Agents, Salesmen 47

SALESMEN AND BEGINNERS—Do you think you can sell, or would you like to try your hand at selling? If so, it would pay you to answer this ad, inasmuch as it is different than the ordinary run of propositions advertised in these columns. This is a well known and firmly established firm, doing a nation-wide business who would like to find additional sales talent for an established and productive sales force. The opportunity to make good is here. We have men earning from $50.00 up per week. We pay our men on the commission basis. Beginners who show the proper spirit will be given financial assistance. We know that there are any number of men in Omaha who can sell our line, and make good doing so. What we want more than anything else in a man is a little natural sales talent and the disposition to work. Every applicant will be accorded a pleasant interview, and if selected, will be given every opportunity to learn the sales game and make good under the able tutelage of our managers. Men must be over 25 years of age. See Mr. Merciel, 416 South 17th St., from 9 to 5.
