MARK H. WARNER,

Editor & Proprietor

—The Superior Enterprise fluttered and died, gentle as a dove. Its nice to be an editor in Neb., and so easy too.—Bloomington Guard.

Yes, nice to be an editor, and then to think of such an enterprise, fluttering and dying, gentle as a dove, why it ought to call forth moans from a howling wilderness. What can compare? So says the editor.

—A subscriber to a Southwestern newspaper died recently, leaving four years subscription unpaid. The editor appeared at the grave and deposited in the coffin a palm leaf fan, a linen coat and a thermometer.—Ex

What a charitable act!

—We learn indirectly that there was a wedding up on Farmers Creek, a week ago last Sunday. No cards, no cake, no cigars.

—Uncle Sam flourishes on the corner.

—L. Baum still holds forth at his old stand.

—John G. Potter keeps a good stock of groceries.

—Calvert & Smith have a large supply of furniture on hand.

—Mitchel and Morhart keep the largest Hardware Store in the Valley.

—At Charley Potters is the place to have your prescriptions filled correctly.

—Dr. Sherer keeps the Drug Store on the corner well supplied with every thing in the drug line.

—Monday night was the coldest night we have had this winter, but Tuesday morning the sun came out as bright as ever.

We are very happy to state that the Red Cloud Chief has been imposed upon by some reliable person. Sheriff Downer is very lively for a corpse, and the idea of his allowing anyone to get near enough to him to bury an ax in his breast and he with a cocked revolver in his hand is rather "thin." When he is found in that condition, several coffins will be needed.—Nuckolls Co. Inter Ocean.

—Last Monday Mr. Geo. Taylor had the misfortune while crossing the River to have the bridge give way beneath him, and let the wheels of his wagon through, it happened to be near a bent so that the wagon did not go entirely through otherwise it would have drawn the team through also.

—All who attended the show given by J. S. Shaffer on Monday night as far as we can learn were well satisfied. The tricks were well done although some were old. Punch and Judy played their parts well. The Scopticon views were new and good. One picture in particular caused all the little boys to exclaim, Oh look there! After the performance concluded some of the young people enjoyed themselves for a short time in tripping the light fantastic toe.

—We are sorry to learn that Mr. Lucore of this precinct living about seven miles from town, had the misfortune of losing his house and all the furniture by fire a few days ago. He was absent from home at the time of the fire, and his wife was unable to save any thing.

—Two young men from Guide Rock attended a party at Mr Stratton's the other night and as it was somewhat cold, one had not the pluck to leave his girl, consequently had to stay all night. The other after leaving, his beloved bunch of sweetness at her home, faced the cruel storm with a brave heart, but found ere he arrived at home that one of his orienals was badly frozen. A lady friend recommended that if he would apply a little oil from a guinea pigs tale to the afflicted member it would have a soothing influence.

—Yesterday afternoon was so pleasant that we cannot find word that will convey an idea of how pleasant the weather was. A very little of the "beautiful snow" that so many tell about was scattered over the ground, but wherever old Sol's countenance beamed upon it, it soon disappeared from view.

—The surest sign that young men are in love that we know of, is when they come to the printing office and clip loving lines of poetry from the exchanges to give to their girls.

—We understand that after a very interesting series of meetings in Glenwood Precinct, the good people have concluded to take a rest

—Our friend A. G. Owen of Guide Rock has purchased the Drug Store at that place, he has also a hardware store in connection, so that he is now prepared to furnish his customers with any thing from a meal of victuals to a threshing machine.

—If you want a first class cigar go to J. G. Potter's. The reason we know is, we tried 'em.

—How intimately connected are poetry, love and youth, so intimately that it is difficult to conceive of them separately. Youth is the season of love, "the holyday of passion." Self-ishness, avarice and lust have not yet perverted the affections. Maidenhood is innocent, lovely and trustful, and downy man is full of hope, strength and courage. Old and confirmed bachelors, though we be, nothing delights us more than the contemplation of that beautiful interchange of emotion, that confiding, trustful reliance, that courageous, supporting strength, the mutual love, the tender caresses, the warm embraces, the shy sweet meeting of the lips when the souls flow together. We have passed it indeed, but we have not grown skeptical or cold. Our heart still beats warmly, and when we behold the youth of this village pairing as the youth has paired since the morning stars sang together,' when we behold the beauty of maiden hood resting trustfully and confidingly in the embrace of moustached manhood, we cannot restrain the ejaculation,' God bless them." To the young swains, we would say, though nature denied you the poetic faculty, and education has not taught you the art of making verses, do not despair. The true expression of love is poetry, and in this you are deficient. But we who have no love, have poetry and to spare. Our exchanges are full of it. Our waste paper basket is running over with effusions of victims of the soft infection. Young men you are welcome Come and select your poetry. We feel more than remunerated in contemplating the sweet and tender glances the loving caresses, and warm embraces which constitute the divine passion which our age denies us.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Robert Marrow, late of Webster county deceased.

H. S. KALEY, Administrator.

Red Cloud, Neb., Jan. 8th, 1876.

Frank Leslie at his Mammoth Publishing House, 537 Pearl Street, New York, issues seventeen beautifully illustrated newspapers and magazines. Mr. Leslie was the first in the United States to undertake the publication of a weekly illustrated newspaper, and to him belongs the honor of being the publisher of "The Oldest Illustrated Newspaper in America." The person who secures the agency for these publications in this vicinity, and will give our citizens an opportunity of inspecting the several issues and copies of the eight magnificent chromos the choice from which is given with a subscription to either of the illustrated weeklies, will have a handsome and profitable business. These papers are well known, and sell readily for from 10 to 15 cents on news stands, and are now first offered through agents to annual subscribers, with available chromo which, to all lovers of art, is alone worth more than the subscription price. An annual subscriber to the Illustrated Newspaper recieves during the year over 832 newspaper pages. Folded to the size of a large octavo book, the subscriber would have 3,223 pages equal to seven octavo books of ordinary size, 460 pages each and one half of these pages would contain fine engravings, and for the centennial year will make the most accurate and valuable illustrated History of the National Jubilee published. We advise our readers, after they have subscribed for our paper to secure one of Frank Leslie's illustrated periodicals, and with it the beautiful chromo.

ST. NICHOLAS

For 1876

After two years of prosperity, unexampled in the annals of juvenile literature, during which ST. NICHOLAS has consolidated with itself all its strongest competitors, the publishers find themselves in a position to promise that the Third Volume, beginning with the number for November last, shall, in its union of attractions for Girls and Boys, surpass even the preceding volumes. In addition to contributions from the

FIRST WRITERS OF AMERICA,

there will be Stories, Poems, and Sketches, by some of the Most Prominent English Authors. Arrangements have been made for a very interesting series of papers on

WINDSOR CASTLE,

By Mrs. OLIPHANT,

Treating of its History and the Child-Life of Successive Royal Generations.

CHRISTINA G. ROSSETTI

Will contribute to the new volume.

LOUISA M. ALCOTT

Will write "Marjorie's Birthday Gifts, and other short stories.

Some articles on "Astronomy for Young People" have been promised by the popular English Astronomer,

RICHARD PROCTOR

There will be a continued story of "Life in Iceland" by

BAYARD TAYLOR.

In the November Number, the opening of the new volume, was begun an

AMERICAN SERIAL STORY,

"THE BOY EMIGRANTS."

By NOAH BROOKS,

Giving the adventures of a party of boys in The California Gold Mines, in the early days of the Gold Fever.

J. T. TROWBRIDGE,

Author of the "Jack Hazard" stories, will contribute some highly interesting sketches of adventure in "Box Cove."

TALKS WITH GIRLS

By leading authors, will be a leading feature of the new volume. Especial attention will also be given to

INCIDENTS OF AMERICAN HISTORY.

With spirited pictorial illustrations.

The various departments, Jack-in-the-Pulpit, The Riddle Box, Letter Box, and the page for Very Little Folks, are to be more attractive than ever. The French, Latin, and German stories, for translation, which have proved so popular, will be frequent in the new volume. Some of the finest works of The Greatest Painters of the Century have been engraved expressly for ST. NICHOLAS, and the first artists of the day will contribute fresh and original drawings for this Fine Art Magazine For The Young. Definite announcements of many interesting and novel features were made in the December number. ST. NICHOLAS will continue under the successful editorship of

MARY MAPES DODGE,

And no efforts will be spared by editor and publishers to maintain and increase the attractions and value of the magazine.

Subscription Price, $3.00 a year; Single Numbers, 25 cents; Bound Volumes, $4.00 each.

These volumes begin with November. The two now ready for 1874 and 1875 are elegantly bound in red and gold, and form the Handsomest Gift-Books for Children Ever Issued. We will send the magazine one year beginning November, 1875, and either of the volumes bound as above, post-paid, for $7.00, or a subscription one year, and the two volumes for $10.00. All newsdealers and booksellers will receive subscriptions and supply volumes at the above rates.

THE MOST NEWS For the Least Money!

THE CHICAGO

POST & MAIL

Now in its eleventh year, claims the patronage of the public on the broad ground that it is emphatically,

The People's Paper!

The prices of subscription of both Daily and Weekly are made so low as to bring the papers within the means of every man who can afford to take any kind of a newspaper, and the news of the day of minor importance is so condensed as to embrace events from all points accessable by telegraph or mail. Of all important happenings, local or general, the paper will contain full and graphic accounts.

Republican in Politics,

as heretofore, the Post and Mail promises to give its best efforts to the support of its party in the coming Presidential Campaign, as well as in minor political points as come to, and to labor for the

GREATEST GOOD TO THE GREATEST NUMBER.

The Daily Post and Mail is, for its size, the Cheapest Newspaper in the West, and has for years been prominent as the leading exponent of Cheap Journalism, which means to give the people the news of the day at the lowest possible figure. The paper is furnished to subscribers by mail, postage prepaid, as follows:

Daily, per annum	$6.80	Daily, 3 months	$1.70
" six months	3.40	" 1 month	60

Making its Cost only Two cents a Day! Or less than Half the Cost of other Dailies.

ITS MARKET REPORT

Which are carefully prepared by experienced men, at a large expense, and cover with the utmost accuracy, the Markets of Chicago. General and special Telegrams from the leading cities of this and foreign countries still further enhance the value of this particular department of the paper. Business men throughout the country can rely on the market quotations of the Post and Mail as being accurate and comprehensive.

Published every afternoon, the paper furnishes the public of the Northwest with its News and Market Reports at least, of the morning papers, a gain in the time and a saving in money which business men in the country can appreciate.

Ten Hours in Advance

In addition to this special feature, the Post and Mail gives the best of Special Telegrams Conciseness for Business Men, the Associated Press Dispatches, Crisp Correspondence, and General and Local News of all kinds.

In all matters that tend to make a sharp, spicy and enterprising daily newspaper, the Daily Post and Mail will not be found wanting.

Following the plan pursued by the Daily,

THE WEEKLY

Post and Mail

Has been reduced in price, and a subscription for one year now costs only
