THE

Chicago Republican

Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly Editions.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1868.

The "Republican," after a period of unexampled prosperity, now enters upon the year 1868 with a vigor and energy worthy of its name and history. The name given to this paper was chosen in good faith, and with the full appreciation of a meaning to which its policy will ever remain true.

The "Republican," as the Western exponent of the American system, recognizes the commercial and financial corner-stone of our prosperity in the doctrine of Protection to Home Industry,

Embodied in that Republican platform, whose value to the country, in all time, was sealed by the life, services and martyrdom of Abraham Lincoln. It opposes the pernicious policy of the British free-traders, who desire to make the United States as dependent upon England as India or Ireland.

ITS COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

Is under the superintendence of one of the best commercial reporters in the northwest and the name already gained for it as one of the best commercial papers will be maintained, making it an invaluable daily visitor to every business man.

THE DAILY EDITION

Of the Republican contains the latest news by telegraph, express and mail, up to an early hour in the morning; editorials carefully and ably written on the different topics of the day, and reports of the Chicago and Eastern markets, full and complete.

THE TRI-WEEKLY EDITION,

Issued each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday morning, contains the news of two days, carefully revised and arranged.

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN,

A carefully compiled edition, laden with news—Religious, political, agricultural, and general—and in short, anything and everything that tends to make a live, interesting paper.

EVERY MAN OUGHT TO SUBSCRIBE FOR A NEWSPAPER,

In this enlightened age of the world's history we need not urge the necessity for every man to subscribe for a newspaper. The results of the coming year will be of unusual interest to every citizen. We are approaching a political campaign of great importance. Every one should be well informed respecting the current topics of the times, and in no way can this information be obtained save by being a constant reader of a first-class metropolitan newspaper.

Such a paper is the Republican. It will be found to be complete in every department, and of a character that will commend it to the general popular interest and support. As its name indicates, it is Radical to the core. It is the friend to the whole Northwest, and will continue to advocate its welfare and advancement.

Persons interested in the formation of clubs will do well to bestow attention to the following low rates:

Unquestionably the best Sustained Work of the kind in the World.

HARPER'S

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular monthly in the world.—[New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—[Trubner's Guide to American Literature, London.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—[Zion's Herald, Boston.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

The publishers will commence on November 1st, the issue of "Harper's Bazar," a Weekly Illustrated Family Journal, devoted to Fashion and Home Literature. Their aim is twofold: to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine therewith a first-class literary journal, which will be indispensable to every household.

Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous "Bazar" of Berlin, which supplies the fashions to the leading journals of Paris, to furnish the same to them in advance, so that henceforth the fashions will appear in Harper's Bazar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and Berlin—an advantage enjoyed by no other journal in the country.

The patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large pattern-plates, containing from forty to fifty full-sized patterns, of ladies', misses', and children's bonnets, cloaks, dresses, underclothing, and other articles, accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions, and occasionally an elegant colored fashion-plate of the size of Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Bazar will contain 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and will be published weekly.
