STOCKS.

There was a change for the better in the stock mark t this morning, and considerable purchases on the more favorable advices as to the president's condition. The improvement, however, was not accompanied by an increase in the volume of business—on the contrary there was a decline in the business. In early dealings prices advanced 1@1½ per cent., but after noon it was almost entirely lost, but later on, however, the market became firm again, and the decline was more than recovered and toward the close a strong tone prevailed, with the highest prices of the day generally current. In the final dealings there was a slight reaction.

A SMALL FIRE.

But One that Caused Considerable Loss.

Longprey's Carriage Factory in Ashes

A few smoldering ruins are all that remained of L. T. Longprey's carriage factory on Sixteenth street yesterday About 3 o'clock a fire was discovered by some passersby in a little frame shanty used as a storage house for packing and other trifles by the water works. This building adjoined the carriage factory and in a few minutes the flames had spread to it. The firemen were on hand promptly after receiving the alarm but they had scarcely gotten down to work when the hose burst badly and delayed them. However, they saved the adjoining frame house, to the south, which is occupied by a colored family. The carriage shop and contents were a complete ruin. This carriage shop a two story building, owned by Mr. Lnogprey, and occupied on the first floor by him as a blacksmith shop. The place was insured for $500 each in the Watertown of New York, the Metropole and Caise Generale, of France, $50 being placed on the building and $1,000 on the stock. Mr. Longprey's direct loss is no less than $3,000, but as this was his busy season he will lose much more indirectly. The second story of this building was occupied by D. A. Moffett, a carriage painter. That department contained about thirteen carriages, wagons and buggies The loss on these and Mr. Moffett's stock will reach $1,800. He had no insurance. Henry Bohen & Co., lose a $200 wagon. Speigle $60 buggy; Will Brown $90 buggy; Tieman, portions of a buggy worth $25; Longprey a $160 wagon; Practor a $150 wagon; St. John Sewing Machine company a $100 wagon; Mat Patrick, portion of a buggy and Chas. Woodworth a $150 vehicle. Besides these the shop contained two new wagons worth $120, and a baby carriage worth $25 The water company loses about $200 on material, and Gen. Estabrook, who owned the storage house and an adjoining tenement about $300. Mr. Longprey was burned out about a year ago, so that this second visitation is quite a loss to him. The fire originated in the building used by the water company, but how is unknown.

THE HEAT.

Thermometers Again Getting in Their Work.

It seemed to be a general opinion that yesterday was one of the hottest of the season. However, there is some consolation in the fact that the signal service official says the wind has shifted to southeast and the day was not really as hot as people thought. The thermometer at that office indicated at two o'clock yesterday afternoon only 95½. At 6 o'clock this morning it stood at 79, and at 9:45 96. At Max Meyer's the thermometer indicated, at 2 p. m. 105° in the shade. At Saxe's at 2 o'clock their thermometer indicated 108, so that it will be seen everybody was not as fortunately located as the signal service people.

A Query.

To the Editor of THE BEE.

Omaha, August 8.—Will the most unsatisfactory investigator with regard to a missing child of North Omaha, be so kind as to inform the public where the boy may be found. If still in the hands of his former persecutors, then more efficient measures must be taken to secure him. This is no vague speculation, or "Wild Rumor" as termed in your columns, but a case of prolonged cruelty, endured by the community, through dread of conflict with the perpetrators, who, on a venture, have dared to make the case known. We now insist on something more reliable than the offending party's explanation, or the little victim, who from past experience would not make an objectionable assertion against his oppressors.
