DEAR CLARA—Don't fail to keep the folders the Omaha photographing company, No. 311 N. 16th st., are going to distribute to every house in the city. They tell you to take the folder and present it to any firm whose name is on the same, and any goods in their line you need they will give you coupons from a book corresponding with the per cent the merchant agrees to give as a premium for your trade, take these to the gallery and they will take them as payment for photographs. If you buy all your goods of the firms on the folder you can get enough coupons in 2 weeks to get a dozen elegant cabinets and they won't cost you anything. Now, dear, if you don't understand this, call at the gallery or on the merchants, they will explain it. Be sure and keep the card they leave at the house, it is very valuable to you. Yours, Mande. 403-25*
