It is a great pleasure to announce to the theater goers of this city that the managor of the opera house has booked an engagement of Fred Raymond's famous comedy The Missouri Girl, which created such favorable comment last season. The clean-cut comedy of this play, the anties of Zeke and Daisy and their merry associates, are still fresh in our memory and as this seasons company is said to be stronger than ever, they will, no doubt be greeted by a packed house on their appearance here.

Word was received here Wednesday of the death of William Outhwait, which occured at the home of his granddaughter in Seattle, Washington Tuesday evening. Mr. Outhwait moved to Webster county from Ohio in 1874 and settled on what is now the G. M. Pierce farm. He moved to Seattle about ten years ago. The body was taken to Rockaway, Ohio, for burial. Mr. Outhwait was past 85 years old at the time of his death.

At the opera house The Missouri Girl, which made such a hit last season is booked for a date December 10th and judging from the favorable comments head on every hand the attraction will draw an immence crowd. Manager Raymond has assured us that the cast this reason far exceeds any that he has been able to secure in the past and contains several of the leading lights in the theatrical profession. An entirely new set of scenery will be used that has been painted by a leading French artist, John Goulet of Paris, France.

T. C. HACKER, Postmaster.

The Missouri Girl a comedy that has stood the test of twelve years before the public and never yet failed to please, willbe theoffering at the opera house December 10th This production is being advertised as the "greatest fun event of the season" and amusement lovers who remember the show in previous years say the phrase is aptly selected. From first to last the play is an avalanche of laughter. "Zeke Dobson" the gawky country lad, the chief fun-maker is pronounced by the critics the greatest comedy character in the history of the stage. The charactor is a natural one, just such a boy as everyone has not, and still the situasion are so funny and his actions so ludicrous that it keeps the audience screming with laughter. In the second act the country birthday party gives an opportunity for some excellent vaudeville country dance, styled the clod hopper dance, which is said faithfully reflects the dancing that is best liked by the native of the southwestern Missouri.
