He leaves here with the good will of everybody, and we sincerely trust that he will succeed in his new home more abundantly than his fondest hopes dare contemplate.—Montezuma (Iowa) Democrat.

WRIGHT & WALLACE, our popular jewelers have moved into their new quarters, which have been fitted up expressly for them, viz: The room lately occupied by the First National Bank. It is one of the handsomest jewelry establishments in the west, and the affable and courteous resident proprietor, Mr. L. H. Wallace, is building up an excellent trade for the house. THE CHIEF takes pleasure in calling the attention of its thousands of readers to this popular firm, and would respectfully call their attention to their large advertisement in another column of to-day's paper, feeling assured that you will find bargains worth your while to look after.

A BIG HAUL.—On last Sunday night some thief or thieves entered the stables of John Polnicky living north of Red Cloud and stole two of his fine horses, four years old, valued at from three to four hundred dollars. No clue has been discovered as to who the thieves are, but Mr. Polnicky has offered $75 reward for the recovery of the team, and the county offers $50 each for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties. It was certainly a bold and audacious robbery and THE CHIEF would advise farmers to be careful and lock their stables before the horses are taken. There seems to be a great many thieves prowling around at present. The following is the description of the horses stolen: One dark sorrel horse four years old, one hind foot white, long white stripes in face, weight about 1100 pounds. One iron gray horse, four years old, tail partly chewed by calves, weight 1125 lbs; both horses in good order. A good team. Sheriff Warren has the case in charge and will make it hot for the thieves.

THE following houses and buildings have been erected during the last twelve weeks, commencing with January 1, 1885:

1 J. W. Chambers, dwelling 24x24, 1½ stories.
2 Lucas DeHart, dwelling 24x30, 2 stories.
3 J H Remsberg, dwelling, 24x30, two stories.
4 Jno R Shirey, dwelling, 1 story.
5 Mr Craven, 1 story dwelling.
7 A H Kaley, barn 16x24.
8 John Garber, dwelling 24x32, 1 story.
9 Peter McNitt, dwelling 16x24, story and a half.
10 H A Watson, barn 20x40.
11 J N Pope, house 16x26.
12 A J Means, house 28x29.
13 Dwelling 20x20, name unknown.
14 Rufus Edwards, business house near depot.
15 Hosford & Young, house 16x30, and other improvements.
16 S Lindsey, dwelling 20x28.
17 W H Cook, dwelling.

These and numerous other improvements will aggregate a total value of something like $16,000 for the first three months of the year which is a splendid showing considering the cold winter. There are a great many houses now under contract that have not yet been commenced.

ON last Friday evening the pupils of the Red Cloud high school gave an entertainment in the rink to a large and appreciative audience. The participants had been drilling for the occasion for several weeks, and by thorough drilling and the assistance of Miss King, the superintendent, they were able to give the people an entertainment that would have done credit to many so called first-class theatrical companies. We have not the space to devote that we wish we had in order to do the performance justice, but suffice it to say that each and every one who took part in the entertainment did excellent, and especially was this the case in the pantomime, "Mischief in the Studio," in which Lou Kenney took the part of Artist; Chas Kaley, Ernest; Belle Spangle, Claribel, and Ranny McNitt, Milkman. Each one did their parts to perfection. In the farce "Engaged by Mistake," Charley Kaley represented Mr. Smith; Charley Dow, Capt. Heavysides; Emma Brown, Mrs Smith; Louie Kenney, Mr. Potts; Belle Spangle, Mrs. Potts; Lina Owen, Arabella; and Hugh Miner, Page. All acted the various parts to the satisfaction of the audience, and elicited great applause, as did those who took part in the pantomime from "Mother Goose." The singing, solos, recitations, etc., were all done splendidly, and in fact the entertainment was so much appreciated that the pupils were requested to repeat it on Saturday night which they did to a good house. THE CHIEF, together with all present, pronounces is the best entertainment ever produced in Red Cloud by home talent. The receipts were about $50, and the net proceeds something like $40. The pupils and others who took part are to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment.

READY TO CROSS.

That is, the Bridge Across the Republican is now Completed.

On Tuesday morning the bridge across the river at Red Cloud was completed and people from the southside of the river again put in to direct communication with Red Cloud after some three weeks delay. Trade will again resume its usual course.

About the School Laws.

House Roll No 167 with an emergency clause, changes the beginning and ending of the school year from the first Monday in April to the second Monday in July, 1885. No change has been made in the time of holding the annual meeting. The annual meetings will continue as heretofore, upon the first Monday in April, and newly elected officers must file their acceptance within ten days after the meeting, but they will not take possession of their offices until the second Monday of July following the election. All officers whose terms under the old law would expire with the first Monday of April are retained until the second Monday in July. The census is to be taken as heretofore, during the ten days preceeding the annual meeting, and is to be sent to the county superintendent within ten days after the meeting. The financial and statistical report is not to be made out until the end of the year, July 13. All orders and resolutions passed at the annual meetings this year, concerning the ensuing school year, will refer to the year beginning July 13, 1885. The time intervening between April 7 and July 13, 1885, should be arranged for by special order.

Have in transit two car loads, which are absolutely and unquestionably the very best in use, and so acknowledged and endorsed by the public. Our mammoth stock of ranges and vapor stoves are the admiration of all who see them. 31w4

We sympathize with the parents of little Fanny L. Smith, who departed this life March 23rd, after a short illness, aged 1 year, eight months.

One sweet flower has drooped and faded.
One sweet infants voice has fled.
One fair brow the grave has shadowed,
One sweet darling now is dead.
Fanny has gone to heaven before us
But she turns and waves her hands
Pointing to the glories o'er us,
In that happy spirit land.

Mrs Maggie J Wolpert is visiting her parents Mr and Mrs Mark Noble, on Walnut creek. Mr Noble is a splendid teacher, and any district would do well to hire him. Some persons helped themselves to his stove and other household goods that were left in the house he moved from last fall.

Sorry to learn that some of the boys are getting pretty wild.

Chas Green lost a cow from getting choked on an ear of corn.

The kind hearted wife of our postmaster was out soliciting for a very destitute family. The neighbors gave liberally.

Mr A J Fennimore, who was supposed to be dying with heart disease, is rapidly improving and is able to ride out.

Brother Hummell brought some of the Ash creek fire with him last Sunday. I think all will agree with me that it was the best sermon he ever preached in the old stone school house. Prayer meetings have commenced and are quite well attended but we do not wish that some on would lead in singing that does not have a sore throat. BETA.

ELM HILL.

Once more the farmers are sowing grain.

Farmers are hauling corn to Cowles so fast that the grain buyers can hardly take care of it.

Mrs J O Chamberlin, in company with her sister Mrs Herrington, of Iowa, left for a six months visit in the east.

Mr. B. Stevenson and John Irving, of Riverton made this place a flying visit last Sunday.

Quite a number of citizens are going west this spring to take up land, among whom are Henry Poor, S B Harvey and the Milton Bros.

Having sold his hardware store to the Hale Bros., Mr Arlison is now prepared to sell or trade horses on short notice.

A first-class runaway in town last week.

The cheese factory store was burglarized last Sunday to a small extent. The parties got away with their booty in broad daylight.

Several of the Inavale sports attended the ball in Red Cloud on St Patrick's evening.

H L Luce has purchased the Indian creek factory of Mr Chamberlin and will hereafter make not only plenty of money but a large quantity of full cream cheese.

Mr A J Worthington, of Monroe, Wis., has arrived, bringing with him two car loads of cattle and several fine horses. His family arrived a few days after.

Messrs Chamberlin, Painter and Lee have decided that when they go in bathing again it will be warmer weather. The other side of the river does not interest them as much as it did, either.

Mrs. Eddy, sister of Mr. Broomfield, is visiting here.

Several from around here have been attending the meetings of Mrs Henry, at Red Cloud. How much they have been profited thereby is hard to tell. An effort will be made to get her to preach in Inavale next winter.

We are all open to conviction, and especially Helen, of the Argus.

Mr Irons returned from Iowa a few days ago with a car load of blooded stock, mostly Holstein.

Our factory expects to start about the 7th of April. Having sold the other one Mr Chamberlin will devote his time to this one. It will therefore do considerable better this year.

Mr Henry Rutledge has moved on his farm south of the river. He will continue to milk cows for the factory.

The Brother Jonathan and Helen combination of the Argus, think the post office trouble is not over. We can tell them right now that if they succeed in their fraudulent effort to change the postmaster, that the last of it is some distance off. If we have a change we must have a democrat, and don't you forget by GAD.

The greatest sensation of the season was the appearance on our streets, one day last week of two bears, one a large brown bear, said to have been imported from Norway; the other a small black North American bear, one year old. They were in charge of two men and were well trained.

Rev Page preached here here last Sunday. Rev Lenfest also preached at 3 p. m., but owing to some misunderstanding as to the time of his appointment, there were but few to hear him. This explanation is due to Mr Lenfest, whose appointments will, we hope, be duly announced in the future.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

The RED CLOUD CHIEF has searched us out in our southern home. It was a welcome visitor, it is always full of home news, and we see by all accounts that you have had a very severe winter but here it has been quite different. There has not been a day here that a person could not be out all day with comfort as far as cold is concerned. We had but very little snow, not more than three inches all told. But it rains about one half of the the time, which keeps the roads very muddy. It will freeze at night hard enough to bear a man up for a little while in the morning but before noon everything is thawed out. In the timber where the leaves lay, the ground seldom freezes. Farmers are beginning to repair fences and getting ready to commence spring work. They sow their wheat in the fall, and sow their oats and plant corn in March. The farms are all fenced with rail fences. If Webster county could have the timber that is going to waste in this county the present settlers would be independent for life. There is little or no sickness here. Ayers has been getting stronger ever since we reached here, has never been layed up a day. His cough has left him and he can do a fair day's work. We are a mile and a half from McEwan, a brisk little town situated on the Memphis & Nashville Ry. I will give you its history some future time. Waverly is our county seat, nine miles west of us, situated on the same line of rail road. L. A. A.
