In some future issue, should the watch factory fail we shall take pleasure in showing up those who have kept it back, and we shall not handle them with gloves either. It is strange that people will fight an enterprise that will make the city grow, and redound to their advantage.

Thus ended one of the most successful meetings of the Nebraska breeders associations. Each year there are more entries, better bred animals and faster time. The yearling and two year old state record has been reduced at this meeting. Lycurgus by Aberdeen's dam by Almont owned by W. J. Emigh of Red Cloud showed what good breeding and a good head could do by winning the 2:30 trot easily. He is a good gaited young horse and ought to trot a mile track in 2:20.
