BOWLERS WIND UP WITH FEAST

Pleasant Finale of Commercial League Season.

Nearly 100 knights of the "strikes and spares," members and friends of the teams comprising the Commercial Bowling league of the city, assembled at the Iler Grand hotel Thursday evening to offer congratulations to the winners of championships, both team and individual, of the season of 1907-8, and also to partake of the bountiful supply of eatables and drinkables served at the second annual banquet of the league.

During the consumption of the palatable food and the various other refreshments and cigars everyone forgot that the gallant Grotte "fouled" on the "fifth" and Mahoney "split" his last one with the president. After the serving of the elaborate menu and while those present were bowling in the realm of Frau Nicotina, President Walenz in his opening address predicted a flattering future for the bowling game.

Owing to the absence of George Fox, donor of the league pennant, who was to present the same to the Omaha Bicycle team, winner of the league championship, the presentation speech was made by President Walenz and accepted by Sam Boord of the winning team.

Carl Reiter, the genial manager of the Orpheum, was present and in his inimitable manner convulsed the banqueters with a number of humorous stories.

A handsome silver loving cup, donated to the bowler of the highest individual average, was won by President Walenz and presented by the donor, D. J. O'Brien, in a neat manner. To possess the cup permanently it has to be won three times by one man.

J. J. Berger, city bowling champion, was presented with a handsome diamond ring, donated by Fred Brodegaard, and W. A. Keyt, the proprietor of the Metropolitan Bowling alleys, on which all the league games was played, was presented with a handsome pair of cuff buttons by the members of the various teams.

During the course of the banquet and the presentation speeches the banqueters were regaled by orchestral music and appreciable selections by the quartet of warblers, Mahoney, Berger, Walenz and Nelson.

At the conclusion of the function it was decided by those present that all records had been broken during the evening, and although Secretary Solomon had not the averages at hand it was asserted that Drinkwater bowled 201.

WITH THE BOWLERS.

The Indians took a straight series from the Benos at the Association alleys last night. Changstrom carried off the high total for the evening with 546 and Zimmerman the best single game with 215. Tonight the Onimods and Gate Citys will fight to see who shall occupy second place in the league race.

WHITE SOX TAKE FIRST ONE

Householder Makes His Initial Bow and Catches On with Fans.

HITS TWICE FOR THREE BASES

Lack of Training of Omaha Pitchers, Who Are Too Free with Passes, Coupled with Errors, Gives Game to Chicago.

Pa proved himself a veritable David Harum when he traded Big Gus Thompson for Householder. This was clearly demonstrated Friday afternoon at Vinton street park in the first Sox game, when Householder landed on the ball for two three suckers and caught everything which came his way and showed that he is a ball player and a valuable acquisition to the team. Chicago won, 6 to 2.

The advantage of spring training in a warmer clime showed clearly in the better condition of the Chicago men, who worked like clockwork, especially the pitchers, who did not pass a man, while the Omaha slab artists passed six and hit three men.

Pa used three pitchers and Comiskey used two, sending the veteran Fiene in to hold down the game as soon as Nelson showed signs of tiring. Ritaman started the work for Pa and pitched a amgnificent game, holding the Sox without a hit for three innings and allowing but one in the fourth. Hall was then sent in to work out and the cold weather of the last week told heavily on the slim one, for he had no control whatever and passed and hit men in the seventh inning until two runs were made on one hit. He had held them safe for two innings and then went to pieces. Metz took his place in the eighth inning and he started the same as Hall had started the seventh, by passing the first man up and hitting the second.

Householder Makes Good.

High hope was held by the fans for a time that the game might be annexed, as a good starter on the season, but it was not to be. After the Sox had been blanked in the initial round, with two out, Autrey stung a fast one between Lee Quillin and Big John Anderson, formerly of Washington, D. C. Then Householder made his bow. The result was that had it not been for the Storz sign the ball might have been rolling yet. As it was Tip O'Neill was able to field it back in time to stop Householder on third. Chick had, of course, scored.

Thus it was until the fourth, when with two out and Purtell on third as the result of a triple, Welch dropped one he should have held and the score was tied. The tie held good until Hall went up in the seventh, when two runs were scored and three more were added on Metz's wild work in the eighth.

Purtell did some star work for the Sox and Hub Hart caught a foul after a hard run. Belden and Welch made two errors for Omaha.

More pitchers will be tried out this afternoon. The score:
