HOT Spring Water Baths Given in Omaha!

I have opened and elegantly fitted up rooms in Douglas block, cor. 16th and Dodge, and secured the services of one of the best chemists in the city. I can give a bath the water being chemically, precisely the same, that is so abundantly supplied by nature at those justly celebrated springs. And to those of limited means suffering from blood poisons, rheumatism, malarial poison, deep-seated organic disease, neuralgia, paralysis, sciatica, etc., etc. would say to such sufferers that I can give from one to two months' treatment for what it would cost for railroad fare to Hot Springs. I also give the hot-air bath, temperature if required 212° F., either dry or moist, with or without electricity. Correspondence solicited; send stamp. Trained lady help for lady patients; charges moderate for single bath, week or month. Take elevator on 16th. Rooms 53 and 54, Douglas block. Mrs. Dr. Day, Omaha, Neb. 850 15*
