GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Bears Get Upper Hand and Lower Prices Steadily.

LIQUIDATION STILL IN PROGRESS

Cables Come Stronger, but Have Little Effect, as Export Business is Practically at a Standstill.

OMAHA, Nov. 2, 1907.

With an almost listless Saturday market, the bears had the upper hand and lowered prices steadily.

Liquidation has been in progress and has not yet run its course.

Cables come some stronger, but they had little effect, as export business has come practically to a standstill.

Wheat opened well on cable and local bulls buying a little. The pit crowd was bearish, however, and began pounding the market with success. December wheat opened at 89½c and closed at 87¼c.

Corn was practically lifeless, with no cash business and no demand. Receipts have shut off as far as possible and country shipping is at a standstill.

December corn closed at 53c.

Oats were fairly active and opened a shade stronger on purchases of future options. The market stands very little selling and worked on some toward the close.

December oats opened at 47½c and closed at 44⅝c.

Primary wheat receipts were 750,000 bu. and shipments were 934,000 bu., against receipts last year of 921,000 bu. and shipments of 627,000 bu.

Corn receipts were 319,000 bu. and shipments were 544,000 bu., against receipts last year of 372,000 bu. and shipments of 353,000 bu.

Clearances were 26,500 bushels of corn, 15,100 bushels of oats, and wheat and flour equal to 265,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed ⅝@¾d higher on wheat and ⅝@¾d higher on corn.

Seaboard reported 40,000 bushels of wheat and 40,000 bushels of corn for export.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The New York financial situation turned a strong wheat market into a weak affair today and at the close wheat for December delivery was 1⅝c lower. Corn was down 1⅛c. Oats were 1c lower. Provisions ere 7½@17½c lower.

The wheat market opened firm today, responding to the unsuspected strength at Liverpool. Later the New York bank statement was received, and it being considered the worst recorded from that city caused immediate and heavy selling of wheat. Prices broke sharply and remained weak until the close. The rumors of shutting down of mills also caused some selling. The fact that some export business was reported from the east did not prove an offset to the financial situation. The close was weak. December wheat opened ⅛@⅜c higher, at 90⅛@90¼c, sold between 94⅞@⅞c and 86c and closed at 94⅞c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 266,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 751,000 bushels, against 920,000 bushels on the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 565 cars, against 611 cars last week and 514 cars one year ago.

The corn market was strong at the opening in sympthy with wheat and the reports of poor husking returns. Considerable selling of long corn came out on the advance, and then the break in wheat and the New York bank statement caused a sharp decline. Cash houses were fairly free sellers and the market in general received poor support. December opened ⅝@⅞c higher, at 59⅝@60c, sold between 58⅝@60c and closed at 59c. Local receipts were 124 cars with 30 cars of contract grade.

The oats market opened strong in sympathy with wheat and corn, but later the attempt of a prominent long to unload, together with the decline in wheat and corn, broke the market sharply. Trade was in small volume and the range of prices was narrow. December opened ⅛c lower, at 49⅛c, sold between 48⅞@50c and closed at 48⅝c, the low point of the day. Local receipts were 104 cars.

The provisions market weakened under selling by packers despite a bullish showing of statistics. The weekly receipts of hogs at western centers was much less last week than either on the week immediately preceding or the corresponding week last year. This fact, however, did not seem to strengthen prices. January pork closed at 17⅛c lower, at $14.27½. Lard was down 10@12½c, at $8.35@8.37½. Ribs were 1½c lower, at $7.57½.

Estimated receipts for Monday are: Wheat, 43 cars; corn, 116 cars; oats, 117 cars; hogs, 27,000 head.
