Flour—In good aequest, chiefly for export prices, firm; sales were larger; common to choice spring wheat, western brands, $4 00@5 75; common to choice Minnesotas, $4@6; patents, $6@7 50; winter flours, $5@6 25.

Wheat—Spring wheat fairly active but the feeling was unsettled, and the course of the market somewhat irregular, particularly for August fu ures; prices ruled lower, influenced by fine weather, continued free arrivals and light shipments. Corn—In good speculative demand, but feeling somewhat unsettled; prices irregular; early in the day a fair degree of steadiness and a fair business was reported at outside figures.
