Odd Fellow Doings.

The Odd Fellows celebrated the visit of Deputy Grand Master F. B. Jeffers of Sargent, Neb., to their meeting last Saturday night to the queen's taste, eating, drinking and making merry among the large attendance who had gathered on the occasion of the semi-annual installation and the initiation of three candidates After instructing Messrs. Frank Otlewski. Will Engle and A. W. Wilson in the mystery of the initiatory degree, a feast was enjoyed, spread by Herman Jung, an enthusiastic Odd Fellow, followed by the work of installation, and a rousing, enthusiastic and stirring speech by that prince of Odd Fellows, Bro Jeffers, who claims that Odd Fellowship, from his experience, is an inspiration from the Guardian Angel, and needs to be known only to be loved Excelsior lodge, Loup City, now numbers 115 members and bids fair to reach 150 by Jan 1st, 1906. They own a desirable site for a hall in our city and have a bank account of $850.

Loup City, Neb., Jan. 4, 1905.

County Board met as per the statute provided, for settlement with the county treasurer; present: D. C. Grow chairman, John Maifeski, Andrew Garstka, W. O. Brown, George Brammer, Peter Thode and W. H. Chapman, supervisors, and Geo. H. Gibson clerk. Vouchers were produced, examined and cancelled and found to be correct as per statement published in this issue.

Loup City, Neb., 1-5, 1905,

County Board of Supervisors met as per adjournment of November 16th, 1904, present: D. C. Grow, chairman; John Maiefski, Peter Thode, Geo. H. Brammer, W. O. Brown, Andrew Garstka and W. H. Chapman supervisors and Geo. H. Gibson, clerk, and the following business was had and done, to-wit:

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Minutes of meeting of June 17th, 1904, wherein the Houser road vacation and the Mizner road establishment petitions were allowed, were amended to show the action in full of county board, the vote of adoption having been erroneously ommitted. See supervisors record for full proceedings.

It appearing to the board that the appraisers on the Hans Johnson road had inadvertantly missed appraising the land taken by said road on the east side of the southeast quarter of section 2, 16-15, it was by motion ordered that the same be allowed at the same amount that the other land was allowed at $5 per acre.

The personal property of Carl Anderson having been erroneously assessed in the village, it was ordered that the same be changed to Loup City township.

Board then took up the matter of the Spotanski road petition and after examining all papers the same was allowed and damagas ordered paid as per the recommendation of the appraisers.

The Smith road was by motion ordered recorded and platted.

Report of bridge committee was heard.

County Treasurer was instructed, by motion, to take up, at his discretion, county bonds as fast as money is on hand.
