FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, August 17.

Money—Easy at 2½@3 per cent; closed offered at 2 per cent.

Prime Mercantile Paper—5½@6½ per cent.

Sterling Exchange—Bankers' bills weak at at $4.82; demand, $4.85⅞.

Governments—Strong.

Stocks—Stronger to-day than yesterday and apparently from somewhat different causes. Yesterday the advance was caused mainly by covering of shorts and in the afternoon also by some considerable buying on foreign account. To-day there was no further short interest to be covered and a good many of the stocks bought yesterday on foreign account were sold out in the forenoon. However, buying continued, presumably by people who have held stocks all along until the flurry of the early part of the week made them apprehensive of some more extended trouble and induced them to sell out. To-day they have been buying them back. The net result of the day's business was an advance of last night's quotations of ¼@3¾ per cent, Western Union 2⅛, Rock Island 1⅞, Northwestern 1½.
