell in a few minutes, and she said that she would, so he dictated to her what to write and she wrote the cards and signed his name and the cards went to their destination all right, saving twenty-four hours time.

Peter Rush, one of the old timers of Summit precinct was in town Monday paying his taxes. He gave the Herald man some of his early experiences in this county. He rented a piece of seed land from Pat Twobig and raised about the best corn on it he ever saw, about six acres in all, he being an Illinois man knew how to raise corn. Pat would not take any rent for the use of the land, so Mr. Rush helped him husk his corn. Jim was a little fellow and his father would put him on an old pony right and morning and send him out to chase the wild geese and prairie chickens out of the corn. Pat kept them supplied with goose meat. Mr. Rush says it was delicious meat. Meat was scarce in those days. In those days Tom Farley was about as well to do as anyone in that precinct.

The republican county convention met at the court house pursuant to call. Mel A. Schmedel, the secretary of the county committee in the absence of the chairman, called the convention to order and read call. On motion M. A. Schmedel was made chairman and J. J. Blume and Con. Thorne, both being present, were authorized to represent Emerson precinct. The temporary organization was made permanent. The following persons were elected delegates to the state convention: Ben F. Bridenbaugh, W. P. Warner, J. J. Eimers, T. D. Curtis, Fred Blume, John W. Hazlogrove and J. P. Rockwell. Alternates, R. D. Rockwell, Dr. Stidworthy, H. O. Dorn, N. R. Smith, A. J. Davis, Fred Culbertson and John T. Spencer. Delegates to the congressional convention: C. H. Maxwell, John C. Smith, Wm. Rockwell, L. Kriger, M. A. Schmedel, Frank Kuekwalter and W. H. Hermann. Alternates, W. H. Berger, B. R. Myers, Evan Way, W. E. Shane, John F. Sides, C. J. O'Connor and Will Blume. J. J. Eimers was made chairman and M. A. Schmedel, secretary of the county central committee for the ensuing year.
