Ayer's CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use on the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the diseased humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on in their accustomed health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purge the system from the disturbances which make disease. And do it in the mildest way, and strictly in accordance with Nature's laws. These, if not eradicated, root upon fertile soil, and the surrounding world, soon bring forth the fruits of sickness, suffering, and death. While in the condition, oppressed by the disagreeable, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. Well before and so apparent in this trying and common complaint, is still true to the deeper-seated and more dangerous disorders. The same purgative effect expels them. Cleared by similar obstructions of derangements of the natural functions of the body, they speedily, and many of them surely, expel it by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them in the alarming first approach of disease in some of the prevalent ills, and from other well-known public causes.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of glorious sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years, her mother has been grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin, and in her hair. After our child was cured, she and her mother took your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purgatives. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we have ever used, for they certainly and thoroughly clear out the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DOC. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say, all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on that effectual cleansing in the early contest with disease, and believing as I do, that your Pills are the best we know, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache anybody can imagine, by one or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PEEBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more efficacious for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relaxy, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best approved laxatives around. Their effective effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system, and purify the fountains of the blood. JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. R. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the care of costiveness. If other of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it, for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the general secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hobbes, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

PULASKY HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your pills have brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which although valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

FRANK LESLIE'S ILLUSTRATED NEWSPAPERS.

Attractive Feature. The $5,000 Prize Novel The Gulf Between Them. By Mrs. Anne S. Stephens, Authoress of "Fashion and Famine," "The Rejected Wife," &c., &c.

In addition to its attractions, as the first and most authentic Illustrated Paper in America, surpassing all others in the variety, accuracy, and interest of the numerous illustrations which it offers, Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper will begin in No. 459, dated January 30, 1864, the thrilling and absorbing novel, "The Gulf Between them," written by the great novelist, Mrs. Stephens, whose "Fashion and Famine" had a larger circulation than any other purely literary novel of our day, and was regarded as so masterly a work of fiction that it was not only republished in England, but was translated into almost every language of Europe.

The price of $5,000, offered with unusual liberality by the proprietor for the best novel drew forth no less than two hundred works, many of them of great merit. Among these, Mrs. Stephens' novel was selected, as evidently surpassing not only all others offered, but almost everything hitherto published. It is fully equal to "Fashion and Famine," and will be as widely read.

It will be of greater interest, from the fact that the scene is laid in our land and our own times; and in delineation of character and absorbing power it will fascinate and charm the reader.

Subscription $3.50 per year.

Address FRANK LESLIE, 72 Duane St. N. Y.

THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY

The readers of the CONTINENTAL are aware of the important position it has assumed, of the influence which it exerts, and of the brilliant array of political and literary talent of the highest order which supports it. No publication of the kind has, in this country, so successfully combined the energy and freedom of the daily newspaper with the higher literary tone of the first class monthly; and it is very certain that no magazine has given wider range to its contributors; or preserved itself so completely from the narrow influences of party or of faction. In times like the present, such a journal is either a power in the land or it is nothing. That the Continental is not the latter is abundantly evidenced by what it has done—by the reflection of its counsels in many important public events, and in the character and power of those who are its staunchest supporters.

Though but little more than a year has elapsed since the Continental was first established, it has during that time acquired a strength and a significance elevating it to a position far above that previously occupied by a strength and a political significance elevating it to a position far above that previously occupied by any publication of the kind in America. In proof of which assertion we call attention to the following facts:

1. Of its political articles republished in pamphlet form, a single one has had, thus far, a circulation of one hundred and six thousand copies.

2. From its literary department, a single serial novel, "Among the Pines," has, within a very few months, sold nearly thirty-five thousand copies—Two other series of its literary articles have also been republished in book form, while the first portion of a third is already in press.

No more conclusive facts need be adduced to prove the the excellence of the contributions to the Continental, or their extraordinary popularity; and its conductors are determined that it shall not fall behind. Preserving all the boldness, vigor and ability" which a thousand journals have attributed to it, it will greatly enlarge its circle of action, and discuss, fearlessly and frankly, every principle involved in the great questions of the day. The first minds of the country embracing the men most familiar with good literature and most distinguished for ability, are among its contributors; and it is no more "flattering promise of a prospectus" to say that this "magazine for the times" will employ the first intellect in America, under auspices which no publication ever enjoyed before in this country.

While the Continental will express decided opinions on the great questions of the day, it will not be a mere political journal; much the larger portion of its columns will be enlivened, as heretofore, by tales, poetry and humor. In a word, the Continental will be found, under its new staff of Editors, occupying a doubtful and presenting attractions never before found in magazine.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1864.

The World:

An Independent Democratic Daily, semi-Weekly and Weekly Newspaper.

UNION OF THE WORLD AND ARGUS.

The World, to which the New York Weekly Argus has been united, has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It addresses weekly alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and reaches at least half a million readers. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubled. Nothing less than this should satisfy those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hands of those fanaticism has helped to provoke, invite, and prolong the war, and that to accomplish this end, no means is so effective as the diffusion, through able and enterprising newspapers, of sound political knowledge among the working men, the thinking men, and the voting men of the North.

Enterprise, industry and money will be liberally expended to make The World the Best Newspaper in America. Its news from every part of the world will be early and authentic. Wherever the telegraph extends, or railroads run, or steamboats ply, it will gather the latest intelligence. It has a large staff of accomplished correspondents with all the federal armies, who will telegraph and write to us the latest news from the various seats of war. It has correspondents and reporters in every political and commercial centre in America and Europe, whose letters and dispatches will leave nothing worthy of note unknown to its readers.

The Market Reports of the World are more complete than those of any other newspaper. The Editors invite comparison in this respect and point to the reports of the Cattle Markets, the general and country Produce Markets, and the Money Markets in its columns, as proof of its excellence in this respect. The world has also a special department devoted to Agriculture, filled with editorial articles communications from practical farmers and mechanics of the country.

The war in which the nation is engaged against armed and infuriated Rebels, and the radical policy of the administration which prolongs it, have conspired to bring together upon one platform all conservative, Union loving and Constitution-loving men, of whatever former name and creed. Many of those who within the limits of the Constitution, fought the battles of the ballot box under the leadership of those patriotic statesmen of other and better days, Henry Clay and Daniel Webster, together with the masses whose principles were those of such patriots as Andrew Jackson and William L. Marcy, Silas Wright and Stephen A. Douglas, now stand shoulder to shoulder upon the same platform in a plain one. It is to restore the Union, maintain the Constitution, and enforce the laws. Whatever makes for this end, the exercise of force of the policy of conciliation, The World will advocate, whatever makes against it, The World will oppose.

It will oppose every enemy to the Union, whether armed in rebellion at the South or insidiously planting the seeds of disunion and essential disloyalty at the North.

It will oppose every violation of the Constitution which is the only hope and bond of Union, and our only authority for exacting or compelling the allegiance of the South.

It will oppose every infraction of the Law, in high places or in low, by reckless and misguided partisans, or by the administration which has been their example.

It will fearlessly exercise the Freedom of the Press; it will constantly uphold and defend Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Ballot.

To the lawless acts of the Administration, its arbitrary and unjust arrests and expatriations, its denial of the right to the writ of habeas corpus, its illegal proclamations, its abrogation of State and federal laws, its despotic accumulations of ungranted power, and its subversions of the safeguards of civil and personal liberty, it will constantly oppose the letter and the spirit of our supreme law and the advocacy of sound doctrine, until American freemen shall be roused to the recovery of their rights, their liberties, their laws, and their limited and well balanced government, by the resistless decision of the ballot.

Profoundly impressed with the desire to contribute all that it may to the great work of this generation,—namely, to restore our national unity, and to place the United States again foremost among the nations of the earth, and first in the peace, prosperity, and happiness of its people—The World seeks from those who desire such things their sympathy and support, and, above all, the favor of Him who crowns every good work.
