A Timely Warning.

Ella Cook in Iowa Homestead.

That which we read goes farther than anything else toward forming our character. Parents, see that good and pure reading is brought into the home as a model for your children. How many there are who have no reading. How I sympathize with them. Ah! even as the body thirsts for food, the soul hungers for nourishment. See that it is fed, for the mind as well as the body can not live on nothing. We must be continually moving either forward or backward. There are so many girls who start on the downward path without any realization of what they are going to. They know nothing of the shame and misery their path of sin will lead them to. Ah! beware, there are pitfalls on every hand—dark, deep, yawning pitfalls ready to swallow you, body and soul. But some of you say, "I will never come to that." That is what they all think. It is only a game of cards to pass away the time, a kiss—I see some of you smile—but lips should be pure and kisses for the husband only, and you lose a certain degree of modesty with every kiss. Hence, you are on the downward path, going slow but sure.

Then there are the girls who take a glass of—I will not say what—out of a bottle with the boys. I know of some just such cases as I have written about and should you tell them what they are going to they would laugh at you and tell you they were capable of taking care of themselves. These are some of the smaller snares.

We're After You.

The greatest of western papers, the Weekly State Journal, is determined to double its circulation this fall. To do this the paper has been enlarged to twelve pages every week, new departments added, and every column freshened and heightened by crisp and original ideas. The Journal is the true and able exponent of western enterprise and thought. It has grown apace with the progress of our commonwealth and stands to-day at the head of western newspapers, equalled by few and excelled by none.

This will be an exceptional fall and winter for reading. Every man who thinks for himself and wants his boys and girls to do the same, should have the Weekly Journal in his family. Write for a sample. You need only to see the paper to appreciate it. Send twenty-five cents for a three months' trial subscription. You will then become a regular reader. Eighty-five per cent of trial subscribers stick. That's a good record. Published at the state capitol the Journal is more in touch with the great masses of the people, and the questions that agitate the hour, than any of its competitors. Don't forget to send for a sample paper. We want you to see it. The paper itself will do the rest. One dollar per year. Address, Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

$3000 A YEAR! I undertake to briefly teach any thirty intelligent persons of either sex, who can read and write, and who, after instruction, will work industriously, how to earn Three Thousand Dollars a year in their own localities, wherever they live. I will also furnish the situation or employment, at which you can earn that amount. This is a business by itself, and is not a lottery or gift enterprise. Easily and quickly learned. I desire but one worker from each district or county. I have already taught and provided with employment a number who are now making over $5000 a year each. It is NEW and STRICTLY HONORABLE. Address at once, E. C. ALLEN, Box 420, Augusta, Maine.

Best Line to the East.

The Burlington Route B. & M. R. R. is running elegantly equipped per sleeping trains without change from Newcastle, Wyoming and Crawford, Nebraska, direct to Lincoln, Nebraska, making connection at that point with their own through trains for Denver, Cheyenne, and all points west, and for Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Omaha, Peoria, Chicago, and all points east.

Remember this is the only line by which you can take sleeping car from Crawford in the evening arriving in Lincoln and Omaha the next afternoon, and in Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis the following morning.

For further information and tickets apply to nearest agent of Burlington Route B. & M. R. R.

For the Campaign.
