Mrs. Mary Hancock accompanied Joudge and Mrs. C. J. Malone, of O'Neill to Norfolk Saturday, where they visited until Sunday evening.

Miss Esther Davis, who with a party of friends toured the western states, returned home Friday morning. Miss Davis states that they were in Wyoming, Montana, Colorado, Yellowstone Park, and on through Oregon and Washington to the coast. She reports a wonderful trip of more than 6,000 miles without a mishap. Miss Ruth Killinger, also of Inman, was one of the party. She is in Gordon, Nebr., with her sister, Mrs. John Borders, but will be home soon.

D. J. King and sons, L. L. King and wife and Roy L. King and wife, all of White River, S. D., were here over the week-end visiting Mr. Kings sister, Mrs. B. H. Clute and Mr. Clute and Rev. Miss Mertie E. Clute.

The group meeting was held at the Inman Methodist church Sunday evening. A large delegation from the churches of O'Neill and Page were present and a nice service was carried out. Special musical numbers by the young people of the churches and a reading by Miss Farnsworth, of Page, were enjoyed. The address of the evening was delivered by Edgar Farley, of Page.

The Simonson's held a family reunion picnic at the O'Donnell lake south of Inman last Sunday. There were seven cars in all.
