Mr. Geo. Zeigler, of Marquette, who owns the Fritz Johansen farm, shipped his goods to Schaupp siding last week and is now living under his own vine and fig tree.

Mrs. J. A. Gilbert had the misfortune to have a small flake of a dish, which she was breaking up, fly in her eye and lacerate the eye ball which proved very painful.

Puny children with weak constitutions can attain an unusual degree of bodily and mental vigor by taking Rocky Mountain Tea this month, made by the Madison Medicine Co. 35c. Ask your druggist.

The general quarantine was raised by the Board of Health, last Saturday night and hereafter if a case of small-pox occurs a quarantine will be laid upon the particular residence where the case resides.

If you want deeds, mortgages, leases or any legal instruments drawn at very reasonable rates when at the county seat, call on W. J. Fisher at the NORTHWESTERN office. All kinds of blanks on hand. A Notary Public in office.

Special Shoe Sale next Saturday and Monday at Jaegers. Come in and see how cheap you can buy.

The law suit between A. L. Baillie and the Parker family last Monday, resulted in young Parker being placed under bonds to keep the peace and appear before the District court at its next sitting.

Chas. Riedel met us on the street last Saturday with a pleasant smile and a big silver dollar. Of course we smiled back when we saw the shining metal coming our way. It was the price of a years subscription to this great family Journal which will visit his home for another year.

Charles Schoening left Monday morning for Grand Junction, Colo, where he expects to make his future home. He ordered the NORTHWESTERN to his address in his new location. Mr. Schoening is an industrous, honest and energetic young man and we hope will meet with unbounded succees in his new venture.

Last Friday while J I. Depew's gass engine was running at full speed, the belt caught upon it's own wheel and wound up, pulling the line shaft from it's bearings and bending it, also knocking a door from it's hinges and mashing the frame. Mr. Depew had just left the shaft and stepped into the blacksmith shop when the accident occured, thereby probably averting an injury. H. W. Pedler hearing the clatter, ran into the engine room and stopped the machine.

Frank Otlewski informs us that he has already put in 20 acres of wheat and intends to farm 300 acres this season. He will also ship a car of hogs to the Omaha market next week. Frank has made good money the last few years at farming notwithstanding he has had some bad luck. This winter he has lost about 35 head of cattle with the corn stalk disease. He has lived in Sherman county for twenty-one years and has built up a home that is a credit to any farmer. Frank will continue to farm with usual good judgment and energy.

The Fred Converse colts were sold on the street last Saturday for $30.00. They were sold by the administrator on an order from the Probate Judge and purchased by J. A. Converse.

Mr. S. S. Haskell of Ord, and father of the editor of the Ord Quiz, died at that place last week. Mr. Haskell was one of the old settlers of Valley county, having settled in Ord, in 1875. He was prominent in the opening up of the new county and in building the county seat.

Prof Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure" It digests what you eat.—Odendahl Bros.

A few weeks ago Mr Henry Shrove and family of Aurora, came up to visit Mr. Shroves parents, and on their way stopped with a friend over night whose family had had the scarlet fever several weeks previous but were at the time entirely well. Mr. Shrove's little girl slept with the child that had the fever and in a few days after arriving at her grand fathers, two miles west of town, was taken down with the disease. Since then little Joseph Shrove and Will Jung the son-in-law of John Shrove has had the same disease and Mr. Jung has had quite a serious time.

We were much pleased last Saturday to learn that Mrs. Flynn of Oak Creek, widow of Richard Flynn who died in April '95, had received $3,000, the full amount of Mr. Flynn's certificate in the Modern Woodmen of America. When Mr. Flynn died he was, as we learn, suspended for the non payment of an assessment which debarred him from participating in the benefit fund of the order. The case has been reviewed by the Head officers and at last has been decided in her favor and the money paid to her. She is a hard working lady and has been in poor health for some time. She is richly deserving of her good fortune.

We are again called upon to chronical another case of what is pronounced by the examining physician, to be small-pox. This time it is Miss Henry Young, sister of Robert Young who came home some three weeks ago and brought the disease with him. It seems to be a very light case of varioloid and in her case does not appear to carry any sickness with it. Miss Young is a teacher in the Primary department of our city schools and after a two weeks quarantine the schools opened last Monday with Miss Young at her desk, but it was not discovered until Tuesday noon that she had become a victim of the dread disease. She was at once removed and the school rooms thoroughly disinfected. Mr. Young's residence has again been quarantined, but the schools will continue with the exception of the room in which Miss Young taught, which has been closed for the week.

Farmer's Institute to-day, to night, tomorrow and tomorrow night. Don't miss it.

Mrs. Erney Rentfrow was seriously ill Wednesday night.

Adam Schaupp has a car of Seed Oats for sale at 35 cents per bushel, also one car Northern Spring wheat for seed at $1.00 per bushel.

Erny Rentfrow moved into the house recently vacated by Chris Johansen and Mr. Johansen now occupies the tenement house of Jimmy Conger

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles.—Odendahl Bros.

S. J. Petersen and J. A. Lindgren of Central City, was in the city Thursday and Friday. They were looking over the country with a view to investing in a stock ranch They were very favorbly impressed with the country and may purchase land here.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dewoody, of Coggon, (Ia.) are parents of a fine baby girl, born January 23rd. Mrs. Dewoody is a niece of William Mead, living north of Manchester.—Ex.

The father of the "fine baby girl" mentioned above was the first born in Sherman county, and is a young man of 28 years.

There should be no danger felt by the people of this community in regard to catching small-pox in Loup City. The case just developed, that of Miss Young, like the other one is so light that, to put it in her own words, "I do not even have a headache." She had not yet reached the point in the disease that it could be contracted by others when she was isolated, and a strict watch for symptoms of the disease is carefully maintained.

A Bright Honest Boy Wanted.

The publishers of the famous illustrated weekly newspaper, PENNSYLVANIA GRIT, are now placing representatives at every post office in Nebraska, and they desire to secure the service of capable hustling agents in each of the following towns of Sherman county: Ashton, Hazard, Loup City and Rockville, and in other towns as are not already supplied. The work is profitable and pleasant. A portion of Saturday only is required. Over 5000 agents are doing splendidly. No money whatever is required. Everything is furnished free. Stationery, rubber stamp, ink and pad, advertising matter, sample copies, etc. Papers are shipped to be paid for at the end of each month. Those not sold are not charged for. Write to Grit Publishing Co., Williamsport, Pa., and mention the NORTHWESTERN.

RESULTS!

Are you satisfied with the way your watch is ruuning.

Are you satisfied to wear a ring with all or a part of the settings gone?

Are you satisfied to wear brass or a broken breast pin or scarf pin?

Are you satisfied to wear out-of-date jewelry?

Are you satisfied with the work you have had done by men who pretend to be jewelers and are not?

Are you satisfied to suffer with an aching head when having your vision corrected will stop it, and give you comfort.

Are you satisfied with the spectacles you laready have?

If you are dissatisfied you surely need my services. I have built up a reputation for excellent work.

I have the knack of doing it just the right way—the telling why—the profitable way. No fancy frills or flowery language in my manners, but I do all work to please my customers and handle the very best stock.

Try me once, you'll be sorry you didn't know me before.

A. T. MORRIS WHOLESALE HOUSE, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Illustrated catalogue 4 cts. stamps.

It is not so much what the newspapers say, as what neighbor says to neighbor, or friend to friend, that has brought Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy into such general use. It is as natural for people to express their gratitude after using this remedy as it is for water to flow down hill. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, whether a baby be sick with cholera infantum or a man with cholera morbus. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Have you a bottle of it in your home? For sale by Odendahl Bros.

Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are liable to cause blood poisoning. Leave them alone. The original has the name DeWitt upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequaled for piles.—Odendahl Bros.
