Keeping up Appearances.

A member of the sanitary police force came across a boy the other day who was wheeling home a load of oyster cans and bottles, and curious to know what use the lad could put them to, he made a direct inquiry.

"Going to throw them over into our back yard," replied the boy. "I took two loads home yesterday."

"But what do you use 'em for?"

"Its a trick of the family," grinned the boy.

"How trick?"

"I'd just as lief tell," continued the boy, as he spit on his hands to resume his hold of the barrow. "We're going to have some relashuns come in from the country. We may not have much to eat, but if they see these cans and bottles and boxes they'll think we've had isters, champagne, figs and nuts till we've got tired of 'em and are living on bread and taters for a healthy change!"

The officer scratched his ear like a man who had received a new idea.—Detroit Free Press.

The Supply of Great Men.

"It is a mistake," says a popular lecturer, "to declare that there are no more great men. There are great men all around us; they never were as abundant in the world as they are now, but information is so general the masses do not appreciate them."

There is a world of modest comfort for humanity in the remark. There are great men to every great opportunity, but only one man can take hold of it. Huge intellects are plenty as blackberries, only there are so many of them that an ungrateful world no longer appreciates them. For that reason, warriors, poets, and sages, as mighty as any whose names gild the page of history, must waste their lives in the humble walks of life.

It is cruel, nevertheless it is comforting too, to think that in these times, when people know so much, a Talleyrand may be embodied in a corner-grocery politician. To think that, only for lack of opportunity, George Francis Train might be George Washington, and have his white hat put up for a show after he was dead! Shakspeare, with his clairvoyant insight! and his boundless knowledge of human nature has not yet left the earth desolate, but there are so many Shakspeares now that the only chance left to display his vast knowledge of human nature is to be an insurance agent. Napoleon sells cough medicine and catarrh snuff, Demosthenes is a circus man, with only an admiring chum to raise his hands at long intervals and exclaim, "What a head he has on him!"

John Milton writes baking-powder advertisements, and he who, when great men were scarcer, might have been Cicero, now, alas, preaches sermons on eternal punishment. King David is a Sunday-school superintendent, Solomon is a member of Congress, and Oliver Cromwell is a healing medium.—Cincinnati Commercial.

The Most Precious of Gifts.

Health is undeniably a more precious gift than riches, honor or power. Who would exchange it for these, the chief objects of human ambition? It is obviously the part of wisdom to employ means for the preservation of health and the prolongation of life which time and experience have proved to be reliable. Many of the dangers by which health is threatened may be nullified by the use of that most irresistible of correctives and tonics, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, by increasing vital power and rendering the physical functions regular and active, keeps the system in good working order and protects it against disease. For constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, kidney and rheumatic ailments it is invaluable, and it affords a sure defense against malarial fevers, besides removing every trace of such disease from the system. Half a wineglassful taken before meals improves the appetite and insures complete digestion and assimilation.

There is no earthly boon more precious than good health, and it behooves its possessor to endeavor to retain it. If you are assailed with such provoking ills as sick headaches, torpid liver, sour stomach and a general feeling of weariness and disgust, don't go and commit suicide but take Ellert's Daylight Liver Pills and be cured.

Distempers, Coughs, Colds, Fevers and most of the diseases which Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs and Poultry are subject to are readily overcome and cured by using Uncle Sam's Condition Powder according to the plain directions. Sold by all druggists.

Consumption Cured.—An old physician retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility, and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe with full directions for preparing and using in German, French and English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper.

N. S. TAYLOR:

DEAR SIR:—I came very near being a victim of that terrible disease, consumption, and have no doubt but what I should have been confined to the house if I had not been for your wonderful medicine. The Cough Syrup I was taken with consumption of the lungs, and a terrible cough with great difficulty in breathing, and at night it was almost impossible for me to breathe. I went to my doctor, he said I must have help at once, and gave me a prescription. But before I got the prescription filled, I was told to get your medicine, which I did, and I felt the effect after taking one dose, and three bottles cured me of the worst cough I ever had with my lungs. I am thankful that I never got the prescription filled. I am confident that those who use your medicine will find—as I have—a wonderful preparation, and will have reason to rejoice.

Yours, &c., J. C. McCARTHY,
514 27th Street, Chicago.

An Open Letter. It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 30, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling tube" makers (more d—n their grabbers) would be glad if they could outdatum a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely clogged. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes" and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for curb nostrums. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package, and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly, S. D. KEMICK.

Ladies, Delicate and Feeble.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity, driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special causes of periodical pain are permanently removed. Will you heed this? See "Truths."

Price $2.50 per 3 bottles. J. S. Booth, Waco, Texas. Address J. P. Dromgoole & Co., Louisville, Ky., or L. H. Bush, Des Moines.

A FRAUD AND A SWINDLE.—A party by the name of Brown is putting on the trade a fraudulent ringer and rings on the credit of the Brown ringer and rings as made by us. The ringer is made of cast iron and breaks at the jaws, and is appearance is like ours, but the ring is entirely different, being a ROUND ring, both ends being of even length and must close in the nose, while ours is an ELLIPTICAL shape (one point being longer than the other) and cannot close only on the outside of the nose. The ringer he is making is in direct violation of law and punishable under the statutes. The Brown Elliptical ring, as made by us, is the only SINGLE ring made that closes on the OUTSIDE OF NOSE. Every ringer is marked "Patented September 8th, 1874," and every box of rings, "Patented Jan. 5th, 1875. Manufactured by Chambers, Bering & Quinlan, Decatur, Ill." A Woman's Name.

Gulnare means the blossom of the pomegranate. Nearly all female names signify birds, flowers, scents, or other ornaments or luxuries which abound in their hyperbolical poetry. During these modern times deaf have been caught from the Orient, and the same significance is given to the name English Female Bitters. It implies a restoration to health, a radical cure of all those painful derangements and irregularities that afflict the female sex. It implies quick and powerful action over female troubles. It implies regulating and restoring old or young females to their natural condition, and no lady should fail to use them.

THE ONLY ORIGINAL BIRD CALL AND PRAIRIE WHISTLE!

Manufactured under the Patent Granted to Mr. SAMUEL McCLAIN, Feb. 5, 1878.

THE ONLY GENUINE AND GOOD TUNE INSTRUMENT.

This is one of the most amusing and useful articles brought to light the present year. It is the first time that a music has been the leading member of an entertainment. Heard in the European woods, imitating the greatest songsters, and amusement wherever seen. The Bird and Prairie Whistle is a little instrument which is entirely controlled by the mouth, where to use it. It being impossible for the closest observer to detect the difference between the real and the imitation. It is composed of a double tongue, one of which is made of fine tempered steel, which vibrates against the vibratory tissue in sound producing. Actually, so to the ear is also the Mockingbird or robin. The whole instrument being only about two inches in length, and can be carried in the pocket. Its tone is loud, and can be heard for a mile. It
