Joshua Gapen called Tuesday, and thinks wheat and oats never looked finer,

Miss Derham, of California, a neice of Mrs. Geo. Smith is visiting her relatives here.

W. Cutforth, Livery Stable man, from Louisville was in Monday, and gave us a pleasant call.

Mrs. Robt. Maxwell came down Wednesday to visit friends in Weeping Water and Plattsmouth.

Capt. O'Rourke received the sad news last Thursday of the death of a brother in Wisconsin, and reached there in time to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Pepperberg and Master Abraham left yesterday morning for a visit to relations and friends in St Joseph and other points in Missouri, Mr. P. accompanied them as far as Marysville.

Mrs. Rickard and Son and Mr. and Mrs. Hastings, all of Chicago have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Livingston the past week. They go to Lincoln, which they intend making their home.

Mr. Chas. Bankes, manager of the Omaha Post, came down to take in the Liederkranz dance, on Monday, with a brand new $5 tile on his occiput. He returned on Tuesday with an article on his head that looked as if it had been used as a hod for the last fifteen years. Sich is life.

Dr. Thomas, of W. W. was in town Monday making arrangements for lumber to build a drug store. Dr. T. carries on his person as a permanent reminder of the dark days of the Rebellion two bullets, one of which has caused him great trouble and danger and he will hereafter be obliged to take better care of himself and let life pass more easily than in the past. We hope his new enterprise may prove a success and relieve him from the necessity of active practice in the days to come.

—D. A. Campbell and Geo. A. Magney were at this term of court admitted to the bar to practise law. They say the soda water flew and sparkled all about, but the HERALD got no "biled wind." Perhaps they'll give it to us by and by—in court some time.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the healthy tone and vigor of the whole physical mechanism, which often becomes impaired during the winter, by lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet.

—The little blue mare, "Lady Mac" and Sam Chapman's bay mare both had colts this spring from a well-bred Volunteer horse, and both colts died about 36 hours after birth. No apparent cause could be given, the colts looking like large fine and healthy colts when born.

—The attention of the HERALD readers is called to the card of Guthman Bros., in another column. These gentlemen are both experienced hands at the business. Oswald, one of the firm having been with us for the past ten years and is well known as an excellent baker and good business man. Fred. F. the other member, has been engaged in like business at Seward, and Lincoln, and later in Denver, and will be quite an accession to our business community. We would advise our readers to give this firm a call, and especially to call upon them today at their opening.

—Dr. Black's Rheumatic Cure is an internal remedy and is pronounced by hundreds who have used it to contain more true medical virtue than any other kind thrown upon the market in the shape of oils and liniments. It is warranted. Smith, Black & Co., proprietors. Sold by P. S. Barnes and A. D. Marshall, Weeping Water, Neb. 8tf

—"Wine is a mocker, and strong drink is raging." Take Prickly Ash Bitters. It is not a beverage, but a remedy for all ill effects of an excess of intoxicating stimulants. Don't take a drink before breakfast "just to wake you up," because you feel so stupid and languid. You are sure to feel worse as soon as the effect wears off. Take a half wine glass of Prickly Ash Bitters. It will brighten you up for the whole day. 7t4

—Messrs. Patterson and Dickson have just brought to the county a very fine young Hambletonian Stallion called "Mambrino Pilot." He is a dark brown, of good size and bone, 6 years old, and was sired by "Mambrino Pilot Jr." The dam was a "Printer" mare. This horse is undoubtedly the best bred horse in these parts and ought to meet with success. Messrs. P. & D. have also two yearling colts of good blood and handsome creatures.

—The Liederkranz ball on Monday evening last, was quite a success financially and socially, and although the heavy rain about midnight cast a gloom over the assembled guests, for a short time, the situation was finally taken in good humor, and fun and merriment did not cease until about daybreak. Carriages were on hand to take parties home, and everybody was pleased.

—Relief from sick headaches, drowsiness, nausea, dizziness, pain in the side, &c., guaranteed to those using Carter's Little Liver Pills. These complaints are nearly always caused by torpid liver and constipated bowels. Restores these organs to their proper functions and the trouble ceases. Carter's Little Liver Pills will do this every time. One pill is a dose. Forty in a vial. Price 25 cents. For sale by Smith, Black & Co.

The now celebrated Mrs. Propst was arraigned by the Grand Jury and brought before the Court last week for keeping a "disorderly house." The Jury found a verdict of "guilty" and she was fined $50 and costs amounting to over $100. Not being able to readily raise this she sold her house and lot and the property holders feel rejoiced.

—Those persons who do not need Iron, but who are troubled with nervousness and dyspepsia, will find in Carter's Little Nerve Pills a most desirable article. They are mostly used in combination with Carter's Little Liver Pills, and in this way often exert a most magical effect. Take just one pill of each kind immediately after eating and you will be free from indigestion ane dyspepsia. In vials at 25 cents. For sale by Smith, Black & Co.

—EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The Queen City Suspender Company, of Cincinnati, are now manufacturing and introducing their new Stocking Supporters for Ladies and Children, and their unequaled Skirt Suspenders for Ladies. None should be without them; our leading physicians recommend them, and are loud in their praise. These goods are manufactured by ladies who have made the wants of ladies and children a study, and they ask us to refer them to some reliable and energetic lady to introduce them in this county, and we certainly think that an earnest solicitation in every household would meet with a ready response, and that a determined woman could make a handsome salary and have the exclusive agency for this county. We advise some lady who is in need of employment to send to the Company her name and address, and mention this paper. Address Queen City Suspender Company, Nos. 147 & 149 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. 8t9

Acknowledgement of the receipt of funds for the Dakota Sufferers.

OVERLOOK, OMAHA, May, 3, 1881.

To MRS. J. N. WISE, President of the Plattsmouth Dramatic Club.

DEAR MADAM:—Your kind favor of the 26th ult., enclosing a draft for $50 given by the Plattsmouth Dramatic Club for the benefit of the flood sufferers, reached me today. As you are kind enough to ask me to distribute it where I think it will be productive of the most good, I will take pains to make personal inquiries or investigation, so that your generous donation may be judiciously administered.

The Dramatic Club deserves all praise for their cheerful readiness to relieve the distress of our afflicted fellow men. I am very truly

Your Obedient Servant,
ROBT. H. CLARKSON.

Strayed

From the subscriber on or about April, 21, 1881, a red cow, one horn drooped; also a calf with the same. Said cow and calf were a part of the cattle transferred from near La Platte at time of flood. Any information concerning them will be thankfully received by J. W. Shannon, Plattsmouth, or Joseph Giles, La Platte, Neb. 8t3*

Married.

CLARK—MURPHY—Thursday, May 5, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, by the Rev. T. J. Baird, MR. T. R. CLARK of Papillion to MISS MINNIE MURPHY of this city.

Thus two more of the young people, grown up from childhood in our midst, have cast their common lot together, and leaving Plattsmouth they take with them the good wishes of the many friends both of themselves individually, and of the families to which they belong.

The wedding was a quiet one, only the relatives and a few immediate friends of the family and of the groom being present. The ceremony took place at 11 a. m. and from a party present we learn that the bride looked charming in a dress of prune colored silk, with natural flowers for ornaments. Everything passed off most pleasantly, even to the flinging of the old shoes after the departing couple. to insure a continuance of the same good luck. A number of handsome presents testified to the friendship and good wishes of the donors. We subjoin a partial list:

A beautiful Oil Painting—Mrs. D. Murphy, Grinnell, Iowa.
Gold band China Tea Set—Dr. J. N. Hall.
Silver Card Receiver—Mr. S. M. Chapman.
Silver Dinner Castor—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Smith.
Silver Pickle Stand—Mr. and Mrs. F. Herrmann.
Silver Butter Dish—Mr. P. B. Murphy.
Silver Card Receiver—Mr, and Mrs. D. Miller.
Silver Dinner Knives—Mrs. Cox.
Silver Tea and Table Spoons—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baker.
One pair Ind. Silver Salt Cellars—"Deekin" Bushnell.
One pair Silver Napkin Rings and a Hanging Lamp—J. W. Clark.
Ebony Handle Knives and Forks and pair Scissors—T. H. Taylor.
Vase, imported China—Miss Baker.
Set of Table Linen, Table Cloth and Napkins—Mrs. C. H. Parmele.
Zephyr Table Cover—Miss Mary Murphy.
Set Pillow Shams—Mrs. P. B. Murphy.
Crimson Zephyr Shawl—Miss Olive Jones.
Toilette Set—Mrs. R. W. Hyers.
Moss Pin Cushion—Miss Aggie Sampson.
Toilette Soap Dish—Birdie Irish.
Tea Tray—Freddie Cox.
Set Silver Spoons—Mrs. M. B. Murphy.

After the wedding dinner the happy couple accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Hyers, and Mr. J. W. Clark left for Weeping Water, where they were received and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. T. Clark, parents of the groom. From there they returned the next day and left for Papillion, their future home.

At the home of Mr. T. Clark another reinforcement of presents were received as follows:

Fine Library—Mr. T. Clark.
Well filled Purse—Mrs. T. Clark.
A Horse—J. W. Clark.
A Cow—J. W. Clark.
Hanging Lamp—F. M. Wolcott.

License Law.

We would call attention again to the matter of Liquor Licenses this spring. It has been decided by the most competent authorities in the state that licenses taken out under the old law expire June 1st and that then and there new licenses should be granted and given in compliance with the new law which provides for giving bonds in a different way and especially says "Notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation two weeks before such license can be granted. None of these provisions have been fulfilled here if we have been informed correctly, and saloon-keepers are liable to pay the whole $500 over again June 1st and if their notices are not published two weeks prior to that time they cannot lawfully obtain license and sell until such time has elapsed. The HERALD called attention to this matter before and gave the authority, but it seems some legal limb thought he was wiser than the law and has advised the liquor men to go ahead under the old law.

A Losing Joke.

A prominent Physician of Pittsburg said jokingly to a lady patient who was complaining of her continued ill health and of his inability to cure her, "try Hop Bitters!" The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from which she obtained permanent health. She now laughs at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it, as it cost him a good patient.

MILLINERY STORE,

HERRMANN & WURL.

One Door East of First National Bank, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Our Millinery Goods are Abundant and Cheap, And those of the very best kinds do we keep!

We want all to know that we're living in town,
In Plattsmouth, Nebraska, that place of renown;
We invite all the ladies to give us a call,
And we'll use our endeavors to satisfy all.

Our goods have arrived, our stock is complete,
And for prices and style we cannot be beat:
We want all to come and see for themselves,
What we have on the counters, and upon the shelves.

We have good hats and bonnets and trimmings to suit,
And fine flowers and ribbons, to make you look cute;
And all needful things that pertain to our line,
In all of which goodness and beauty combine.

Then come right along whatever your age,
Your wants can all be supplied we'll engage;
Whether aged or youthful; whether little or much,
We'll endeavor to put on the finishing touch.

We pay cash for our goods, and select them with care,
And are selling as cheap, as any one dare;
And we say to you all both the young and the old,
We'll not refuse greenbacks, nor silver nor gold. 8t2

O YES!

Blacksmithing Wagonmaking and Repairing. Agricultural Implements Repaired &c.

J. M. SCHNELLBACHER,

Shop on 5th, Between Main and Vine Streets, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

If you want smithing done, Mike is ready to do
What belongs to his line, and do it well too;
He has learned his trade well, and his practice is such,
He knows how to put on the finishing touch.

He will make or mend wagons, or plows, or harrows,
Or scraper, or sled, or sleigh, or wheelbarrow,
Or anything else that pertains to his line,
In all kinds of wood, ash, hickory or pine.

Horse shoeing is done on the most approved plan,
And we're sure Mike will please you if anyone can;
And no one can fail to to see at first sight,
How important it is to have it done right.

If by any unskilled workman the shoeing's done wrong,
Your horse will go stumbling and blundering along;
And doubtless you will with a broad horrid grin,
Declare he shall never be shod there again.

If you want anything made, or mended come here,
About prices and style, you have nothing to fear;
Some other workman may do pretty well,
But Mike our own workman is bound to excel.

And now at the close permit me to say,
You should not expect him to work without pay,
Good workmen are worthy (no doubt) of their hire,
And those who pay promptly, we always admire. 7t4

MEAT MARKET.

GOTTFRIED FICKLER.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB, MAIN ST.

At this shop you'll find meat wholesome and sweet,
Sausage, pork, mutton and veal.
And it is our belief, you'll buy excellent beef,
If you at this butcher shop deal.

He keeps always on hand the best in the land;
Of such as your families need;
Others may do well, but they cannot excel,
For Fickler will still take the lead.

A good bargain you'll make if you want to buy steak;
Or soup meat, or to boil or to fry,
You can have a good dish of whatever you wish,
Competition he well may defy.

This business provides for good pelts and hides;
Lard and tallow he'll both buy and sell;
And you'll find this the case there's no other place
You'll do better if you will quite as well.

And this we may tell if you've fat cattle to sell,
Or hogs or sheep that are nice;
You can bring them right here and you need never fear,
But for them you'll get a good price.

Satisfaction to all who will give him a call,
It is his intention to give,
For we're certain indeed, this belongs to his creed,
Not only to live but let live!

Improvement for Mind and Body.

For genuine merit there is no tonic sold that begins to compare with Parker's Ginger Tonic. One 50 ct. bottle contains more life and strength restoring power than a bushel of malt or a gallon of pure milk. As an appetizer, blood purifier and kidney corrector, it meets with astonishing success, and invalids find its use promptly followed by renewed energy and vivacity, mental and physical improvement, and gradual restoration to perfect health.
