What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kincheloe, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
United Hospital and Dispensary, Boston, Mass.

American Scissors the Best.

The London Eng., Iron and Steel Trade Review says: "English scissors are still called for by ladies, but tailors and others using scissors in their daily work have long since ceased to look for the Sheffield mark. This is very significant, and the fact that an English tailor insists on American-made shears is a great slur upon us, as the very best article is needed in cutting out garments. Ten years age English scissors brought double an apparently similar article of American make." Yet all the long years during which our scissors manufacturers were struggling to reach their present proud place, the American Cobdenite kept up his croaking about the "robber Tariff," without which their very existence in the United States would probably have been impossible.—American Economist.

A Noted Place for Riots.

New Orleans has made a record for mobs. On September 1, 1874, the White League called a meeting to protest agiainst the administration of Governor Kellogg, who was lawfully elected two years before. Kellogg was a Republican and the White League did not want that kind of an administration. Fourteen police were killed and about forty wounded in the riot, and Governor Kellogg was driven to the custom house to seek refuge. President Grant sent General Emory to New Orleans and Governor Kellogg was again recognized as Governor. On the 4th of January, 1875, the White League made another attack on the Republican State government. General Sherman was sent to New Orleans this time and he soon made short work of the insurrection. The report of General Sheridan showed that from 1874, to 1876, 2500 perons, nearly all colored, had been murdered in Louisiana for political reasons.

The United States Government has never yet shown much ability or energy to protect the colord men of the Southern States, and thousands of them have been murdered from the close of the war to the present time. The little Kingdom of Italy may teach the government a lesson in its prompt action in demanding reparation for the lynching of the eleven Italians last Saturday.

The fact the question of submitting the Behring sea controversey to arbitration, promises to interfere with the proposed western trip of President Harrison may be fairly construed as meaning that the administration is disposed to regard with favor the suggestion of Lord Salisbury. Otherwise there would be no necessity for delay, but if arbitration is determined on, the president will naturally wish to have a part in formulating the conditions under which it shall be conducted. It does not seem that this need to be a very difficult task. Since our government has already presented the questions it would desire judgment on, and only two or three of these are objected or asked to be modified by the British government, it would appear that the administration is very desirous to arrive at an agreement, and as the tone of the last dispatch of Lord Salisbury indicated a similar feeling on the part of the Bitish government, there is reason to regard the prospect for a settlement of this dispute as being favorable.—Omaha Bee.

Undertaking by F. V. Taylor who has had years of practical experince in the scientific care of the dead and is better prepared than ever to conduct the business in all its branches.

Last Saturday evening, Rev. D. L. McBride joined in wedlock Mr. Frank G. Ives and Miss Jennie Harding of our city. The groom is one of the Burlington's steady freight conductors, recently moved here from Red Cloud, the bride an estimable young lady, sister of Mrs. C. W. Bronson. Prosperity and happiness be their portion.—McCook Tribune.

After years of experience we make the intelligent care of the dead a specialty, and are prepared to attend all calls in the city or country.—F. V. Taylor, funeral director.

Mrs. M. G. Harrick and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Woolnough of Minnapolis, Minn., were guests of their cousin, Mrs. Alex Bentley last week.

Itch on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. H. Devo, druggist, Red Cloud.

Another Scandal.

For the last few weeks there has been no little amount of grewsome talk about an old hoary headed monster prancing around in this country sansculotte with a gentle dame. The Chief has hunted the matter up this week and has been more than convinced that the story is fairly true. But the mouth of scandal can never be hushed, and we presume that sooner or later the whole trouble will end in a horrible divorce which may be beneficial to both parties before many more moons so we give it publicity. It is a sorrowful thing to an editor to have to report domestic troubles, yet this old fellow is guilty and should be punished, and for one, this paper would be pleased to see him wiped up and punished as he richly deserves. We dislike to be compelled to give his name up, but as a public journal, we feel compelled to warn the people against such a rascally, indescent old monstrocity, but we must, and here goes, and it is no more nor less a personage than Old Winter sitting boldly in the lap of Miss Spring, right in the face of the people. Such a fellow is only deserving of such treatment as he will get in the next few days, and that is severely warmed up.

Snow Pointers.

It has been reported that the sun has crossed the line. We knew that Old Sol had been doing something from the condition of the weather in the last three or four days.

It beats hades how it snows in Nebraska, says our devil.

During the snow blockade our business men kept the flies off of each other by snowballing.

It was not an uncommon thing to see a snow bank from three to six feet deep this week.

It is said to be the worst snow that ever prevailed in the Republican Valley.

The B. & M. railway has not run any trains into Red Cloud for nearly a week.

The snow, while it may have injured a great many herds of cattle, more or less, still it will be of incalculable benefit to the farmers in the way of starting grass sooner and preparing the soil for the spring work.

On account of the snow storm there was no school on Wednesday.

No mails in Red Cloud for so long a time that people began to think that they were living in the good days spoken of by Bellamy.

Most of our citizens have been putting in hard licks in shoveling snow off of their respective sidewalks.

We hereby give notice that we can not publish any spring poems for several weeks on the "beautiful snow."

Notice.

Mr. O. H. Truman will deliver a lecture on the subject of Labor and its interest at the court-house on Friday evening, the 3d day of April, 1891, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Same will be conducted under the auspices of the Labor Organizations of Webster county. All are cordially invited to come. A special invitation is extended to ladies, and seats will be reserved. Come one; come all.

By Order Committee.

You are Mistaken.

The report that White Feather, an Indian, married Miss Flora Emerton of Red Cloud, is denied by the Fairbury World, which says that the red man in question is in Fairbury and still single on account of the hard heartedness of the county judge, who refused to issue the necessary marriage license.—Omaha Bee.

The parties above mentioned are married, but they procured their license in Kansas. But we understand that it is a case of "married in haste to repent at leisure."

Gus Rydien of Grover, Colorado, is a former citizen of Red Cloud, is the guest of Andrew Berg and family. Mr. R. has been sick for some weeks and comes to Red Cloud to recuperate.

Embalming and intelligent care of the dead a specially by Cozad & Co. who carry a full line of coffins and caskets, robes, etc., and are fully prepared to take charge of funerals in the city and country. At Taylors old stand. Call and see them. 2t

During the storm this week many farmers lost cattle. We learn that Geo. Dualivin, 6 miles north lost 26 head of 3 year old steers. Fred Newhouse also lost a number of head. Ed Smith lost three head, and quite a number of other stock men lost from one to several head.

EDITORIAL DRIFT.

The Chief and Republican are now in favor of voting bonds or a tax on the already tax-ridden people for the purpose of paving the streets. Keep on gentlemen. If you want to drive out every tax payer in town just vote a few thousand dollars more on them when it is all they can do now to keep up the interest of what they already have.—Argus.

Yes, The Chief is for anything that will build up Red Cloud and give our laboring men a chance to earn a living. We can't see much differenee driving out people one way than another. If you do not give the laborers something to do so that they can make a living they will have to seek other homes, and thus depopulate the city. The Chief does not believe in fossilism. The way to make a city grow is to do everything you can for it, push it to the front, and keep the ball rolling. Look at Beatrice. Eight years ago, or thereabouts, was about the size of Red Cloud, but by earnest endeavor, thorough enterprise, pluck and energy, procured one manufactory after another, paved her streets, furnished employment for her own citizens and many others, as a consequence from a town about the present population of Red Cloud, built herself up until today she has 16,000 population, and is still not one better whit situated than Red Cloud. No the "tax ridden" theory is not good. Red Cloud does not owe enough to hurt her, and if people stand around an croak for fear of doing something for the city, why she will never be anything more than a hamlet. The history of the world is that no city ever prospered without taking chances: Look at Lincoln, Omaha, Beatrice, Chicago, New York, and many lesser cities, all with a crowded indebtedness from $100,000 to almost that many millions. Of course The Chief appreciates the hard times, but no city ever prospered that did not or could not furnish employment in one way or the other for the toiling masses. The rich can live but the laboring classes must be given a chance to earn a living or go where they can. Which will it be for Red Cloud? Let's pave the streets, and then people will then come marching "ON TO RED CLOUD"!

One of our city exchanges last week took occasion to say "that the people who were clamoring for a non-partisan ticket last year were loudest for a fight this year." No wonder for every year since the non-partisan dodge has been worked, it has been instead of being non-partisan, worked in the interest of the democratic party, and thus in a city ordinarily over one hundred or more republicans has elected to all of the principal and paying offices, good, sound, democrats. The Chief is republican and always prefers to vote for republicans, hence, it was for a straight republican ticket, for republicans to support, and as many more tickets as there are parties, prefering to stand by the republican party in its fall or prosperity. There is no fight on, and should not be. Let each man go to the polls, vote to suit his own idea, and then when the result is made known to the public submit without any further ceremony and all will be peace, for submitting to the majority quietly is what you will have to do ultimately. Both tickets are composed of good men and which ever is elected will be satisfactory to The Chief although we prefer the republican ticket.

Pave Red Cloud's streets! Why we have better natural streets than a great many more pretentious cities who have spent thousands of dollars in paving.—Argus.

Yes, friends, our streets are fairly good, but in their present condition they do not furnish food for our laboring classes. The Chief does not believe that just simply paving the streets would build Red Cloud up, but that many other enterprises that could be procured would. Economy is all right and should be practised, but when you carry it so far as to cripple the growth of the city, then it goes to far. We are no stickler for paving the streets, but one would fine that the people would enthused to see 100 men working on our streets. A man is never so happy as when he has a full stomach and plenty of work. It restores confidence, you know.

We can astonish you by our low prices on window curtains and wall paper. C. L. Cotting.

We have heard that M. Stern contemplates building a brick on his corner. Some years ago, we believe that he agreed, if our people would let him have a saloon on the corner that he would put up a brick there. The Chief believes that he ought to be required to fill the contract, and we hope he will comply with his former agreement.

The Holland House under its present management is fast building up a reputation as one of the best hotels in Nebraska. The present manager, Mr. A. O Fuller, has followed the business for a lifetime and understands every department thoroughly. The Chief is pleased to note his prosperity. We wish him all the success possible as he is very deserving.

The Rev. C. E. Taggert has resigned the pastorate of the Congregational church and will go to Iowa. Mr. Taggert has made many friends while conducting his church work in Red Cloud and will go to his new field of labor with, not only the best wishes of his former congregation, but of our townspeople generally He is a scholarly and classical divine and his new congregation will find him to be more than an ordinary minister.

One of our Kansas men was in Red Cloud one day last week when a man living near Red Cloud met him and they began to talk politics when the Nebraska man wanted to bet the Kansas man $10 that there was not a tin mine in England. The poor Kansas man had to stand the bluff because he didn't have the $10. Finally the Kansas man was lucky enough to borrow the money, then he returned the bluff. Now the Kansas man says, the bet is open and if the Nebraska man accepts the bet the Kansas man is willing; if the Nebraska man wins the money it shall be donated to the poor of Red Cloud, and if the Kansas man wins it shall be given to the poor of Smith Center. O, yes! We can hold the stakes.

Notice of Town Meeting

Notice is hereby given that the regular town meeting of Pleasant Hill township will be held at the Pleasant Hill school house on Tuesday, the 7th day of April, 1891, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. of that day.

Chas. Bradshaw,
Town Clerk.

The crusaders have continued to draw large congregations at the M. E. church. They have succeeded in interesting a great many of our people. Seventeen joined the church last Sabbath and still there are more to follow. While their plan is somewhat novel yet it has the effect of drawing a class of people to the church who could not be prevailed upon to go under different circumstance.
