The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Sherwood's on Thursday next at 3 p. m.

Dr. L. D. Denney, of Keokuk Iowa, has associated with Dr. Moserna in the practice of medicine

Joe. Garber was elected one of the school board last Monday. R. R. Sherer was re-elected.

A Farmers Alliance is soon to be organized in Mr. C. C. Coon's neighborhood, across the river.

A splendid April shower last Tuesday that lasted nearly all day has started the grass to growing and the trees to budding.

Dr. Damerell has located in the practice of medicine at this place, with an office over Sherwood's store. See card in another column.

Mr. M. S. Ballard manufactures a nice summer drink which he calls Vegetable Mead. We have sampled it and pronounce it firstrate.

M. S. Ballard proposes to sprinkle the streets of Red Cloud and keep the dust down the present summer. We'll bet two to one on the dust.

We intend to publish the commissioner's report of the investigation in full but could not get hold of the copy in time for it to appear this week.

Last Monday there was a man in town who wanted to shoot some other man, but he did not do it. Thus was the CHIEF deprived of a first-class item.

But very little interest was taken in the village election last Tuesday. The rain seemed to have the effect of dampening the ardor of the candidates as well as the voters.

We never saw a finer rain in Nebraska than that of last Tuesday. It came straight down and was unaccompanied by wind, a circumstance unusual in this country.

A boy about 15 years old died suddenly at Blair, a few days ago from swallowing tobacco juice.—[Franklin Echo.

We've known full grown men to die from swallowing corn juice.

The proprietors of the Webster County Bank have had the interior of the Bank papered and fixed up in first-class style, and the appearance has been improved mightily.

J. L. Miller has just received a large invoice of trunks and valises which may be seen at his harness shop. Call and examine goods and get prices when you want anything in that line.

After all their talk about voting, the ladies of Red Cloud failed to turn out to the school meeting last Monday. We don't think they want to vote half as bad as they would have the men believe.

The notorious outlaw, Jesse James, was shot and killed by a man he trusted, in St. Joe, Mo., last Monday. We have not space to give the particulars of the affair this week, but we guess Jesse is dead for certain this time.

Gen. John M. Thayer delivered his lecture, "Genius; its use and abuse," to a full house at the M. E. Church last Thursday evening. The General is a good talker and handled the subject to the satisfaction of his hearers.

An exchange says that old Dan Rice is to travel with Robinson's circus the present summer as assistant manager, at a salary of $1,000 a week. $1,000 a week is a pretty good salary for an assisstant manager who has been dead a number of years.

J. Wilkes Moore, formerly of Superior, has started a paper in Salem, Kansas. It is called the Jewell Co., Chronicle. The place that now knows Mr. J. Wilkes Moore will shortly know him no more forever, for he is an inveterate skipper.

The ladies aid society will meet at the residence of Mrs. William Parkes, Friday afternoon. There is no work to be done, the business of the meeting will be reports of Sec. and Treas., and re-organization. All of the members who do not want to be elected to office will do well to be present.

A gentleman (?) from the rural districts absorbed so much corn juice last Sunday that he became a nuisance and was accordingly locked up in the cooler to sober off, after which he was induced to contribute fifteen dollars and sixty-five cents to the school fund.

P. S. He got drunk again the next day.

A State Normal Institute of ten weeks duration will commence at Peru April 5th, and the course will comprise outline reviews of the branches required in county and state certificates, with drill exercises in the science, art and most approved methods of teaching. We have catalogues and circulars to distribute.

Work has commenced in earnest on the B. & M. improvements at this place. A large force of men are to work on the new round house, while a force of carpenters are busily engaged framing timbers for the new depot. Long trains of cars laden with rock, ties and lumber for the work are constantly arriving, and the boom may be considered to have fairly begun.

The Plattsmauth Journal says: "Buffalo Bill owns about $300,000 worth of cattle in Texas, and is a very wealthy man, and that he and his mother have brought suit for an estate in New York valued at $1,000,000." The Journal is way off. Buffalo Bill owns no cattle in Texas and is worth less than $100,000. He, in partnership with Maj. Frank North, formerly of Plattsmouth, own a large herd of cattle and a good ranch near North Platte. Buffalo Bill's mother died ten or twelve years ago, and he is not engaged in a law suit to recover an estate in New York.

From South of the River.

ED. CHIEF:—Failing to see anything in your paper from this part of the county, I thought I would write you a few items.

The farmers in this vicinity are all busy with their spring work.

Mr. Milligan, the carpenter, will soon be onto his new house.

Some fellow started a fire on the river bottom northeast of us, and it consumed a part of Mr. Martin's hay.

Mr. Largent is building a new house of Nebraska brick.

Mr. C. C. Coon is studying the Farmers Alliance question, don't known what it will amount to. C. No.

This is the way an editor in Storm Lake, Iowa, became a tramp. He visited a fine herd of short-horns, and wrote an account of his visit. That evening the ladies of the place gave a concert, he wrote that up too. But the foreman was crossyeyed, and the paper read thus: "The concert given last night by sixteen of Storm Lake's most beautiful and intoxicating young ladies was highly appreciated. They were elegantly dressed, sang in charming manner and the audience presented them the finest short-horns in the country. A few of them are of a rich brown color, but the majority are spotted brown and white. Several of the heifers were thoroughbred, nightlimed animals, and promise to prove good property.

Educational Department.

Communications for this column should be addressed to Charles W. Springer, County Superintendent. A correspondence is invited from any one on educational topics.

Miss Vina Stoddard expects to teach in Dist. No. 39 this summer.

Eleven applicants for certificates presented themselves at Blue Hill last Saturday.

The scholars from Miss Lynn's and Mr. McKeen's took old good work in the examination last Saturday.

Miss Aimee Rich expects to teach in Dist. No. 32, this summer. She passed a creditable examination.

R. R. Sherer and Joseph Garber were elected trustees of school Dist. No. 2, at the meeting last Monday.

Mrs. Springer's school is prospering finely now. Three young ladies are now advancing rapidly in their studies, and several more pupils are enrolled this week. The school is now in better condition than ever.

The school at Blue Hill closed last Friday. The term has been seven months in length, and taught by Miss Myra E. Lynn. Many of the citizens of the town came in Friday afternoon including members of the school board. The pupils passed a very creditable examination in all their studies and some of the recitations were excellent. The director, Mr. Newcomer addressed the school, and in behalf of the district stated its appreciation of the good work done by the teacher and scholars during the term. Miss Lynn left Saturday morning for her home in the east. She has a host of friends, many of whom will be glad to see her return.

The State Teachers' Association was a decided success. A very large number of teachers was present and the exercises were very interesting. We copy the following from Prof. Hubbell's very racy paper:

One way to help a teacher is to speak a good word for him. Many appear to rejoice in the failure of a teacher. He works hard to succeed; say a good word for him.

In the higher grades, when study must be done at home, parents can help the teacher by entering into sympathy with the plan of study. Where dancing parties and kindred amusements occupy evenings which should be given to study, there will not be much prayers. Another way to help the teacher is to have an oversight of children's reading. Boys who read dime novels and the Police Gazette will not do much solid work studying. Parents can co-operate by seeing that the teacher has fair wages for his work.

Prof. A. L. Funk of Red Cloud is on the executive committee. Why will not the citizens of Red Cloud second an invitation to have the Association with us next year?

When physicians have made use of a preparation for years in their private practice with certain success, it is a duty they owe to mankind to put such remedies within reach of all, and this is done by "cogs right,"—such is the case with Dr. Sherman's PRICKLY ASH BITTERS, and they have proved to be a blessing to mankind.

IRVING'S "RIP VAN WINKLE."

Delightful old Rip Van Winkle, whom Washington Irving and Joseph Jefferson have made one of the most famous of American characters, is just published, with other of Irving's charming "Sketches," in a charming little red-line gilt edged, richly ornamented volume, for the international low price of 25 cents or by mail, postpaid, for 35 cents by the Twenty Kwalsher Publishing Company of New York City. They issue an edition of the same in tinted paper cloth for 25 cents, postpaid, another new in style of binding, appropriately named "Unique," for only 15 cents postpaid. These volumes are issued especially to go in the book pockets, because the character of the literature and quality of workmanship, with the wonderful economy in cost, which the "Literary Revolution" proposes to produce, a large number of standard and exceedingly desirable works being announced to follow rapidly, equal in quality and economy of cost. The real time edition is certainly one of the most exquisite little volumes which has ever found its way into the pockets of ordinary mortals, and the "Unique" edition places the issued low price even of the "Literary Revolution" far in the background. The books will certainly sell by the hundred thousand, and ought to sell by the million. A postal card will secure specimen pages and catalogues from the publishers. The Twenty Kwalsher Publishing Company, 126 William Street, New York City.

American Newspapers of 1882.

The American Newspaper Directory which will be issued next month by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, will contain the names of 16,211 periodicals in the the United States and Territories, which is a gain of 344 in the year just passed. The number of daily papers has increased in a somewhat larger proportion, and is now represented by a total of 908 against 921 in 1881. The largest increase has been in New York—19 dailies, 29 of all sorts. Illinois and Missouri show a percentage of gain which is even greater, while Colorado leads all others in the percentage of increase, both of daily and weekly issues. California, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, and West Virginia have fallen behind last in the total number of periodicals issued. In Georgia, Maine and Massachusetts the expenses have exactly counterbalanced the new ventures. In every State not mentioned above, and in the Territories, there has been an increase.

Five hundred years before the birth of Christ there was a city in Italy called Sybaris. It was magnificent place, and the wealth and luxury of its inhabitants was so great that the name Sybarite exists to this day as a pseudonym of a devotee of sensual pleasure. It was at one time so populous, that it could send 300,000 men into the field, yet its annals are lost and its great men unknown. All the information we learn about it is the fact of its greatness, and that its ruins are to-day under the bed of a river in southern Italy. It seems there was a quarrel amongst the rulers of this mighty city, and the discontented joined with their enemies, the Croton ites, who succeeded in capturing Sybaris, drove out its inhabitants, and, to make its ruin complete, changed the course of a river so that it swept over the remains of the once mighty metropolitan. Today the ruins are covered by a bed of silt and earth from sixteen to twenty feet deep, and soon the work of bringing the remains to light will be undertaken. It is believed that the memorials of a very distant past will be brought to light equal to, if not exceeding in interest, those of Pompeii. We live after all in a very old world. Mighty nations flourished, and prosperous cities gathered wealth to themselves long before history begun to keep records. In these days of the marvelous applications of science to our daily life, it is well to remember the might of the past, in order that we should not become too conscious of the splendor of the age we live in.

Notice of Application for Tax Deed.

To Columbus Harris and all persons whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that on the 24th day of March, A. D. 1882, I, Jos. Rosenthal, County Treasurer of Webster County, Nebraska, have applied to the County Clerk of said County for a tax deed for the following described lots, tracts or parcels of land situated in said County, and subject to taxation for the year 1877, and the same being delinquent on the 1st day of March, A. D. 1878, when the same were offered for sale, I offered to pay the taxes, with the cost of advertising and sale thereof, and the same were not redeemed from said sale, and I now demand a tax deed for said lands, as provided by law. The said lands are described as follows, to wit:

DR. HARTER'S

A combination of Prunes, Iron, Phosphorus and Calisaya in palatable form. The only preparation of Iron that will not blacken the teeth, an objection to all other iron preparations.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, and all the prostrated conditions of the blood, this preparation regularly has in my hands, been worth a dozen other tonics. I have also had marked success in my most obstinate intermittents, where quinine has failed to do the good expected of it. I therefore do not hesitate to say that, from personal experience, I believe Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic to be a valuable tonic. In fact, such a compound as Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is a necessity in my practice. DR. DE BELL, FAMILY MED. ST. LOUIS, MO., Nov. 20th, 1881. 1608 Wash Avenue.

It gives color to the blood, restored healthful tone to the digestive organs and nervous system, making it available to General Debility, Loss of Appetite, Prostration of Vital Powers and Impotence.
