St. Joseph Sends Omaha Below the Half Way Mark Once More.

WINNERS PUT UP A FAST ARTICLE OF BALL

Home Team Outplayed in Every Department by the Aggregation of Coming Champions from Down the River.

St. Joseph, 6; Omaha, 2.
Des Moines, 6; Denver, 1.
Sioux City, 10; Pueblo, 4.
Chicago, 8; Brooklyn, 7.
St. Louis, 3; New York, 0.

Pittsburg, 7; Philadelphia, 3.
Indianapolis, 6; Buffalo, 5.

The pennant-winning Missourians swooped down upon "Dusty" Coones and his supporting members of the Omaha aggregation Monday afternoon and right before the eyes of Buckerino himself and a fair-sized crowd of local fans bagged a victory with a score of 6 to 2. The way the Saints carried away the laurels wasn't much trouble to them. They just pranced up to the bat whenever due, poked out a pole and rapped out a safety, sixteen in all, the official lists showed. Those who witnessed the performance, however, will bear out the assertion that "Dusty" Coons was not altogether responsible for this hitting rampage. Indeed, he pitched a fairly steady game, but the fielders behind him were so glad to get home that their exuberance overbalanced their judgment and many a hit necessarily marked down for a safety should have been corraled. Failure to get them could not be chalked up as errors, either, for it was due to lunkhead playing. Well, these Hickeyites, who are taking long strides toward the pennant, just availed themselves of every opportunity presented and the wonder was that our own base ball exponents were not buried under a regular avalanche of runs.

Started It with a Hot One.

In the very first act the visitors set the Rourke boys a hot pace. After two men had been retired, "Peaches" Kling poked out a double, which might have been gobbled up by Eddie Lauzon, but it wasn't. Then dapper Jack Grimm signalized his reappearance in Omaha after many years' absence by swatting a hot one down the third base line, permitting Kling to cross the bag. Grimm followed on Schrall's customary three-bagger, but the latter's effort went no further, for Baer retired the side on an easy one down to Baird at second and found his old captain waiting for him with the glad mitt at the initial corner. In our half, even though Jimmy Toman did start off with a safety, we were awarded a horse collar. The Saints got the same dose in first half of the second, but it was different with the Colts. With Baird safely anchored on first by virtue of a hot liner through the center of the diamond and two men out, Jimmy Hoy utilized his last swing by landing for a threebagger and Baird capered over the plate. Coons nipped Hoy's scoring aspirations in the bud by striking out.

Once again in the third the Saints copped out a large luscious goose egg, but Mattie McVicker's usual home run tilted up the score on the right side of the ledger and balanced the account for the time being. After that it was a succession of ciphers for the Rourke family, while the Saints kept up the gait to the tune of one in the fourth, two in the fifth and the last in the seventh, making in all an even half dozen.

This afternoon will be women's day and the fair creatures will be accorded a royal welcome, as it will be their last chance to see the popular Saint Jo boys. Everything will be free for the women and a great concourse is looked for. Score:

HULEN TRIES UNKNOWN TWIRLER.

Sioux City Gallops Away with a Game from the Pueblos.

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—William Hogg, jr., a phenomenal young amateur twirler, was given a trial by Hulen against the Soos this afternoon. Except for an attack of the buck-fever during the first, when eight of the visitors crossed the home plate, the youngster held the Soos down to two runs, but the record of the game is only a repetition of other defeats of late. It was played on freight train schedule, 2:45, with two sessions of rag-chewing, Atlantic's own umpire giving the decisions. Listless playing on the part of the Neolians allowed the visitors two runs in the first. In the second and seventh Neola pounded Seymore unmercifully, getting three and seven hits, of which two were two-baggers and one a triple. Score by innings:

										R.	H.	E.

Saturday they go to Plattsmouth to play their first out-of-town-game.

JOCKEYS ARE HEAVILY FINED

Starter Caldwell Shows His Old-Time Strictness in Efforts to Enforce Discipline.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Iroquois Belle won the Hendrie stakes today with ease. The track was slow and the mile and one-sixteenth was run in 1:49¾. McMeekin ran the mile handicap in 1:41, defeating Queen of Song, who came strong in the stretch, by a head.

Starter Caldwell fined Shaw, Burns, Boland, Mitchell, Odom, Weisz, McCue, James and Patton $25 each for not obeying orders in the first race. Turner was fined $30 for failing to keep back of the line while at the post in the fourth race. Buchanan was suspended for two days.

The first of the $5,000 all-age races will be run on Thursday. It is called the Beverwyck Brewing company's handicap and will be at a mile. POOR FIELDS AT BRIGHTON

Princess Pepper Wins Winged Foot Handicap, Favorite Finishing in Three-Horse Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Scratches all but ruined the racing at Brighton Beach today. Withdrawals were so numerous that there was one three-horse field, three four-horse fields and two six-horse fields. Tower of Candles was the legitimate favorite, but he opened at 3 to 5 and went to 11 to 10, while the wise ones played Princess Pepper from 8 to 5 to 7 to 5. Bowen, the other starter, got some play at 5 to 1. Princess Pepper got the best of the start, led all the way and won easily. Summary:

First race, one mile and a sixteenth—Golden Scepter, 104 (Henry), 7 to 5, won; Borough, 104 (J. Slack), 9 to 5 and 3 to 5, second; Lioness, 110 (Clawson), 5 to 1, third. Time: 1:47 4-5. Beautiful, Lizzie Regent and Temple Bar also ran.
