"I am getting to be an old man now and I think I know my countrymen. They love fair play; they love liberty: they love to see human dealings of man with man. And the late years have shown how cordially they hate injustice, tyranny and inhumanity. And yet France has treated her noblest citizens with injustice and inhumanity, and America, which has sympathy for the oppressed of all nations, has raised no protest nor uttered a word of sympathy.

"If I believe that my countrymen would knowingly see a great organization unjustly deprived of its property, tens of thousands of honest men and noble women robbed of their just income, hundreds of thousands of people brutally wounded in what they hold dearest and most sacred, a majority in the chambers disregard and trample upon the rights of the minority and the rights of millions of then countrymen-in the name of libertywould knowingly see tens of thousands of priests and nuns turned out of their homes for no crime but that of loving God-I say, if my countrymen can see and recognize all this injustice and refuse genuine sympathy to those who suffer, then I will leave life without that faith in American love of justice. liberty and humanity.

"But the American people have not had these things put fairly before them. Our own press has been to a considerable extent the reflex of the Parisian anti-olerical press. NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CON-DENSED FORM.

Sensation at Lyons-Sewall Sampson Severely Handled by a Mob-Whipped and Doused in River-Compelied to Leave the Town.

After receiving a severe whipping. Sewall Sampson Saturday afternoon was compelled by a crowd of angry men to submit to a dousing in the icy waters of Logan river and to promise that he never again would darken the doors of Lyons with his presence. The incident was the last chapter in a scandal that has been the cause of much excitement at Lyons. Last fall Sampson ran off with another man's wife, both of them leaving behind families of small children. The indignation of citizens at his return to Lyons a few days ago has grown with each passing day. Saturday he was put under arrest for assaulting the husband of the woman with whom he ran away. As he stepped out of unitl next Friday at the request of the bank, where he had been trying to secure bonds for his release, a crowd of men was ready for him. A gunny sack was thrown over his head and he was loaded into a dray. His capture was speedily noised about town witness the proceeding.

After the fines were imposed United county, made a fine haul at Oxford Monday, when he took into custody two "shovers of the queer," George Monroe and Thomas Rogers, who were brought to McCook and lodged in the county jail, charged with having circulated counterfeit money.

These two young men have been operating over a wide section of that part of Nebraska for several weeks. Reports came to McCook from various towns between Hastings and Denver, Colo., and in nearly every town they have placed more or less of their spurious currency, a $10 bill of the Farmers' and Planters' bank of Savannah, Ga. Omaha Board Rejects Plan to Buy Out Private Company.

TO BUILD ITS WATER PLANT.

The water board of the city of Oma ha, which has entire control of all matters concerning the water supply public and private, of the city, Monday night voted to reselud the action of the city council in electing to buy the plant of the Omaha Water company and appointed a committee to procure plans and estimates for a new plant. The action of the city council was taken in 1903 before the creation of the water board. The proposal to purchase was under a provision of the company's franchise and contemplated the valuation of the plant by a joint board of three appraisers." This board was appointed, but failed to agree, the majority report fixing the value of the plant at $6,250,000, which the water board claims is far in excess of its real value. A suit is now pending in the federal court by which the company seeks to compel the city to purchase

The need of more of the state library has resulted in the proposal of many schemes, the latest of which is for the state to buy the corner lot at Fourteenth and J streets or the lot at Sixteenth and H streets. Those who are back of this deal want a magnificent library and legal building put on one of these corners and have it used for the library, the suprome court and legal department of state. While there is no doubt the library has outgrown its quarters and of St. Pierre Du Gros Caillou, St. Authe quarters never were fit for the gustine, and St. Roch, where the greathousing of valuable books, until a new state house is built, it has been suggested the dome of the capitol could be utilized with some fixing up. As under this appraisement. It is estinow arranged the bailin to the sumated that a new plant can be built preme court has to chase from the second floor to the basement after records and books and the trip to the dome is not any farther. In the dome there are several thousand feet of space not used except by those who climb up to look over the state and by the bats and rats and such things. And, incidentally, it is just as same to put the books there as to keep them where they are. The biennial report of State Auditor

Searle will show that the various state departments collected in fees $285. 148.89 during the past two years. At least that is the amount turned into the state treasury from Dec. 1, 1904, to Nov. 30, 1906. During the preceding biennium the collection turned into the state treasury was in the fees collected by the insurance department under control of the state auditor. In the banking department fees for the biennium just closed is an item $2,350 for charter fees, charged under a law enacted two years ago. Game and fish licenses paid into the state treasury are not carried as fees. During the biennium just closed the licenses aggregated $12,604. For the preceding biennium these fees amounted to $8,945. The increase in the fees in the insurance department was largely because of the enforcement of the reciprocal tax law, which had not been enforced pending a decision of the supreme court, during the previous biennium. . . .

Frank W. Coleman, bailing to the supreme court, has completed the statistical part of the biennial report of this department. Mr. Coleman has inaugurated a new system of keeping the records of the Nebraska reports handled by the department, and his report shows in detail the number of books of each volume on hand, sold, damaged, given away and the price received for them On this da years ago the clerk had on hand 17,-$82 volumes. During the two years he has received 7,500 reports, distributed free to other states and libraries 1,239 volumes and sold 4,435 volumes. He has on hand damaged by water leaking through the roof, 364 volumes and 19,044 volumes in good condition.

A BITTER CONFLICT BETWEEN STATE AND CHURCH.

New French Law, Under Which Church Property Has Been Configcated, Likely to Precipitate Civil War-Clericals Prosecuted.

Soldiers have been standing guard at the door of every Roman Catholic Church in France, outside of Paris, and have prevented the celebration of mass, Prosecutions have been begun against the ultramontane abbes of the churches est resistance to the taking of the inventories occurred, and it has been decided to immediately take over the buildings belonging to the ecclesiastics, stop the pensions of the clergy, compel aspirants to the priesthood to fulfill their military obligations, and, if necessary, treat the clergy as subjects of a foreign power.

A call is printed by La Croi, a Catholic organ, to all men and youths who are loyal to their religion to attend services, defend the priest in charge, and prevent any hostile demonstrations, This is the answer of the church to the official instructions given to the police to allow "free thinkers" to start dem-

"But in France the Jacobin party is not dead. They hate God, they hate Christ, they hate his religion as much as ever their fathers hated them. But they have learned a more prudent and measured method of attack.
