

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Made from
Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly

HOMER.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Chas Claypool and wife are visiting Mrs Claypool's father, T C Clapp. Ramus Fredrickson will occupy the Joe Johns house on Schoolhouse avenue. John Rockwell and wife, of Sioux City, were Homer visitors this week. Mrs Waander and son Homer, of Sioux City, were over and took in Queen Esther.

Joe Johns has moved to the Joe Smith farm, vacated by Nelson Smith, who has moved to his mother's farm.

Jamie Spencer was seen on our streets Saturday. He owns a ranch in Colorado and says it is a fine country.

Geo J Boucher John H Ream and Kide Ream of Dakota City, took in the Durco hog sale at Geo Blessing's Tuesday.

One of the things we heard on the street a few days ago was that there were twenty-five persons interested in trying to get a license to run a saloon here the coming year. Is it because Homer is such a good town or because they think there is lots of that kind of trade here.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday there were sales. At Fredrickson's sale every thing brought good prices and there was a lively time—while the sheriff was not looking. Geo Blessing's sale drew a big crowd and prices were good. At Beckland's there was a good crowd and fair prices.

Visitors to Homer who we saw at Queen Esther were: Mrs Mary McBeath, Neva, Wm, and Donald Best, Mame and Lillian Ream, Dr Will Ream and wife, Mrs Henry Ream, Mrs Alice Sides, the Misses Heikes, Mrs Dr Stidworthy and daughter Ada, Lizzie VandeZedde, Judge Emers and many others we did not know.

Say, I think we will sure have a dry town next year for we now have a prohibition town board and as two of those remain we must look out that one, at least, of the new board will stand by them, burrah for another year or no saloon (I almost did say no liquor) but I take that back. But with our home paper to advocate the right and a right board, I think we will do the right thing.

Perhaps the best thing that was ever in Homer by Amateurs was Queen Esther. It would hardly be fair to pick out any one and say he did the best, for they all did well. It goes without saying that Esther, the beautiful Queen, Mrs M A Bancroft, was the center around which all the other stars revolved. The costuming was much better than is usual in home entertainments and all together it was a success.

Queen Esther.

The beautiful five-act Oratorio, Queen Esther, given by the Homer Choral Union—at Homer last Thursday and Friday evenings—it is needless to say was a decided success.

Space will not permit a mention of each character, sufficient to say that the solo work from the queen to the herald was fine, as was also the Persian and Jewish choruses.

Much credit is due Mr M A Bancroft, musical director, also Miss Rose Smith, accompanist. Homer may well feel proud of her Choral Union.
