ORGANIC WEAKNESS & IMPOTENCY IN MEN
Harris Remedy Co. Prop's, St. Louis, Mo.

"As to the success of your medicine, this I know, whereas six months ago, I was weak, lame, and stoop-shouldered with an irritation, but no inward force to execute them, whose nights were spent in tossing and rolling upon sleepless bed, whose days were haunted by melancholy reverie or blighted by blinding headache. I say whereas that was the case then. Now, after the use of your most excellent remedy, I feel myself a MAN—erect, strong, weight 175 the spirits proud that I whistle in the house and sing out of doors. In sight of all this the difficulties into insignificance. I wish I might be able to undeceive the deluded young men by recommending your remedy."

The original letter from which the above is an extract, and several hundred others expressing similar opinions, in equally strong terms, are on file and will be shown to any one calling at our office who shows that his interest in the matter arises purely from a desire to guard against imposition.

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

FRIDAY, DEC. 12, 1884.

A. C. HOSMER - - Proprietor

After the Lynchers.

The readers of The Journal have not forgotten the circumstances connected with the outrage upon Ella Range, and the subsequent lynching of the Mexican miscreant, Lorenzo Padillo, who perpetrated the vile deed. The offense of the victim of the mob was such an aggravated one and the penalty prescribed by the law so inadequate that little fault was found with the exercise of the powers of that court from which there is no appeal, and those concerned in the affair have not taken as careful steps to conceal their identity, if reports are true, as prudence would have dictated.

It seems that carelessness in this particular is likely to have serious results. About three weeks ago there arrived in this city a detective from Pinkerton's Chicago agency, who was employed in working up the case against the executioners of Padillo. He stated that Padillo was a Mexican subject, and that the Mexican minister at Washington was at the bottom of the investigation. He went to Crete, and getting to work mingled with those whom he suspected of being implicated in the affair. He incidently called up the ghost of the Mexican, and detailed a similar case which had occurred in the state from which he came, and finally let it out that he had been one of the men who had executed Judge Lynch's sentence on the victim. This created a bond of sympathy, so it said, between him and his companions so strong that they were led into making admissions which will be used as evidence against them.

The detective has disappeared, and whether or not he has secured the proof necessary to establish his case we are unable to say. Lynching cannot be defended by a law abiding citizen, but if there ever was a case in which it was justified it was this one, and it will be a striking illustration of the irony of fate if those engaged in this one must suffer, while the participants in so many hangings, for which there has been almost no excuse, go unscathed.

Gaston's Illustrated Book of Useful Information

We have just recieved from the publisher a book with the above named title. It contains statistical tables of practical value for mechanics, farmers, lumbermen, bankers, book-keepers, politicians, and all classes of workers in every department of human effort, and a compilation of facts for ready reference on various subjects. No more valuable book has ever been offered as it contains so much information of practical value in everyday life. It is elegantly bound in Alligator Leather, gilt, with gold stamp, will be sent to any address post paid on receipt of 25 cents, by GEO. W. OGILVIE, PUBLISHER, 230 LAKE ST., CHICAGO, ILL.

HOUSEKEEPERS—Can you keep your tinware bright and clean? If you find it difficult, use DeLand's soda, which aside from its great merit in other departments, is exceedingly useful in this direction.

Excited Thousands

All over the land are going into ecstasy over Dr. King's new discovery for consumption. Their unlooked for recovery from the timely use of this great life saving remedy causes them to go nearly wild in its praise. It is guaranteed to positively cure severe coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hoarseness, loss of voice, or any affection of the throat and lungs. Trial bottle free at Henry Cook's. Large size $.

Blessing to all Mankind.

In these times when our newspapers are flooded with patent medicine advertisements, it is gratifying to know what to procure that will certainly cure you. If you are bilious, blood out of order, liver inactive, or generally debilitated there is nothing in the world that will cure you so quickly as Electric Bitters. They are a blessing to all mankind and can be had for only fifty cents a bottle of Henry Cook.

The World Still Moves.

Notwithstanding Mother Shipton's dire prophecy the world still exists. The people will live longer if they use Dr. Harter's positive cure, which subdues coughs, colds, consumption, and all diseases of the lungs. For sale at C. L. Cotting's drug store. Get a bottle free.

A World Wants Proof.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it" and not in chewing the string which tied the bag. Therefore take Jones' Red Clover Tonic. It cures blood disorders, torpid liver, sick headache, costiveness, and all diseases of the urinary organs. The best and tonic known. Sold by C. L. Cotting, fifty cents per bottle.

CLEANINGS.

The pearl of the peach stone is the bitter almond of commerce. Confectioners pay 20 cents a pound for them.

Oak pillars have been decided to be less supports for a building in case of fire than iron, the latter being liable to warp from the heat.

Thanks his Paper.

Mr. [illegible] writes us from [illegible] Mich. Enclosing your good pay for which we thank you. Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is a wonderful tonic and scrofula and [illegible] cured us. Accept [illegible]

THE DECEMBER number of the Cottage Hearth is received. It opens with a well written biographical sketch of Mrs. Francis L. Mace accompanied by a fine portrait of the lady who will be remembered by our readers as the writer of "Only waiting," as well as many other poems appealing to our better nature and life. "What they brought home from the Fair" is a laughable story of the adventures of a good-hearted country couple at the Institute Fair at Boston. Mrs. Plumstead on flowers, Mrs. Patten's tested receipts, and the other well-known departments of this fine home magazine, are as usual, timely, practical, and helpful to every one interested in making home the pleasantest spot on earth. The publishers announce that during the coming year they shall not only strive in every way to make the magazine more attractive in its illustrations and mechanical work, but continue their well defined and long tested policy of making it the standard magazine in its peculiar field of home life. We have made such arrangements that we can offer this magazine and THE CHIEF for only $2 a year. Address, Cottage Hearth Co., Boston.

DEMOREST'S illustrated magazine for December contains not only a great deal of Christmas literature, but many other well written and interesting articles on various subjects. "Santiago," "An Old Port and Bit of Shore," "A Canterbury Pilgrimage," and "The Angelic Painter," will repay reading; and the household suggestions are eminently practical and useful. The illustrations are numerous, among which is a fine photogravure of the Mater Dolorosa of Dolci. For 1885 we are promised a serial by Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, and another by Mr. Charles Barnard, as well as many new and interesting features.
