Each Season

Has its own peculiar malady; but with the blood maintained in a state of uniform vigor and purity, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the system readily adapts itself to changed conditions. Composed of the best alteratives and tonics, and being highly concentrated, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most effective and economical of all blood medicines.

"For some years, at the return of spring, I had serious trouble with my kidneys. I was unable to sleep nights, and suffered greatly with pains in the small of my back. I was also afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. These symptoms were much worse last spring, especially the trouble with my back. A friend persuaded me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I began taking it, and my troubles all disappeared." —Mrs. Genevra Belanger, 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

RICHARD CROKER, who years ago was a famous boy soprano and sang: "Hear Ye Israel" beautifully, is now a tenor in Paris.

VON BULOW, the musician, is an excellent and accurate Greek scholar. He is, moreover, an unusually well-informed man and an entertaining talker.

COUNT GEZA ZICHY, the one-armed pianist, has accepted the directorship of the royal opera of Pesth. He is also director of the Pesth conservatory of music.

BEETHOVEN was once deeply in love, but lacked the courage to make his affection known, and so lived and died devoted to his art and averse to social pleasure.

LUCCA, the singer, will hereafter devote herself exclusively to teaching, and she will receive only eight pupils, and such as show that they have a good future before them.

AN illustration of the plentifulness of musical talent in New York is given through the report that there were nearly three hundred applicants recently for the chair of organist in an uptown church.

PAULUS, the famous singer of Boulargism, has refused an offer of thirty thousand francs a month to sing at Berlin. He replied: "Magnificent offer in the case of any other country, but in Berlin—never!"

L. FREDERICH WITT, the oldest composer of music in Germany, died recently in Kiel, where he was leader of the orchestra. Prof. August Kasetowski, the well-known historical painter, also died a few weeks ago in Berlin.

NUMBER flutes have lately been found in a rock cellar in Egypt. Although very old, they are in perfect condition, and it is expected that they will give interesting evidence of the Egyptian musical scale. They have been taken to England.

THE queen of Denmark is a fine pianist, and her daughter, the czarina, is nearly as good. At the Danish court chamber music is a daily occupation, generally a quartette, with the queen at the piano. Beethoven and Brahms are the favorite composers.

PEOPLE OF MANY LANDS.

THE late King Kalakana was a mason and had attained the thirty-third degree.

PRESIDENT DIAZ, of Mexico, is reported to have arranged a trip to France.

COLONEL MACFARLANE, who was Kalakaua's chamberlain, says the king left an estate worth about $100,000.

THE queen regent of Spain is suffering from acute nervous prostration brought on by anxiety and overwork.

THE Archduchess Elizabeth, mother of the queen of Spain, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of her birthday in Madrid.

THE emperor of Austria sent the German empress a diamond set which cost $15,000 as a gift in celebration of her infant's christening.

MR. HENRY IRVING has received the great compliment of election to the Marlborough club, his proposer having been the Prince of Wales.

EX-KING MILAN is a resident of Paris, having taken a house on the avenue of the Bois de Boulogne. He is very unpopular in Paris society.

THE new archbishop of York, Dr. Magee, formerly bishop of Petersborough, is the first Irishman who has ever become primate of England.

WINDTHORST, the leader of the Center party in the German reichstag, is a veritable Gladstone. He celebrated his eightieth birthday two weeks ago.

SIGNOR CRISPI had not been out of office a week before he returned to his old profession, the law, and held a brief for the General Steam Navigation Co.

CHARLES BRADLAUGH, M. P., was a tailor's shop-walker when he was a young man and first came into notice as a member of a country debating class.

THE sultan lives in constant dread of assassination. He never leaves the grounds of his palace except to go once a week to a neighboring mosque.

EX-QUEEN ISABELLA is extremely fond of dress. She is a blonde and has a liking for bright colors. One of her redeeming features is her great generosity.

SOME HANDSOME INCOMES.

CARDINAL SIMOR, the primate of Hungary, enjoys a revenue of $400,000 a year.

THE revenues of the archbishop of Prague amount each year to the sum of $350,000.

THE archbishop of Erlau, in Hungary, has a yearly revenue which amounts to about $275,000.

THE prince bishop, of Cracow, in Austrian Galicia, receives in revenues each year the sum of $260,000.

THE archbishop of Olmutz, a Moravian city, receives revenues which amount to nearly $250,000 a year.

THE prince bishop of Salzburg, capital of the duchy of the same name in Austria, has a revenue of $175,000 per annum.

THE bishop of Lintz, which is the capital of upper Austria, draws from his revenues each year a sum equal to about $125,000.

HERR KRUPP, owner of the great gun factories, has an estimated income of 6,000,000 marks ($1,500,000), and is called the richest man in Prussia. Baron Rothschild comes next.

ONE of New York's richest women in real estate is Miss Collender, who has an income of $60,000 a year. She is about thirty-five years old, is tall, slender and pretty, and possesses a fine voice.

LORD TAVISTOCK, the successor to the titles and estates of the late duke of Bedford, is said to be excessively purse proud. As he has an income of $1,500,000 a year, it can't be denied he has a good deal to be proud of.

MR. JOHN NOBLE, the English millionaire varnish manufacturer, provided in his will for an annual income to his son, Mr. Wilson Noble, the present member of parliament for Hastings, with the proviso that £2,000 a year shall at once be struck off if he should fail to be reelected.
