"Seeing - Stars,"

when not brought about through violence is a pronounced symptom, showing need of glasses. Bright, flashing, fire-like stars and spots, that occasionally float before the vision, MEAN SOMEthing; mean there is some constant, wearing, insidious DRAIN on the snrplus nerve force of the physical system.

Nine times out of ten, this drain comes through defective eves. If you "see stars" do you not see also that the sensible course is to ascertain the cause? We can tell you if the trouble be in your eyes Consultation free.

What Does It Cost to Feed "International Stock Food" At $14.00 per Hundred.

The average feed of "International Stock Food" for Fattening Hogs is two thirds of one pound per month. Only Costs 10 cents per month.

For 100 to 125 Shoats, the average feed is is one third of one pound per month. Only costs 5 cents per month.

For 50-lb. Pigs, the average feed is one-fifth of one pound per month. Only Costs 3 cents per month.

To use one feed per day for Sucking Sows only costs 7 cents per Month.

It is not only by far the cheapest to use, but it is sold under the strongest printed reliable guarantee of any similar preparation in the world. Our guarantee is as good as gold.

On account of small sized feed it is much cheaper for steckmen to use at $14.00 per hundred pounds than many other kinds would be at $7.00 per hundred. Do not be deceived by large package at small price. They always require a very large sized feed to give results. Always compare number of feeds to the pound as well as the price per pound.

☞Owing to very superior vegetable medication we obtain better results by using a small sized feed than other preparations can show with a large sized feed.

I am now selling 100 pounds for $12.00, but it will undoubtedly be higher when the next shipment arrives.

C. L. COTTING,
The Druggist.

E. B. Warner, one of the old residents of this county, died at his home in this city on last Friday night at 11.15 p.m.

The deceased was born on April 14, 1811. He was married at Lima, N Y., in 1838, to Francis S Clark and moved from that place in 1846 to Cassapolis, Michigan, and engaged in farming and later practiced dentistry. He was clerk of Cass county for eight years, and in 1854 again took up farming and continued in that vocation until he came to Nebraska in 1880. His first wife, mother of his four children died on July 11th, 1860. In 1863 he was married to Delia M. Denison who also passed away twenty-four years later. He was again married in 1888 to Mary E. Williston of Lima, N. Y., who survives him. He was a consistent member of the Congregational church of this city.

Those who survive him are his wife, his daughter S. C. Dickson, of Red Cloud, two sons, J. C. Warner, of Newark, N. J., M. H. Warner of Ten Sleep, Wyoming, and his daughter Mrs. G. B. Beall, of Chicago, Illinois.

The funeral services were held from the Congregational church, Sabbath morning, at half past ten, conducted by Rev. F W. Dean. The text was from Matthew 21-9 "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." Loving friends had draped the seat that was never vacant as long as he was able to attend, and beautiful floral offerings, consisting of a boquet of roses, a harp and cross of roses, carnations and smilax were contributed by the Sabbath school as a testimonial of love and respect to one of the most faithful members of the school. His body was laid to rest in the Red Cloud cemetery followed by many friends sorrowing, yet rejoicing at the completion of his labors.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ebaugh celebrated their golden wedding at their home in this place on January 3d, by inviting a number of neighbors and friends to take dinner with them on that day. There was no attempt at a formal celebration, but simply a social gathering of friends of the family. A most elegant dinner was served, and that too in quantity sufficient to feed a multitude. Nearly or quite thirty years of this couple's married life has been spent in this community, and they are among its most esteemed citizens. They were the recipients of a number of handsome and useful presents in honor of the occasion, among them being a hand painted tea set, two rockers, five dollar gold piece, $4.50 in silver, two stand covers, berry bowl and dishes, two pair of towels, silk muffler, two linen handkerchiefs, tooth pick stand. A very pleasant day was spent by those in attendance.—Middletown (Mo.) Chips.

The couple referred in the above article are the parents of Mrs. E. B. Goble of this city.

James Abel entertained a number of his young friends in a very enjoyable manner at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Wright on last Friday night. Progressive Crokinole was the game of the evening. Miss Ethel Hosmer and Mr. Eddie Piatt were equally matched and were the winners of the prize. The guests were entertained also by the polyphone. Refreshments were served at a late hour. The young ladies present were: Winnie Sherman, Nellie Warren, Maggie VanBaren, Nettie Fort, Emily Topham, Bonnie Emigh, Ethel Hosmer, Bertha Potter, Ida Kinsel, Myra Griffith, Bernice Higby, Beulah Hall, Elizabeth Sheppard. The young gentlemen were: Claude Emigh, Tom McClelland, Bud McCune, Earl Pond, Roy Oatman, Bert Morhart, Stacy Morhart, Sherwood Albright, Joe Warren, Eddie Piatt, James Abel

C. P. Kron died at his home near Otto on January 10th, 1900, of Bright's disease, aged sixty-six years, nine months and seventeen days. Mr. Kron was born near Lindkopeng, Sweden, March 24, 1833. He came to Otto, Nebraska, with his family about twenty years ago, where he has resided ever since. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. E. J. Peterson of Otto, to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Berg and the remains were laid to rest in the Otto cemetery in the presence of a large number of friends and neighbors.
