Trio of New York Thugs Fail to Make $43,000 Haul.

In one of the densely peopled portions of New York city, three thugs made a daring attempt to hold up and rob a trio of bank messengers as they were carrying $43,000 in cash from one of the bank's branches to its main building. Black pepper was showered on the messengers, one of them was hit with a blackjack and another slashed with a knife in the desperate effort of their assailants to seize the money and escape with it before the arrival of assistance. That they failed to get clear with the valises filled with coin and bills which the bank employes were carrying was due to the stubbornness with which the messengers resisted the attack and to the bravery of a young Polish waitress in a nearby restaurant, who so impeded and delayed the leader of the attacking trio that he fell an easy victim to two policemen who came running to the rescue. He gave his name as Casimo Riccobena.

Time to File Briefs Allowed in Railroad Controversy.

Lincoln, May 27.—The grain rate hearing before the state railway commission on complaint of Senator C. A. Sibley against the Burlington road closed at noon. The commission allowed J. G. Becker, attorney for the complainant, forty days in which to file briefs, the defendant to have thirty days to answer and the complainant fifteen days additional for filing reply briefs.

The allegation of the complainant that grain rates in Nebraska are higher than rates in other states and a 15 per cent reduction would not bring them below many special rates voluntarily enforced by the railroads, was met by the Burlington with a showing that the density of tonnage is greater in Iowa and Missouri than in Nebraska and that some of the low rates in this state are feeder rates which should not be taken as compensatory.

The comparison of grain rates from Nebraska stations to Omaha and Kansas City was met by the road with a showing that grain rates to Kansas City are forced by rates of competing roads and in order to protect grain men on the lines of the Burlington that road is forced to meet competition.

TAFT AND BRYAN OF ONE MIND

Both Come Out in Favor of Publicity of Campaign Contributions.

Lincoln, May 27.—William J. Bryan received a telegram from Secretary Taft containing the views of the latter favoring publicity in regard to campaign contributions. Mr. Bryan sent the following reply to Mr. Taft:

"Am very much gratified to receive your telegram and trust the publication of your letter will add the weight necessary to turn the scales in favor of the measure. Elections are public affairs and publicity will help to purify politics."

Mr. Bryan wired Senator Culberson and Representative Williams, as follows: "Please secure copies of my telegram to Secretary Taft and his reply concerning campaign contributions. His letter to Senator Burrows may enable you to secure action on the bill."

UTICA MEN MUST FACE TRIAL

Grand Jury Indicts Three Accused of Assaulting Preacher.

Seward, Neb., May 22.—Some of the citizens of Utica who participated in the assault upon Evangelist Miller, March 21 must answer in court. At the time it was said prosecution would be instituted, but no one made formal complaint and the county attorney took no action on his own account. When the case was presented to the grand jury the indictments were not slow in issuing. Those indicted are Messrs. Dayton, Ragan and Ernest Hurlburt. Mr. Miller was assaulted for remarks made about Utica women at a lonesington.

The investigation of the death of Mrs. Frank Smith, near Milford, is still before the grand jury.

Saloonkeeper Shot by Robber.

South Omaha, May 23.—John Wrede, aged fifty-three years, a saloonkeeper at Twenty-fourth and F streets, was shot and mortally wounded by two men intending robbery of his saloon last night. Four bullets took effect in his body and the doctors say he can live but a short time. Though wounded, Wrede grappled with the men and managed to shut one of them in a closet, where the police later arrested him. He gives his name as Gerald Smith. The other man escaped.

Shercliff Under Arrest.

Omaha, May 21.—Chief Donahue has received word from the chief of police at Lansing, Mich., that Frank Shercliff has been arrested there on the charge of highway robbery and wants information about him. Shercliff was the man convicted of the theft of the Pollock jewels in 1892, receiving a sentence in the penitentiary of seventeen years and later was the star witness for the state in the trial of Tom Dennison, charged with being his accomplice in the robbery.

Letter Carriers' Convention.

Lincoln, May 26.—Saturday the State Association of Letters Carriers will meet in annual convention in Lincoln. Not only will there be a large number of letter carriers in attendance, but the postmasters presiding over letter carrier offices will also be here in force.

Bryan Returns to Lincoln.

Lincoln, May 26.—W. J. Bryan, it was announced, will remain at Fairview for a considerable time. After his tour of northern Nebraska, which begins May 29 and ends June 4, he will remain at his farm, filling a few speaking dates in towns adjacent to Lincoln.

Ask Ruling of Washington.

Lincoln, May 22.—Owing to a number of complaints recently filed against the refusal of railroads to fill interstate shipments for less than 100 pounds, the Nebraska railway commission will ask the interstate commerce commission for a ruling in the matter.

Divorces Due to Bad Cooking.

Lincoln, May 23.—Dr. W. H. Wiley, chief of the government bureau of chemistry at Washington, in an address to the students of the University of Nebraska, said that 75 per cent of the divorces was due to bad cooking. His address was a plea for the observance of the pure food laws of the country.

Eli Barnes Next Commander.

Hastings, Neb., May 23.—Eli Barnes of Grand Island was selected department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. The next encampment will be in York.

Schavland Secretary of State Board.

Lincoln, May 22.—Chris Schavland of Madison was elected secretary of the state board of equalization. Schavland has been county clerk and county treasurer of Madison county.

Two Waterloos.

It is a very curious fact that a good many people do not know that two battles were fought at Waterloo. Both of those were fought against the French, the first under the command of the Duke of Marlborough on Aug. 17, 1705, who on this date actually occupied the same ground as the Duke of Wellington did a little more than a century later, June 17, 1815, the only difference being that the former was marching on Brussels and the latter was marching from Brussels. In the first battle the French were defending Brussels. They marched out to meet Marlborough, but owing to the sickness on the part of Schlangenburg, the Dutch general, who was fighting with him, it was not a success, Marlborough only taking a few of the French troops as prisoners. The following one, fought against Napoleon by Wellington, proved to be one of the greatest victories ever recorded in the annals of England.

Couldn't Be Divided.

In Felix Moscheles' "Fragments of an Autobiography" occurs the following: Mme. Schumann was wanted to play at a little musical reunion, but she did not respond. Mr. Moscheles was deputed to approach her. "Was she inclined to play?"

"Particularly disinclined," was the discouraging response.

The envoy tried again and mentioned her husband's "Carnaval." "One part I particularly love, the 'March of the Davidsbündler.' If I could only hear you play just that page or two!"

This roused her. "Page or two, indeed!" she cried. "Wenn man da 'Carnaval' spielt, spielt man ihn ganz." (When one plays the "Carnaval," one must play it all.) And she played the whole.

They Must Be Hardy.

An official of the department of agriculture referred at a dinner in Washington to the amateur florists who spring up in the suburbs every spring by thousands.

"More florists perhaps than flowers spring up," he said.

"In a seed shop one day I heard one of these amateurs complain about the last batch of seeds he had bought. After he had ended his complaint he began to ask floral questions.

"'Oh, by the way,' he said, 'what is a hardy rose?'

"'It is one,' growled the dealer, 'that doesn't mind your wife pulling it up by the roots every day to see if it has begun to grow yet.'"

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
