SANTA CLAUS FOUND.
Greatest Discovery of the Age.

Wonderful discoveries in the world have been made
Among other things where Santa Claus stayed
Children oft ask if he makes goods or not,
If really he lives in a mountain of snow.
Last year an excursion sailed clear to the Pole
And suddenly dropped into what seemed like a hole
Where wonder of wonders they found a new land,
While fairy-like beings appeared on each hand.
There were mountains like ours, with more beautiful green,
And far brighter skies than ever were seen,
Birds with the hues of a rainbow were found,
While flowers of exquisite fragrance were growing around.
Not long were they left to wonder in doubt
A being soon came they had heard much about,
Twas Santa Claus' self and th ki they all say,
He looked like the pictures we see every day.
He drove up a team that looked very queer,
'Twas a team of grasshoppers instead of reindeer,
He rode in a shell instead of a sleigh,
But he took them on board and drove them away.
He showed them all over his wonderful realm,
And factories making goods for women and men
Furriers were working on hats great and small,
To Bunce's they said they were sending them all.
Kris Kingle, the Glove Maker, told them at once,
All our Gloves we are sending to Bunce,
Santa showed them suspenders and many things more,
Saying I also took them to friend Bunce's store.
Santa Claus then whispered a secret he'd tell,
As in Omaha every one knew Bunce well,
He therefore should send his goods to his care,
Knowing his friends will get their full share.
Now remember ye dwellers in Omaha town,
All who want presents to Bunce's go round,
For shirts, collars, or gloves great and small,
Send your sister or aunt one and all.
Bunce, Champion Hatter of the West, Douglas st. Omaha

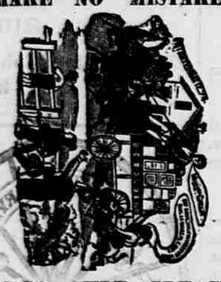
MAKE NO MISTAKE!



MICA AXLE GREASE
Composed largely of powdered mica and isinglass is the best and cheapest lubricator in the world. It is the best because it does not gum, but forms a highly polished surface over the axle, doing away with a large amount of friction. It is the cheapest because you need use but half the quantity in greasing your wagon that you would of any other axle grease made, and then run your wagon twice as long. It answers equally as well for Mill Gearing, Threshing Machines, Buggies, &c., as for wagons—Send for Pocket Cyclopedia of Things Worth Knowing. Mailed free to any address

LIFE IN LEADVILLE.

A Colorado Missionary Tells of a Vestryman's Drinking Powers and How Charitable Subscribers Suddenly Skip Away.

Philadelphia Press.

The pulpit of the Protestant Episcopal church of the Epiphany, corner of Fifteenth and Chestnut streets, yesterday afternoon was occupied by Rev. T. J. Mackay, a missionary from Leadville, Col., who delivered a brief but interesting discourse on missionary life in Colorado. Beginning with a description of the character of the country, its picturesque grandeur, fertile fields and pleasant climate, the reverend speaker proceeded to relate his experience in the town of Leadville.

"When I went to Leadville," said he, "fifteen months ago, I found it a most astonishing place. Instead of a hamlet I found a thriving town with churches of every denomination, five banks, five daily newspapers and brass bands at every corner at night. I was astonished and so would anyone else have been. The people of the Protestant Episcopal faith were worshiping in a small building, but I secured the opera house, which is filled to overflowing at every service by earnest fellows in blue shirts and with their pants tucked in their boots. They are made in the image of God, however, and have good hearts beneath a rough exterior. Leadville has improved solidly. I live in a house with two rooms, the walls and ceiling of which are covered with canvas, whitewashed to hide the two-inch boards which constitute the body of the building. Thanks to the clemency of the climate, my house is very comfortable excepting when the rain leaks through the roof. You will know that I am not complaining when I tell you that I would not exchange my parish for the very best in Philadelphia. My first vestryman could drink more whisky than any man in the town. Shortly after I made my appearance in the town my parishioners invited me to a church sociable and upon going I was astonished to see the worthy people waltzing and dancing in the most scandalous manner. To add to this there were two streets whose entire length were made up of low dance houses. How was I to overcome such a gigantic evil? I secured a hall, had the floor waxed, and after engaging a band of music I sent out invitations to all the young men of the place to come down and have a dance. I instructed my floor manager, who, by the way, made lots of money and skipped, not to allow any waltzing. The result was, that after enjoying square dances until 11 o'clock, the participants quietly dispersed. Some few said: "Wait till the preacher goes, then we'll have a waltz," but I was too smart for them—I carried the key of the hall, and did not leave until all had departed. Every other week I give such a sociable, and the results are remarkably good. This character of mission work would not do in Philadelphia or Boston, but it will do in Leadville. It may seem un-Godlike to practice such a course, but it is the only way to reach these people. When I first went out there the congregation used to applaud me when I was preaching, but I finally got them out of such an unholy habit. Leadville is a great place for display funerals. No matter who dies the funeral procession is headed by a brass band. When I buried Texas Jack, the partner of Buffalo Bill, the cortege was headed by a brass band of 42 pieces. Leadville is also a great place for titles. Everybody has a title. Captain is pretty good, but to command attention one must be a Colonel or a General. I am a sort of a General. I belong to five military companies and in my capacity as a militiaman I watch over my congregation. I have received hundreds of letters from persons living in the east inquiring after absent fathers, husbands, brothers and sons. Nearly every eastern town is interested in Leadville in this way. I am in need of $3000 for my church, and when I tell you that Leadville yielded $15,000,000 worth of of silver during the past year you will, no doubt, wonder why I come to Philadelphia for assistance. The silver thus mined was sent all over the country; it did us no good, for in return the people only got enough to pay the wages of the miners. The people, however, give liberally of what they have. One evening I solicited money to enable me to pay the church debt and over $3,000 was subscribed. Before I could collect the money, however, persons representing two-thirds of that amount had skipped. The place is a perfect beehive; people come to-day and are gone to-morrow." Rev. Mr. Mackey concluded with an appeal for aid, which was supplemented by one from Rev. Dr. Newton, both of which were responded to in a generous flow of contributions.

What Iowa Produces.

The increase in the product of creameries for the year was over $19,000,000.

The product of corn is given at 230,000,000 bushels. Give each horned animal, horse and mule forty bushels; each hog ten bushels, each person half a bushel, and to manufacture 5,000,000 bushels, and there is left for sale or export 130,176,130 bushels. Where does all this corn go?

THE POPULATION.

The Census Bureau at Washington gives the population of the state under the last enumeration, to-wit:

Males	848,235
Females	776,228
	1,624,463
Natives	1,363,015
Foreign	261,448
Whites	1,614,510
Colored	9,442
Indians	464
Chinese	47

In 1875 there were 49,631 more males than females, in 1880 the excess is increased to 72,007. In 1865, immediately after the close of the war, the difference was only 8367.
