How Much Do You Know About Baseball?

The Omaha Bee and the advertisers listed below are interested in knowing just how much the average baseball fan actually knows about the rules of the game. Each advertisement on this page contains a short description of some of the "freak" plays that so often happen. For the most correct list of answers to these questions The Omaha Bee will give $15 in cash, $10 for the second best list and $5 for the third best. All answers must be addressed to the Baseball Contest Editor and must be filed with him before 5 p. m. Saturday, April 29th.

As an example of the little work necessary the answer to the first question is, "The out should not be allowed. The runner is permitted to score because of interference."

Get busy, Baseball Fans, and win this easy money. Remember the Western League season opens in Omaha Friday, the 28th. All answers must be in The Bee office or bear a postmark of not later than 6 p. m., Saturday, April 29. Correct answers will appear in the Sunday, April 30th issue of The Bee. The winners' names will be printed in the Wednesday, May 3d, issue of The Bee. Get your answers in. Neatness will be considered.

The Woodmen of the World Baseball Team Won Championship Honors Last Year

They will do their best to win again this year.

The W. O. W. organization is backing their team 100 per cent.

The W. O. W. is a life insurance society, organized in Omaha June, 1890—now thirty-two years old. Has paid through Omaha banks to policy holders' beneficiaries one hundred fifty million dollars; cleared through Omaha banks during 1921 over thirty-five million, seven hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

The W. O. W. maintains full reserves against every policy issued. Our reserve funds are invested in American municipal bonds only. Our surplus over our reserves is in excess of eight million dollars and we refunded to our policy holders last year two million, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The W. O. W. employs over four hundred and fifty people in their Omaha office. We spend a lot of money advertising and building Omaha.

The W. O. W. is as strong as any life insurance company in the United States.

The W. O. W. ought to have the undivided support of every citizen in Nebraska who is loyal to his State. KEEP NEBRASKA MONEY IN NEBRASKA.

The W. O. W. will guarantee to furnish your wife and children with baseball tickets for the balance of their lives even if you are not able to take them to the park on account of your employment in another world, either picking the strings on a golden harp or trying to keep the fires burning by the use of Sheridan Coal Company coal.

COME SEE US. We are comfortably located in our own two million dollar properties, Fourteenth and Farnam, or telephone DOuglas 4570 and ask the beautiful young telephone operator with the musical voice to connect you with the office of W. A. Fraser, President, or John T. Yates, secretary, who will tell you all you want or ought to know.

Watch The Bee for the baseball schedule and attend all games where the W. O. W. Team plays.

2—A runner goes to first and turns toward the left. He starts for second and then goes back to first. Ball is fielded to first and baseman holds it, claiming an out, while the runner rushes to second. What is the decision?

Baseball Stars Know the Necessity of Having Good Teeth

Nothing in the human body reflects its condition more than the human tooth. Decayed, unkept teeth have almost immediate effect on the "thinking" ability of an individual.

The keen, sharp, brainy man, whether he be on the baseball diamond or in the business office, is the man who is free from teeth trouble. Ask any of the Western League stars what their opinions are about well-kept teeth.

If you are having trouble, we invite you to come in, have a thorough examination and we will tell you exactly what you need and what the cost will be. This service is free and without any obligation upon your part.
