ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Application of Julius D. Cronin, Administrator with the Will Annexed of the Estate of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, for License to Sell Real Estate.

Now, on this 23rd day of July, 1943, this cause came on for hearing upon the application and petition of Julius D. Cronin, Administrator with the Will annexed of the Estate of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, for license to sell the following described real property, to-wit:

Lot Four; Southwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter and West Half of the Southwest Quarter, all in Section Five, Township Twenty-five, North, Range Fourteen; East Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-one; South Half of the Southwest Quarter; East Half of the Northwest Quarter; Northeast Quarter of the Southwest Quarter and the Northwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter, all in Section Thirty-two, all in Township Twenty-six, North, Range Fourteen, all in Holt County, Nebraska, for the purpose of paying the debts owing by said deceased and said estate and for the further purpose of paying the bequest to Vernon R. Rominger contained in Paragraph Fourth of the Last Will and Testament of the said Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, and it appearing to the Court from the petition that Gilbert Clay Rominger at the time of his death was a resident of Rio Grande County, Colorado; that his Last Will and Testament was admitted to probate in Rio Grande County, Colorado, and also in Holt County, Nebraska; that the estate of said deceased in Rio Grande County, Colorado, real and personal, is insufficient to pay the debts filed and allowed in his said estate in Colorado and the cost and expense of administering said estate in Colorado; that there is no personal estate in Nebraska and none in the hands of the administrator with the will annexed of this estate in Nebraska excepting the sum of $81.34 obtained from rents and that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of the administrator with the will annexed in Rio Grande County, Colorado, or the administrator with the will annexed in Nebraska or in existence to pay the debts owing by said deceased and said estate and the expense of administering said estate in Colorado and in Nebraska; that there are no personal assets in existence with which to pay the bequest to Vernon R. Rominger under Paragraph Fourth of the Last Will and Testament of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased. That it is necessary to sell the real estate heretofore described for the purpose of paying the debts and the expenses filed and allowed against this said estate in Colorado and in Nebraska and the cost of administration in Nebraska and this proceeding and for the further purpose of paying the bequest to Vernon R. Rominger, as heretofore set out.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED BY THE COURT that all persons interested in this said estate appear before the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska on the 30th day of August, A. D., 1943 at ten o'clock A. M., to show cause why license should not be granted to Julius D. Cronin, administrator with the will annexed of the Estate of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, to sell the real estate above described, to pay such debts and expenses and the legacy to Vernon R. Rominger.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that notice of the time and place of such hearing be given by publishing a copy of this order for three successive weeks in The Frontier, a weekly newspaper printed, published and of general circulation in Holt County, Nebraska.

BY THE COURT:
D. R. MOUNTS,
(12-3) District Judge.

Educational Notes

As far as I know the following qualified teachers have not contracted to teach. Perhaps there are some in this list not interested in teaching this year, or expect to teach in some other county, perhaps there are others interested whose names I do not have. However, most of these have indicated to me that they do wish to teach. All in this list are qualified to teach in rural schools and have had at least one year of experience.

Steel Creek Club

Last Saturday evening the Steel Creek Club held a meeting at the home of Robert Miller of O'Neill. All members were present but Dean and Norman Oberle, Harold Krugman and Donald Ridgeway. Demonstration projects were examined and discussed by the club. Group discussions were held on how their projects were doing. A short quiz was given and later discussed. The meeting was adjourned until the Saturday before Achievement Day.

Miss Edith Morrow of Grand Island spent the week-end here visiting her parents and other relatives and friends.

Bob Cook returned Tuesday from Omaha, where he spent the week-end visiting his wife, and other relatives and friends.

The Days Of Long Ago

The Frontier, August 3, 1933.

R. H. Parker left Sunday morning for Chicago, where he expects to put in a couple of weeks attending the exposition.

After three days of torrid, sweltering heat and one fairly cool day, a drenching rain visited this section of the state last Tuesday evening, bringing joy to the hearts of all residents and life to many parched corn fields. The rainfall in this city was 3.28 inches, and was much heavier in other parts of the county.

Mrs. Garret Janzing died at her home northwest of this city last Saturday afternoon at 1:10, after an illness of several months of cancer, at the age of 58 years, 7 months and 1 day. The funeral was held Monday from the Catholic church in Emmet and burial in Calvary cemetery here.

The Frontier, August 10, 1933.

James J. Shorthill of Emmet died in a hospital at Norfolk last Sunday morning about 10:45, at the age of 44 years, 1 month and 3 days, from a broken neck which he received when he dived into shallow water in the Elkhorn river near Emmet Sunday afternoon of last week.

M. H. Horriskey and sisters, Miss Mary and Mrs. Kate Miller and son, Billie, left last Tuesday morning for a ten-day visit at the exposition at Chicago.

L. G. Gillespie left last Saturday morning for a couple of weeks visit with relatives and friends at Portland, Oregon, and San Francisco, Calif.

The Frontier, August 17, 1933.

Art King and Jack Grady left last Sunday morning, via bicycle, for a few days' outing at Long Pine.

Last Saturday Postmaster Henry Grady received a letter from Postmaster General Farley asking for his resignation as postmaster in this city. As Henry's time had expired on January 14, 1933, he did not see the need of sending in a resignation, but he complied with the Postmaster General's request and forwarded his resignation, effective on August 31, 1933.

Archie Bowen returned last Friday from a ten-day visit to the Chicago exposition.

The Frontier, August 24, 1933.

M. R. Sullivan took over the job as postmaster of this city last Tuesday evening, succeeding Henry D. Grady, who has filled the position for the past nine years.

Miss Marjorie Dickson returned last Saturday from a vacation of two weeks spent at the World's Fair at Chicago and visiting relatives and friends in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gusse and children of Thayer, Nebr., arrived yesterday for a couple of weeks visit at the home of Mrs. Gusse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Hoppe, living northwest of this city.

A splendid rain amounting to .90 of an inch fell here Tuesday morning. With this rainfall we have had 4.53 inches during the month of August.

The Frontier, August 31, 1933.

Nebraska's new divorce law went into effect the forepart of the month and the first day it was in operation two judges in the district court at Omaha issued divorce decrees to forty-six, an all-time high record for Nebraska.

Joel Parker is building a new cement building, 20x60 feet, on the lot just south of the Grand cafe.

O'Neill took Atkinson into camp on the local diamond last Sunday with a score of 4 to 1. On the same day Chambers defeated Ewing with a score of 6 to 4, and Stuart took Redbird into camp with a score of 8 to 7.
