NORTH DIVIDE NUBBINS.

North Divide people are jogging along about the same as usual.

Fred Carter is figuring on buying a farm a few miles west of this place.

Neighbor Pat has been doing some very needy work in the way of fencing.

A. F. Reeves will look after the road affairs in this district for another year.

There is considerable sickness, of a light nature, throughout this neighborhood.

James Brady has improved the looks of his house by the addition of several coats of paint.

A. J. Hanlein is home from his Akron visit and has hired out to Joe Allen of Frontier county.

We understand that Michael Dooley is arranging to have his sister reside with him in future.

Some of the young folks are anxious to have a Christmas tree and entertainment again this year.

Uncle Billy Johnson has been overhauling and fixing up his stable to be in readiness for that early storm.

It may not be generally known, but it is said that we have an entirely new kind of Methodist in our midst.

There is talk of starting a literary society here, but judging from past experience, we would consider it a waste of time.

The writer has been dabbling around trying to do some so-called painting, much to the displeasure of all concerned.

North Divide's teacher is highly delighted at the "notes" that are sent him occasionally from would-be ambitious parents.

A number of the young folks from here attended a social, last Thursday evening, at the home of Mr. Harrison, "over beyant."

M. E. Piper, an all-around clever chap, and former instructor of the Divide school, is at present teaching up in the Spaulding district with much apparent success.

An Epworth League was formally organized at Box Elder, last Tuesday evening, the 15th instant. They will meet on Friday evening of each week, and we hope that much good may be the result of this move.

Rev. Vivian of the Box Elder M. E. church, is an unusually bright and thoughtful speaker, and large and appreciative audiences greet him each Sabbath. A series of protracted meetings are being held there this week.

It has been said that if one is anxious to have other people know you right well, all that is necessary is to run for some office or make sorghum molasses. This we get from one who, it appears, has been there himself, don't you know.

Farmers in general have been taking advantage of the pleasant weather, gathering what might have been a large yield of corn. If we will be permitted to use a slang expression we will say that "everything will be up and a comin'" another year, and even some of the independents are looking forth to better times. CONNIE.
