They had a republican celebration meeting over in Iowa the other day and one of the principal speakers was asked to account for the cause that Candidate Bryan drew such immense crowds during his stumping tour? The speaker said he could answer that by relating a story: "A lady and her little boy were at a station awaiting the arrival or departure of a train. The lady asked the station agent, who was afflicted with the stammering habit, when the train was due? 'A-a-b-b-bou-bout f-f-fi-five o'clock,' said he. Several minutes afterward she repeated the question, and the agent gave the same stammering reply. Finally ten or fifteen minutes later she asked the question again. 'T-t-thi-this i-i-is t-t-the t-t-thi-thir-third t-t-ti-time y-y-you h-ha-hav-have a-a-ask-asked m-m-me, I I t-t-tol-told y-y you a-a at f-f-fi-five o-o-o-o'clock,' replied the agent irritatedly. 'You must excuse me,' said the lady naively, 'but it amuses my little boy so much to see you work your mouth.'"—Beatrice Express.
