

Continuation of the Homer Herald. JOHN H. REAM, PUBLISHER. Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Year.

A weekly newspaper published at Dakota City, Nebraska. Permission has been granted for the transmission of this paper through the mails as second-class matter.

S E Cobb, editor of the Emerson Enterprise, was reappointed postmaster at Emerson last week, at a salary of $1,000.

The county option bill was killed in the house Monday by a vote of 46 to 40. It met the same fate in the senate a couple of weeks ago.

Another Way of Meeting Their Obligations. "Poor Lo" may be a rather inconspicuous figure in some localities, but in Thurston county he has put that section of the state so much to the bad that it has applied to the state legislature for relief.

In the petition it is recited that PRACTICALLY ALL of the inhabitants of Thurston county are Indians. All the lands of these Indians are exempt from taxation, and as result on what little taxable property there is left the county can raise only $6,000 a year for the general fund by taxes.

To make matters worse, poor Lo has been raising "Old Ned" in Thurston county, and the county has been compelled to prosecute so many of the Indians on criminal charges that not only has it expended all its available county funds for the purpose, but has had to go in debt $1,856.42 into the bargain.

The county has now petitioned the legislature to make up this deficit caused by the obstreperousness of the Indians and to again permit the county to get on a cash basis—Omaha News.

the bridge will not be stopped during the progress of the improvement, Mr Eaton said. The scheme of tracks will remain the same. That the combination bridge was what was termed an "engineering monstrosity" and not capable of supporting the heavy Burlington locomotives, was a charge made by Charles A. Dickson on Wednesday before the noonday lunch of the Sioux City Real Estate association. Mr Eaton was asked if he had anything to say in reply to this statement. He said he would not dignify the statement by giving it any attention.

Sioux City Journal, 19th: George Myers who has been a gambling house proprietor in Sioux City, will leave today for Tonapah, Nev., with paraphernalia for the setting up of a gambling establishment in that lively mining town. Sioux City has made previous contributions to the gambling colony of Tonapah. Experience being the best teacher, Olaf Hoffland, of Sioux City, who was married on Saturday at Dakota City to Miss Anna Lindberg, also of Dakota City, has decided that the next time he enters a matrimonial deal he will arrange before hand with the officiating magistrate as to the expenses of the deal.

When Mr Hoffland came with his bride, and in due course of ceremony the judge tied the knot after the latest approved fashion. This being done he extended his hand for his compensation. Digging into his spacious pockets, Hoffland fished out a $5 bill and handed it to the master of ceremonies. The judge accepted the tender, and, turning to his desk, tucked it away in his wallet. The groom stood by and watched the operation. Seeing that he was evidently waiting for something, the judge said: "Well? Don't I get any change?" queried the groom.

"Why, I guess not," responded the judge. "That is the usual fee." Realizing his loss Hoffland became wroth and vociferously argued that he was entitled to change. When told that he didn't have anything coming, he declared that he wouldn't stand for such proceedings. The first lawyer's sign halted the groom and he went in to consult the owner thereof. He explained the case, and tendered the attorney a $2 retainer's fee. The jurist took the money, scratched his legal dome, and explained that there was nothing to be done to recover the change.

Sioux City Journal, 18th: The remains of James Monier, of Salem, S D, were sent late last evening to Spalding, Ill, for interment. They were accompanied by two daughters, Miss Missouri Monier and Miss Vivian Monier, of Lincoln, Neb., and a brother from Spalding. Mr Monier arrived in Sioux City Monday and was taken to a hospital. There he died early Saturday morning, at the age of 60 years, of Bright's disease. Before moving to Salem Mr Monier lived at Emerson, Neb. From both Emerson and Salem he shipped much stock to the Sioux City stock yards, and he was well known here. In addition to the two daughters and the brother from Illinois, Mrs Monier, whose home is in Lincoln, and another brother from Missouri, came to Sioux City on account of Mr Monier's serious illness.

The fifteen-round prize fight scheduled to take place yesterday afternoon in some secluded spot between James Caine and "Red" Turner, a 40-year-old colored boxing aspirant, who has devoted most of his life to cooking ham and egg, at which he is said to be a pastmaster, was a rank fizzle. The fight was to be for $25 a side and a percentage of the gate receipts. The police placed out a lot of truncheons and the contestants should they attempt to do battle within the corporate limits of Sioux City. The managers of the affair wished to take no chances and proceeded to a grove a few blocks from the terminus of the Sioux City Traction company's line in Dakota county, Neb. About thirty were in attendance, most of them wine backers. The fight was to be at 3 o'clock. At this hour Turner was not arrived at the ringside, but at 4 o'clock he put in an appearance with his manager, J Locke Warwick, and a retinue of colored backers. The Caine men claimed the colored man had lost on his failure to arrive at the appointed time, and refused to put up their man. However, Caine was willing to do battle for the gate receipts, pricing the spectators at $1 per head. This proposition was not satisfactory to the Turner gang. The men stood in the grove and hurled proposition after proposition back and forth. Finally, as the sun with a magnificent reddish glow sank sleepily to rest in the western horizon, the fight was declared off and the sports came home. The last proposition which flew across the ring was that the two men fight in private to some room. This it was agreed to do. But those who had spent a beautiful afternoon listening to a line of blowing match doubt if the men ever will get together, and most of them are less.

RISING FROM THE GRAVE. A prominent manufacturer, Wm A Fretwell, of Luena, N C, relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the diabetic stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at Leslie's drug store. DUROC JERSEY SOW SALE. George C Blessing, of Homer, Nebr., will hold a Sale February 26. In this sale are included twenty daughters of Reed's Banker who is one of the best known boars of the country. His get are good size, strong backed, broad loins, neat headed and stand on elegant feet and legs. Every one who has had any experience or given any particular notice to the get of Reed's Banker will agree with us that he was one of the greatest breeding sows now past his usefulness. These sows are bred to Missouri Gold Finch, a son of Gold Finch, dam, Mary Windsor, who is by Oom Paul 2nd, a son of the great prize winning Oom Paul. Every ancestor appearing in this pedigree for several generations has been a notorious prize winner. This young boar himself made some history the first season he was out by winning first in class at Sedalia, Mo, and the Kansas City Royal in 1906. In his show form as a junior yearling he weighed a good 600 pounds, is a typical Duroc and from his ancestry it will be impossible for him to breed wrong. We think that many of our Nebraska breeders can place this blood in their herds to good advantage as there is very little of it scattered over this state in demand. A litter of Missouri Gold Finch pigs out of the Reed's Banker dam will grow and taken care of will look good in any Duroc sale in Nebraska next fall. If it is impossible for you to attend this sale send your bids to E Z Russell who will represent the Nebraska Farmer. Leave the selection to E Z and you will get a good one.

Cheap Lands. In the grand rush for prairie lands further west the settler has passed by a section of the country which surpasses in some and equals in all respect this class of land. A large body of this land has been owned by the lumber companies and is now on the market for the first time.
