NAACP CHURCH HEAD APPEALS FOR INTER-FAITH CIVIL RIGHTS SUPPORT

New York, No. 26—Walter P. Offutt, Jr., church secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, today urged religious bodies of all faiths to cooperate in activating the recommendations of the President's Committee on Civil Rights.

Reverend Offutt, who recently completed a fact-finding tour of the Nation's religious centers stated, "The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is calling on you and your organization to assist us in translating the American ideal into complete realization. We have a short time in which to forestall annihilation by our modern destructive weapons, and to save ourselves we must achieve brotherhood in America under law. If America wishes to be saved, we shall have to practice justice and love, however humiliating it may be to do so. The rights recommended by this committee have long been commended to us by the highest authority; they now appear to be our only alternative to beggary and annihilation."

Pick Right Knife

Whether a knife is sharp and stays sharp depends on the quality of the steel blade, the grinding of the blade and the way it is tempered. The finest blades are forged and thus are strong, flexible and easy to grind.

Rich Southern pecan pie adorned with fluffs of whipped cream for superb holiday dining. Tender, flaky piecrust to compliment the luscious filling for truly grand eating. You'll be amazed how easily and quickly you can turn out this delectable pie. The memory of its deliciousness will prompt you to make it again and again. Clip this tested recipe now!

To make the attractive topping, fill a large serving spoon with whipped cream, carefully scrape cream off on pie, pointing spoon toward outer rim of pie.

Holiday Pecan Pie

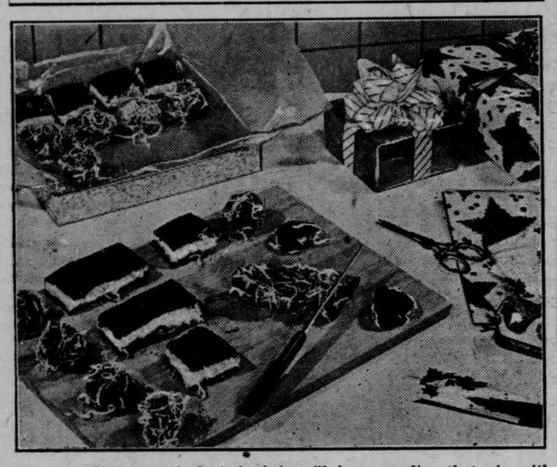
1¼ cups sugar
½ cup dark corn sirup
¼ cup butter
3 eggs, well beaten
1 cup pecans
1 unbaked Spry Pie Shell

Combine sugar, corn sirup, and butter, and bring to a full rolling boil, stirring constantly. Beat eggs and add pecans. Add hot sirup gradually. Cool. Pour filling into unbaked pie shell. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 40-45 minutes, or until filling is firm to touch. Serve plain or with unsweetened whipped cream.

Spry Pie Shell

MIX 1¼ cups sifted ALL-PURPOSE FLOUR and ½ teaspoon SALT. MEASURE out ½ cup SPRY.
Step 1 for Tenderness—cut in about ⅔ of the Spry with pastry blender or two knives until as fine as meal.
Step 2 for Flakiness—cut in remaining Spry to size of large peas. SPRINKLE 2½ tablespoons cold WATER over different parts of mixture. MIX thoroughly with fork until all particles cling together and form a ball of dough. ROLL into circle ⅛ inch thick (a little larger than pie pan) . . . FIT pastry into pan, patting with piece of dough to exclude air. TRIM pastry 1 inch larger than pan and turn back edge. FLUTE rim.

Home Made Coconut Candies Rival Confectioners' Finest



IF your Christmas budget is in need of help, why don't you plan on home-made candies to take care of gifts to nearby friends? You will find that with a little practice you can make a store of gifts worth many times its cost.

Snowy, moist shredded coconut, like fresh coconut itself, can be relied on to add eye appeal and flavor to your confections. It combines deliciously with chocolate. Chocolate fudge layers with coconut fondant filling make one choice that is sure to bring "ohs" and "ahs" from everybody. And chocolate roll—a creamy French chocolate base formed in a cylinder, rolled in shredded coconut and sliced—is another.

A little practice in making candy will give you confidence and skill. You can flip your chocolate balls lightly into a fluff of coconut shreds, roll them deftly with a fork, line them up to get firm—and behold! you'll have candies that vie with those of a professional confectioner.

Whether you use conventional Christmas papers and ribbons, or a motif and color scheme of your own, your Christmas bon bons should be neatly boxed, with plenty of waxed paper to protect them. Then they are ready for the final decorative wrapping.

Chocolate Coconut Balls

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1-1/3 cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk
Shredded coconut

Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add sweetened condensed milk and stir over boiling water 5 minutes until mixture thickens. Cool for 5 minutes. Drop by teaspoonfuls into shredded coconut. Roll until well-covered with coconut. Let stand in refrigerator for 2 hours. A drop or two of peppermint may be added to part of the mixture to give variety.

'Bye, Duckie, Says Chuckie
