Mrs. Alice Ashmore.

H. Stuardevent.

—Don't look haggard and rusty, and feel like you wanted to start for the Black Hills to-morrow, but go and get Burrel to give you a clean shave. Try it, and see if you don't feel better, and your future brighten.

—We attended a dance at the residence of Mr. H. Holdridge, on Walnut Creek, last Friday evening. Every one present seemed to enjoy themselves and that supper was perfectly grand.

—We met our friend, Dr. Razee of Riverton, last Saturday, behind his counter attending to his customers as usual.

—Fred. Allen has started a blacksmith and repair shop on the Little Blue, near R. K. Daily's. Give him a call.

—All those who wish to secure bargains in Clothing Dry Goods, Hats, Caps and General Merchandise, had better call at L. Baum's store as he intends closing out his stock preparatory to leaving for the BLACK HILLS.

—The people of Riverton are to have a flax mill, if we are correctly informed. There seems to be a lack of enterprise with our people here. We have a steam engine lying idle for want of enterprise to put it to some use. Mr. Potter, the proprietor of the engine, thinks it would be feasible and profitable to use it with the proper machinery to start a paper mill. However that may be, the fact of its lying idle does not speak well for the village.

—The confinement of a cat does not seem of much importance. But when you are sleeping four in a bed and Pussy in that interesting condition takes up her abode with you, the question of how many more the bed will comfortably contain becomes one of some moment. We don't like to tell names.

WANTED.—500 Skunks and 500 Pole Cat skins at L. Baum's store, for which he will pay the highest market prices.

—Our Assessor lost that little "tin box" the other day, and after looking Uncle Sam's store over and over, came to the conclusion that a cigar runner had traded boxes with him. The boys want to look out about playing jokes on Ed., or somebody will get hurt.

—The beautiful snow is fast leaving us.

—We have for sale at this office, an order for one No. 9, Silver plated Wilson Shuttle Sewing Machine, with hard (piano) varnish, polished cabinet work, valued at $85, which we will sell for $45, and the purchaser pay the freight on machine from the place of shipment, or for $50 and we pay freight. 29td

—We wish our ladies would live up to the fashion. All the eastern papers are waxing loud in their admiration of the Pull back costume. We want to look at it a little while, as well as those Eastern fellows.

—Why don't our store-keepers buy some striped stockings? It is said that the ladies of the East who wear them are less prudish than they used to be, or rather more careful of soiling their skirts. We never see anything in this western country.

—Vulnitudenous are the demonstrations of the affected human heart. Dashing with lightning rate the cavalier appears before his dulcina. Sparkling with diamonds the eastern Pasha dazzles the senses of Favorita. How contrasting the simple way of our Nebraska Prairie Boy, who, last Sunday, arrayed in best store duds, wended his way to his beloved, parking his grub in a neatly tied up cotton handkerchief.

—The Red Cloud Singing School meets at the school house in Red Cloud every Saturday and Monday evenings. Instruction is given by Prof. F. M. Snow. The juvenile class meets at 6:30 p. m., and the adult class at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend, especially the children of Red Cloud.

V. D. Vaughn, plaintiff vs. E. J. Vaughn, Defendant. District Court, 5th District, in and for Webster Co., Nebraska:

—David Hoffhower gave us a fine cigar last Tuesday, remarking as he did it that last Monday was the first time he was ever called "dad." It is a fine boy and weighs 8½ lbs.

—All who want their clocks repaired, will do well to leave them at the La Clede House.

—O. L. Battles & Son have arrived in town with a large stock of farming implements.

—Triplett & Philips of St. Joe, stopped at the Valley House for two days this week. They are jolly boys, and report business lively.

—A difficulty occurred in the Post Office last Wednesday night between Rufus Mirsch and a fellow who has been hanging around the stores of the village during the past winter. The affair was amicably suited by each calling the other the hardest names in their respective vocabularies. The bystanders, however, were not invited to participate, nor was anything said about drinks.

—We have been informed that Frank Potter, the brother of the druggist had a narrow escape from death by poison, last Saturday evening. It seems that Frank was testing the strength of some drugs, and took too strong a dose. Mr. Potter's death would have been a severe loss to the town, as he is a young man of remarkable talent and industry.

—Judge Warner and Chas. Potter will please except our thanks for the numerous "set em ups" to those fine cigars.

—J. S. Kelley, who lives on the other side of the river, and has been sick with consumption for several years, died last Wednesday morning.

—We should enjoy being with 'boss' just now, back in Michigan eating apples and drinking cider. The old man offered to drink an extra glass for us. But that is one of the few things no man can do for another with any degree of satisfaction.

LINCOLN & DENVER R. R.
Meeting of Stockholders.

LINCOLN Feb. 26, 1876.

In pursuance of a notice heretofore given in the Lincoln Journal, the subscribers to the capital stock of the Lincoln, Beatrice and Republican Valley Railroad Company met at the office of T. P. Kennard, in Lincoln, on this 25th day of February, 1876 for the purpose of electing directors of said company. W. W. Wilson being appointed chairman, and T. P. Kennard secretary, the following action was had:

Owing to the fact of the absence of the subscribers to the capital stock from Saline county, occurring through a mis-understanding of the date of meeting it was thought best to adjourn said meeting till the 15th day of March 1876. For the purpose of testing the views of those present upon the question of directors, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the subscribers to the capital stock of the Lincoln, Beatrice and Republican Valley Railroad Company, are in favor of the following named persons as directors, they having consented to act in said capacity: Silas Garber, of Webster county; D. W. Montgomery, of Nuckolls; E. S. Past, of Thayer, Tobias Castor, of Saline, Samuel G Owen, T. P. Kennard, J. W. Hartly and W. W. Wilson, of Lancaster.

After which the meeting adjourned to the 15th day of March, 1876.

W. W. Wilson, Pres.
