FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, May 23.—Money—Easy; 1½ to 2 per cent.

Prime paper—4 to 5½.

Sterling bills—Steady; 4 83@4 84; demand 4 84½@4 85,

Governments—Higher.

Stocks—Shares heavy and depressed; coal stocks in early trading were marked by the lowest prices for years. Jersey Central broke 7c, Delaware & Hudson 6c, Lackawanna 2½c, and Reading 1½c. Northwestern was also weak and dropped from 1 00⅞ to 96⅝c on a rumor of troubles in the pool, The general market was lower in sympathy. A rally of ½ to 2c followed, coalers leading. In the afternoon there were frequent rallies, but each advance brought out fresh offerings. Near the close, Northern Pacific, Lackawanna and Northwestern were singled out by the bears, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy touched 1 11, against 1 15¼ during the morning. Some shares were comparatively firm at the close, but the market as a rule was weak. The feature of the trading was a number of sellers of options.
