CONSUMPTION,

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation cured my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Hidson, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Blackard, Darien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. Chandler, Junction, Va.

The "Big Injun" as a prognosticator of the weather last week failed to carry out his native shrewdness in forecasting the weather. It appears from the condition of the atmosphere Sunday, that it was a part of the program that was left out of our record, or got pied in the makeup. Our devil says it's a "Ground-hog case."

On last Monday night the alarm of fire was turned in from Station 1, and the fire department responded promptly. The fire was discovered to be in Whitson's store, and is supposed to have been caused by mice carrying matches back and forth. Fortunately the fire was quenched before any serious damage was done, but it created a score to our citizens.

Death of Edmund L. Smith.

[Communicated.]

Eldest son of E. B. Smith an old resident and banker of the firm of the Farmers & Merchants Bank of Red Cloud.

On Tuesday Feb. 10, the Christian church was filled to overflowing with friends and relatives attending the funeral services of Edmund L. Smith, who was a young man well and favorably known by the residents of Red Cloud. He was born in Jones county, Iowa, on the 19th of June 1857, and came to our city when four years old, in company with his father, and sisters, he was the only son and pride of his father, and pet of his sisters. He was idolized and fondly cared for by the only mother whom he has ever known, and in return was a noble and dutiful boy to her.

During his illness his greatest desire was to have his parents with him and on two occasions he folded his feeble arms about his mother's neck, and spoke endearing words of confidence, love and affection, which will be a comfort to her while she lives.

He was married on the 28th of August 1882. He was a boy that commanded the highest respect of his parents. A few months ago his health began to fail and he has been slowly declining until at last compelled to give up business, he soon departed this life to try the realities of the life beyond.

Why was it the sun sank so early to rest,
And the gloaming came on like a tear
Why was it, the clouds in a billow of dark
Draped the heavens as tho' on a bier.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when proberly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger of San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which cured the former, "worked wonders for his wife." Levi Logan of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for 30 years, says two bottles made him "feel like a new man." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by C. L. Cotting, druggist. Book of wonderful testimonials free. 1

A National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequaled testimonials, free at C. L. Cotting's, druggist. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs. 1
